

MRS. BENJAMIN HUDSON BRIDGES, III
(Linnor Brooke Reynolds)

MRS. RUSSELL D. GREEN
(Billie Jean Hoyle)

MRS. CLAUDE RICHARD JENNINGS
(Barbara Jean Cole)

Linda Plonk Tapped For Student Post

Miss Linda Plonk, senior student at Limestone college in Gaffney, S. C., has been elected president of Cooper Hall for the spring semester.

Miss Plonk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Plonk, was a freshman counselor last semester. She is majoring in biology.

Linda, along with Miss Debbie Plonk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Plonk were among those making the Dean's list for the fall semester at Limestone. Debbie is a freshman student majoring in English.

TICKETS GO ON SALE

Town and Country Garden Club members have advance sale tickets for the February 1-March 1 Southern Living and Garden Show at Charlotte's Merchandise Mart. Tickets are $1.50. Regular admission is $2.

Tickets may be obtained at Griffin Drug Company or from any garden club member or any member of the club's finance committee which includes Mrs. Scarr Morrison, Mrs. Jack Arnette, Mrs. W. Lawrence Logan and Mrs. Richard Greene.

January Nuptials Unite Three Kings Mountain Area Couples

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hudson Bridges, III, are on a wedding trip to Ocho Rios, Jamaica, and upon their return will be at home in Salisbury.

Miss Elnor Brooke Reynolds became Mr. Bridges' bride Sunday in a 4 p.m. wedding in Salisbury's St. Johns Evangelical Lutheran church.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the Rev. R. Douglas Fritz, a former minister of Kings Mountain's Resurrection Lutheran church.

Arthur Honeychurch was organist for the program of traditional music.

Paul B. Reynolds escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was an empire formal design of all-over embroidered white mousseline de soie with short sleeves, low rounded neckline and matching full-train. She wore a Spanish mantilla of lace and net and carried a round bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and bouvardia.

Mrs. Richard Erik Jenkins of Raleigh attended the bride as matron of honor and Miss Sharon Clawson of Salisbury was maid of honor.

The two attendants wore empire styled gowns made of tiers of white lace underlaid with satin ribbons, alternating light green and moss green. They wore headresses of matching fresh flowers and carried bouquets of nosegays of stephanotis and English ivy.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, William Douglas Bridges, of Kings Mountain.

Jacob Bridges, brother of the bridegroom, ushered with Paul B. Reynolds, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed wedding reception at their home in Salisbury.

For traveling, Mrs. Bridges chose a red and white wool coat and dress ensemble and lifted the gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Reynolds of Salisbury are parents of the bride. She attended Converse college and was graduated from Catawba college, Salisbury. She made her debut at the Shelby Sub-Debutante Ball in 1965 and at the Raleigh state debutante ball in 1966. She will teach third grade next semester at Faith Elementary school in Salisbury.

Don Parker Club Speaker Monday At 7:45

Donald W. Parker, Director of Federal Programs for the Kings Mountain Schools will speak at the regular monthly meeting of the Kings Mountain Woman's club Monday evening, January 26, at 7:45.

Mr. Parker will discuss the latest request by the local schools for federal funds.

Under Title 8, this program involves early childhood education and is designed to combat the drop-out problem.

All club members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Green Rejoins Staff Of Helen's

Mrs. Billie Jean Hoyle Green has rejoined the staff of Helen's Beauty Salon, announces Mrs. Helen Jenkins, owner-manager, 1003 Ramsey Street, and other members of Helen's staff are Mrs. Diane Nichols, Jimmy Earnley, and Teresa Hammett.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Benjamin Hudson Bridges, J., of Kings Mountain and the late former City Commissioner Bridges. He is a student at Catawba college, Salisbury, and will graduate in June 1970.

The newlyweds will be at home at 920 Lincoln Road, Salisbury, after January 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Hoyle of Kings Mountain announce the marriage of their daughter, Billie Jean, to Russell D. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Green of Gastonia.

The bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, Southeastern Beauty College of Charlotte and is employed at Helen's Beauty Salon in Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Ashley high school, Gaston College, and is now serving in the U. S. Air Force at Ton Son Nhut Air Base in South Vietnam.

The wedding was an event of January 5th.

Miss Barbara Jean Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Cole, of Kings Mountain, was married Sunday, January 11th, to Claude Richard Jennings at 4 p.m. The bridegroom is foster son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson of Shelby.

Rev. R. L. Garvin, pastor of the bride, heard the couple pledge vows of the double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride.

Nuptial music was rendered by records. James and Otis Cole, uncles of the bride, were acolytes.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a winter white jersey dress accented with gold beads at the waistline with matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby's breath with streamers of white satin and valley lilies.

Miss Annie L. Cole of N. C. Central college, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink crepe street-length dress with a bouquet of white carnations.

W. D. Wilson of Shelby was best man for his nephew.

Background decoration consisted of Hawaiian fern and floral wood-fern arranged with cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra. Centering the setting were white wedding bells.

The mother of the bride was attired in white crepe with matching accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage.

The aunt of the bridegroom was attired in a red wool dress with black accessories and a white corsage.

The paternal grandmother of the bride was attired in a blue dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception after the ceremony. A color note of green and white featured the decorations.

The bride's table was overlaid with white lace tablecloth and held the wedding cake as central decoration. Assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. Lawyer Quinn, Mrs. Iva Hoger, Darlene and Marlene Quinn, Gladys Cole and Mrs. Margie Cole. Mrs. Clista Cole introduced the receiving line.

Mrs. R. L. Garvin directed the wedding.

Mrs. Grace Setzer invited guests to register.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Kings Mountain high school.

The bridegroom is a 1967 graduate of Shelby high school. He has served 18 months duty in the U. S. Marine Corps and will report for duty in Korea in February.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Gill, David Ruffin, Deborah Rudisill, Tonda Mauney and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson, all of Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Setzer of Gastonia; and Brenda Dawkins, Linda Dawkins, Shirley Dawkins, Verna Sue Dawkins and Grace Dawkins, all of Grover.

The bride-to-be wore an off-white party dress and a corsage of white carnations and greenery.

The 35 guests who called from 7 until 9 p.m. showered the bride-elect with miscellaneous household gifts.

A color note of green and white featured decorative details. Punch was served with party cakes, mints and nuts.

Society News

Thursday, January 22, 1970 KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. Section B

Golden Wedding Day For Wells'

Mr. and Mrs. William Mike Wells celebrated their Golden Wedding Day Sunday at an anniversary open house from 3 until 5 p.m. in the recreation building of First Baptist church.

The nine children, 18 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren of the couple were hosts for the party attended by over 100 friends and relatives.

Receiving with their parents were William (Bill) Wells, Miss Betty Wells, Toney Wells, Boyce Wells, Mrs. Harley Gore, all of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Nellie Godfrey, Bobby Wells, Mrs. Shirley Holshouser, all of Charlotte, and Bethel Wells of Greensboro.

Daughters-in-law and sons-in-law of the honored couple also assisted in receiving and entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Poston were at the front door to receive arriving callers.

Mrs. Kay Lee of Blacksburg, S. C., Mrs. Kate Gore, Mrs. Betty Gore, both of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Donna Smith of Charlotte, all granddaughters of the honored couple, were at the refreshment table to serve cake and punch.

The refreshment table, high-light of decoration, was overlaid with lace over yellow satin and held a tall three-tiered columned cake in yellow, white and green. The cake was frosted with tiny swans and white bells and held the number 50 on top. Golden punch was also served with the cake, mints and nuts.

