Church Weddings Unite Two Couples, Wedding Date Set

Miss Rhonda Lynn Hefner became the bride of William Sloan Patterson Sunday, December 28th, in a 4 p.m. wedding in Snyder Memorial Baptist church of Fayetteville.

The Rev. John Wallace and the Rev. James C. Cammack heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. John Wallace was organist for the program of traditional wedding music.

Arched candelabra on the altar were interspersed with tree candelabra holding cathedral candles. Spider mums, chrysanthemums and gladioli were used in a central arrangement with a white kneeling bench completing the setting.

James Russell Hefner escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal candlelight design of angelskin tulle. The princess line bouffant gown was styled with sheer Camelot sleeves with buttoned lace cuffs. Re-embroidered Alencon lace covered the scalloped necked bodice and edged the attached Chapel train and hemline. The mantilla of Alencon lace was held by a pill-box. She carried a nosegay of ivory sweetheart roses.

Miss Beth Marie Miller of Granite Falls attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Robin Roberts of Hickory, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Fletcher McLaurin of Granite Falls; Mrs. Edward Boone of Winston Salem; Miss Anne Bingham of Lexington; Miss Susan Harward of Merritt Island, Fla.; and Miss Ann Meyer of Chevy Chase, Md.

Kimberly Smith of Franklinton, N. C., was flower girl.

All the attendants wore formal-length A-line gowns of emerald green Karate, belted at the empire waist. The bodices were of ivory organza styled with high ruffled collars and accented with green covered buttons. They carried bouquets of spider mums.

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Hefner of Fayetteville are parents of the bride. She is a graduate of Wake Forest University, Winston Salem, and the University of the Andes, Bogota, Colombia. She is a teacher at Terry Sanford High School in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hart Patterson of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. A graduate of Wake Forest University at Winston Salem, he is now serving with the Armed Forces stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, New Jersey.

Wedding guests included a large number from out-of-town, including Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Plonk, Miss Susan Plonk, Dr. and Mrs. George Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. George Webb Plonk, Miss Peggy Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Plonk, Miss Linda Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Mac Naire Tornow of Laurinburg; Susan Harward of Merritt Island, Fla.; Frances Bland of Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Plonk of Goldsboro; Kenneth Pollock of Richmond, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Barnes of Lumberton.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. James R. Hefner of Granite Falls and the late Mr. Hefner and of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Icenhour of Granite Falls. The bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Clarence Sloan Plonk of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Plonk and of the late Dr. and Mrs. George B. Patterson of Fayetteville.

Mrs. C. S. Plonk, Sr., maternal grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a purple ensemble with matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception at Green Valley Country club. The green and white theme of the wedding was predominant in decorative details and refreshments. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with yellow and white cutwork cloth with a three-branched candelabrum set with yellow tapers and arranged with mums and snapped dragons at the center. The bride and bridegroom cut a three-tiered wedding cake from a second refreshment table, also done in yellow and white.

Members of the bridal party made up the receiving line.

For a wedding trip to Hilton Head, South Carolina, the new Mrs. Patterson wore a cape and dress ensemble of red wool with black accessories. She lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.
