The Kings Mountain Little Theatre's opening play of the season, "The Curious Savage", attracted 480 people to Central auditorium Friday and Saturday.

Little Theatre members are inviting more citizens interested in joining the group to meet with them at 8p.m. at the Woman's club Thursday (tonight).

Steve Baity, the director of the group, elated over audience response to the group's first show in many seasons, said that work will begin soon on another production.

'We invited anyone interested to come to the meeting tonight", said Baity. He stated appreciation to the many on-stage and off-stage performers who made our opening a success."

Mrs. W. L. McMackin has returned home from Tampa, Fla. where she visited her son and daughterin-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McMackin, Jr.

Mrs. McMackin also visited Mrs. David Cooley in Winter Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooley in Fort Meade, Miss Irene Allen and her father, George Allen, in Palm Harbor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrill and family in Clearwater. The Allens and Harrills ere former Kings Mountain residents.

Charles Lowry (Chip) Hambright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Hambright, celebrated his second birthday November 11th.

Chip was sick, so a birthday party wasn't held. The family cut a train-decorated birthday cake, gift of Chip's aunt, Jane Hambright.

Chip is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hambright and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mullinax, all of Kings Mountain.

James Trent Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gardner of route 3, Clover, S. C., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James Jonas of Kings Mountain, celebrated his third birthday at his home on Sunday after-

The refreshment table was centered by a red and white birthday cake topped by a red firetruck and ladders. Punch and party refreshments were served to relatives and friends.

Attending from Kings Mountain were James Trent's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greene, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. D. L. Jonas, greatgrandmother of James Trent, and Misses Jessie and Lorraine Jonas; and Mrs. Peggy Gardner of Clover, C., James Trent's great-grandmother.

James Trent's mother is the former Carolyn Jonas of Kings Mountain.

PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT
