It's A Girl For Robbs Family

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Melvin Robbs of 815-A East King street announce the birth of a daughter, Amy Elizabeth, Sunday, March 1, Cleveland Memorial hospital, Shelby.

The baby weighed seven pounds.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ivey of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Eunice Robbs and Buford Robbs, both of Kings Mountain.

Amy Elizabeth's mother is the former Judy Ivey.

North Carolina School of the Arts, Winston-Salem. Morgan, a Shelby high school junior, is also a student of Welch School of Dance.

Both men's and women's fashions will be modeled and proceeds will be used to buy work materials for special education classes in the Blacksburg schools, according to announcement by Mrs. Wilbur Bedford, chairman.

Other local residents who will perform on the program are Miss Claudia Bonner, a former Miss Cherokee County; Vickie Moss, the reigning South Carolina Miss Junior Miss; Dallas Turnage, Miss Blacksburg, and Odell Love, "Country Gentleman."

Mike McGill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGill, of Blacksburg, formerly of Kings Mountain, will be among models.

Bride-Elect, Linda Scism Is Honored

Miss Linda Faye Scism, bride-elect of Wayne Rex Paul, was honored Saturday at a bridal party held in the fellowship hall of Patterson Grove Baptist church.

Entertaining together were Mrs. Gilbert Patterson, Mrs. Jack Scism, Mrs. Mike Ware, Miss Elaine Dixon, Miss Linda Roberts and Mrs. Linda Farris.

A color note of green, yellow and white was featured in decorative details and refreshments. The refreshment table, overlaid in white, held a central arrangement of yellow and white flowers with a candelabrum of tapers. Bell-shaped sandwiches were served with cakes and lime sherbet punch.

The bride-to-be was given a yellow corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her party dress.

The hostesses gave the honoree a place setting in the pattern of china. The 25 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous gifts.

In the galley of the Battleship USS North Carolina there were 8 million single meals served during the ship's active duty from 1941 to 1947.

First printing press arrived in New York from abroad in 1693.
