All Counties Are Represented At UNC-G

GREENSBORO—All 100 counties in North Carolina are represented by graduate and undergraduate students enrolled this fall at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Among the 6,423 students attending UNC-G this fall are 21 students from Cleveland County. In addition, UNC-G has 193 alumni who live in Cleveland County.

The enrollment figures released recently by Chancellor James S. Ferguson show that male students are attending UNC-G in greater numbers than ever before. The roll now lists a total of 1,190 men in both undergraduate and graduate studies. This amounts to a 31 percent increase over last year's male enrollment and means that males now comprise 18 1/2 percent of the total enrollment. UNC - G, formerly Woman's College, became coeducational in the fall of 1964.

Thirty-six of the nation's 50 states also have sent students to UNC-G during the current academic year. Also represented are the District of Columbia, Guam, the Virgin Islands, Canal Zone, Canada, Hong Kong, Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, India, Japan, Thailand, Venezuela, Taiwan, and the Congo.

Last year the enrollment figures showed 96 countries and 36 states represented at UNC-G. Almost 900 students at UNC-G are from out of state this year. Last year the number was slightly over 800. UNC-G students from North Carolina now total 5,531.

THIS IS THE LAW

LIABILITY OF PARENTS
 Is a parent liable for the negligent acts of his minor child?

At common law the mere relation of parent and child imposes no liability on the parent for the wrongful acts of his minor child. In the absence of statute, the liability of the parent must be predicated upon evidence that the child was acting at the time as the servant or the agent of the parent.

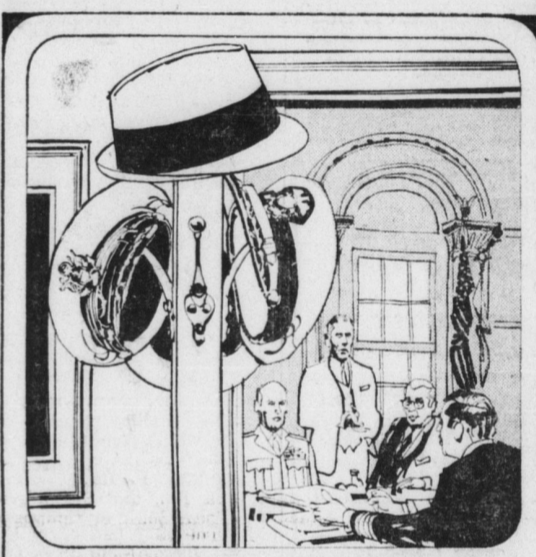

The child on a particular occasion may be acting as the agent or servant of his parent. If so, the parent is liable for any negligent act committed within the scope of the agency on the same basis as if the act had been committed by some other person.

The parent is liable for the tortious acts of a child, or any other person, which he directs, consents to or ratifies.

There has been an anomalous extension of the agency concept in North Carolina and a number of other states in respect to automobiles used for family purposes. This is the so-called "family purpose doctrine".

Under this doctrine, a person who owns or keeps an automobile which is furnished to the members of his family or household for their general use, pleasure, and convenience becomes liable for the negligent acts of any member of the family who might be driving it at his consent, express or implied. The relation thereby created is that of principal and agent.

The family purpose doctrine has been held not applicable to motor boats.

Our man with the Armed Forces

Because beer is such a favorite with service men, we brewers like to do all we can to keep its surroundings right. So USBA representatives serve as adviser members of the Armed Forces Disciplinary Control Boards throughout the country.

These men from the USBA operate hand in hand with service and civilian police, with malt beverage licensees, public boards and committees: military, civil, professional. Object: to protect those who are underage, and to insure strict observance of the law.

We're proud of the work they do.
