 He is a team leader in Company A, 5th Battalion of the division's 6th Infantry.

Know-How Referendum Is Slated

Polling places have been set up for the Nickels for Know How Referendum which will be held on November 25. The Nickels for Know How program was authorized and started in 1951. A referendum has been held every three years for the people to determine whether or not they want to continue this self-help program. By giving their approval to the program, all users of feed and fertilizer agree to assess themselves a nickel on each ton of feed and fertilizer they buy, the funds to be used to support agricultural education, research, and extension at North Carolina State University.

The polling places, as announced by Cameron Ware, director of the Agricultural Foundation for Cleveland County, are as follows:
 Township No. 1—Dillard Bridges Store and Godfrey & Mobley Store.
 Township No. 2—Dodd Brothers Store, Vocational Agriculture Dept. at Crest School.
 Township No. 3—No. 3 Egg Producers Assoc., Superior Feed Mills.

Township No. 4—Vocational Agriculture Dept. at Kings Mountain High School, Midway Service Station, Mtn. View Fruit Stand, Kings Mountain Farm Center, R. P. Seism Store at Patterson Grove, and the R. E. Ham-bright Store at Grover.
 Township No. 5—Eaker's Store at Mary's Grove and Waco Feed Mill at Waco.

Township No. 6—County Office Building, Shelby; the Wilson-Cornwell Gin; Morgan & Company, Shelby; Shelby F. C. X.; Shelby & Garden Shop; Putnam's Farm & Garden Center; Hardin-Dixon Tractor Company; and Rainbow Farm Center.
 Township No. 7—Martin Milling Company at Lattimore and S. J. Crawley Gin.

Township No. 8—Shuford & Shuford Service Station.
 Township No. 9—Boggs Gin
