Mrs. Lohr, Mrs. Thompson Head Campaign

GREENSBORO — Mrs. L. L. Lohr, 208 N. Gaston Street, Kings Mountain and Mrs. Lyle Thompson, 816 Hill Street, Shelby, have been appointed co-chairmen for Cleveland County to head the 1969-70 Annual Giving Program of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The appointment was made by Mrs. Robert T. Bridges of Greensboro, chairman of the Alumni Annual Giving Council.

Mrs. Lohr, Mrs. Lyle Thompson and other UNC-G alumni leaders of the county will set up an organization to assist in this year's Alumni Annual Giving campaign. The beginning date for the local campaign will be announced in the weeks ahead.

There are 179 alumni of UNC-G living in Cleveland County, most of who mattended the institution during the years it was known as the Woman's College of UNC or North Carolina College for Women.

Similar county and community organizations involving more than 50 groups will make personal visitations during the fall to invite alumni participation in the annual gift to the University.

Last year in a similar campaign $142,000 was contributed, and the previous year's total was $131,500. The annual giving program has been in operation for seven years, with increases each successive year.

Funds raised during the campaign are allocated by the Alumni Annual Giving Council for vital campus programs not provided for by state appropriations. These include 28 alumni scholarships

Lions Sponsor Picnic For Blind

The Lions Clubs of Cleveland County are sponsoring a picnic at Camp Dogwood on Saturday September 6th. Citizens of Kings Mountain area who know of a blind person who would like to go on this outing should contact Ray Holmes, the President of the Kings Mountain Lions Club at 739-5829 or any member of the Lions club.

Camp Dogwood is a resort facility built on the north shores of Lake Norman in Lincoln County. The Lions Clubs of North Carolina have raised money for this project through local sales and money raising projects. At this time more than $250,000 dollars have been spent there.

Visitors will find a large recreation lodge with library, recreation and dining facilities. A large dormitory has just been dedicated that will sleep forty guests. On the lake front, swimming, boating, fishing, water skiing and other outdoor sports are available to the blind person.

Each summer vacation camps are open to any blind person at a very moderate cost and it is with the intent of this picnic to "show" the blind what is available for them.
