length dress of deep gold bonded crepe with dark gold accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.
The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua-grey dress with matching hat and accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.
The bride's parents entertained at a reception following the ceremony.
The bride's table, overlaid with net over green, held a three-tiered cake as highlight of the affair. Corners of the table were decorated with red and white satin bows. The bride and groom were served with refreshments.
In sending and on the bride's table, the bride wore a black acetate crepe ensemble with red knit vest and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.
The newlyweds are at home at 22 Bennett Drive in Kings Mountain.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Lehman D. Stroup of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. She is a junior student at Kings Mountain high school where she will continue her education.
The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Rikard of Kings Mountain. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, he is employed by Duplex-Shannon.

James Throneburg has returned to New York City after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg.
