

We interrupt this newspaper to bring you a message of great interest.

Regular Passbook Savings now earn 4 1/2% interest, up from the 4% you have been earning. This is true daily interest, and is the highest allowed by the Federal Reserve.

One-Year Certificates of Deposit are up from 5% to 5 1/2% interest. These certificates require $1,000 minimum deposit.

Two-Year Certificates of Deposit increase from 5% to 5 3/4% interest. $1,000 minimum deposit.

Certificates of Deposit for corporations, institutions and other large investors with minimum deposits of $100,000 or more have new higher interest rates, too. Interest varies from 6 1/2% on 30-day deposits up to 7 1/2% for money left on deposit one year or more.

These are the highest interest rates allowed by the Federal Reserve.

And now, all deposits are insured up to $20,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Call First Union National. We show a little more interest in your money.