For the reception Mrs. Wells, the honoree, wore a navy blue suit with a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Longtime residents of Kings Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Wells are active in Victory Baptist church. Mrs. Wells is the former Sue Toney of Bessemer City. Mr. Wells is a retired textile employee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells were married January 18, 1920.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Wells are active in Victory Baptist church. Mrs. Wells is the former Sue Toney of Bessemer City. Mr. Wells is a retired textile employee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells were married January 18, 1920.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

Vanilla is, by far, the most popular flavoring extract.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday:

7:00-9 p.m.—Tri-outs for "Cinderella," Little Theatre play, at the Woman's club.

7:00 p.m.—Executive board of Kings Mountain Woman's Club will meet at the clubhouse.

7:45 p.m.—Regular monthly meeting of Kings Mountain Woman's club at the clubhouse.

Arrowoods Had Yule Party On Sunday

Jeff and Merinda Arrowood, who are in a foster home temporarily, spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. Fate Arrowood on Loding Street. Mrs. Arrowood had a delayed Christmas party for them Sunday.

A family dinner was served and the children were presented their toys from Santa Claus and from relatives. Moving pictures were taken of the children as they opened their gifts, and later while they were at play. Gifts from relatives were also presented to the hosts, who observed a birthday anniversary January 12, and she presented them with late Christmas presents.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gunnells and Miss Peggy Gunnells of Shelby, Jeff and Merinda and Miss Lana Arrowood and the hostess, Scott Crawford of Mt. Holly, who was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crawford, spent a while with Jeff, too. Little Elizabeth Arrowood was not present for the party, but gifts were sent to her.

Sunday night Mrs. Arrowood had Mr. and Mrs. Devor Moore of Blacksburg, S. C. as supper guests. Late Christmas gifts were presented to them, also.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

"Horn In The West," the story of the efforts by early American settlers to develop Western North Carolina is re-created each summer near Boone.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Don Blanton, 408 Oakdale street, Gastonia, announce the arrival of a son, Andrew Wayne Blanton, Friday, January 16, Gaston Memorial hospital, Gastonia.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blanton of 111 Fulton road, Kings Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Wright of Route 1, Belmont.

Lisa Hope Sherrer, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sherrer of 314 Maner road, won a first place trophy for Special Beginner Fancy Strutting in a baton contest at Shelby City Park Saturday.

Contestants from all over the state competed for the awards.

Lisa also holds a first place trophy for Special Beginner Twirling for 1969. She is a member of Drum Majorettes of America and is a student of Mrs. Linda Horn in Shelby.

Lisa is a seventh grade student at Central school.

Mrs. Raymond Holmes of Kings Mountain was elected chairman of the program committee for 1970-72 of the Pioneer Girl Scout Council and three Kings Mountain Girl Scout leaders — Mrs. Herman Cash, Mrs. Robert Green and Mrs. Floyd Queen, were honored for five-year-service at the annual meeting Saturday of the Pioneer Girl Scout Council at Dixie Village Cafeteria, Gastonia.

Election and installation of new officers and presentation of service awards highlighted the luncheon meeting.

Six adults were presented plaques for outstanding leadership — Mrs. John Gamble, Jr., Mrs. L. S. Rankin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Upchurch, and Lacy Faust.

Mrs. James C. Scruggs of Grover presented the report from the National Girl Scout Council meeting in Seattle, Washington, which she attended as representative of the Council. Senior Girl Scouts reporting on recent Senior Events were Rita Dees of Gastonia who attended a visual arts workshop in Kansas, Ann Hinkle of Belmont who saw the Apollo XII launching in Florida, and Patti Prather of Belmont who attended "Archery" workshops in Alabama. Senior Scout Kathy Love of Belmont recapped for the group a three-day camp for disadvantaged girls sponsored by the Council last summer.

Mrs. Scruggs began a two-year term as chairman of the training committee in 1969.

Mrs. Paul McGinnis, Jr. of Cherryville, daughter-in-

(Continued on Page Two)

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MIKE WELLS
... note Golden Wedding Day