Foods Flavor Celebrations

"What's for dessert?" At Christmas, the traditional answer to this question in England, the United States and Canada is, "Mince pie and plum pudding."

One legend says that it brings good luck to eat mince pie on Christmas day.

In earlier times, mince pies were baked in an oblong shape meant to represent the manger.

Plum pudding, too, has its legend of luck, but here the good luck comes in the making of the pudding. Every member of the family must stir the pudding with roll collar and long matching scarf. The dress was topped by a double-breasted light blue wool coat designed along empire lines. She lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will be at home in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

C., and completed radiologic technology training from Greenville General hospital and nuclear medical technology from Duke Medical Center. She is a graduate of Winthrop college at Rock Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Hambright of Grover are parents of the bridegroom. He is a graduate of Clemson University where he received his degree in mechanical engineering and where he was a member of Delta Phi Kappa fraternity. He is associated in Charlotte.

while it's being made, if good fortune is desired, says an old English tradition.

Fruit cake is one of many specially-baked cakes that are part of the food-and-feasting customs of Christmas. These also are said to bring good fortune and good health.

Rice, elaborate cookies and special breads add to the flavor of the holiday season.
