MISS KATHRYN GAIL PLONK (Bride-Elect of Thomas Frank Goforth)

MRS. DANIEL C. PARKER (Wanda Kay Biddix)

Powells, Dellingers, Parkers Wed; Summer Nuptials Set By Three Area Couples

Kings Mountain Baptist church was the setting Saturday afternoon, March 21, at 4 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Catherine Elaine Dixon of Kings Mountain, and Pvt. Jay William Powell of Kings Mountain and Ft. Bragg.

Rev. James Wilder, the bride's pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony with the Candle Service. The altar of the church was banked with green emerald palms and Boston ferns with candelabras holding white cathedral tapers and a candle arch in the center. Two tree arches, holding white candles, were on either side of the altar. Floor baskets of white gadioli and Easter lilies were used throughout the sanctuary. The white wedding bench held the three cathedral tapers used in the Candle Service.

Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. J. C. Bridges, organist, and B. S. Peeler, Jr. vocal soloist. Mrs. Bridges played "Ah! So Pure from 'Martha' by von Flolov, 'Canzonetta', by Sitekles, 'I Love You Truly', Bond, 'Arioso', Bach, 'Traumerai', Schuman, 'Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring', and 'O Perfect Love', Enoch, Mr. Peeler sang "Treat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod, before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer", by Dunlap, at the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used as the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an Empire A-line gown of white, made of silk organza over satin designed by Macerer. It featured a scooped neckline with short sleeves. The bodice was ornated in pearls and scalloped lace. The flared skirt fell gracefully to the floor. The tubular train with pearl trimmed lace motif of matching lace caught under lace applique at the waistline and spread chapel length. Her veil, a full length mantilla of imported English illusion framed in matching lace scallops, was worn over a camelot cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white carnations, valley lilies and ribbon streamers. The bride wore a lavalliere that the groom's maternal grandmother wore on her wedding day.

Miss Linda Roberts of Kings Mountain, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Sheila Dixon, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore floor length dresses of petal pink sate. Styled on Empire A-line, the bodice featured a scooped neckline and short sleeves. A wide border of white Venise lace underscored the bustline and extended down the back of an inverted pleat, topped with a feat bow of matching material. Their headpieces were open crown camelot caps in matching tones worn with tulle veils. They wore dyed-to-match slippers and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and pink rosebuds accented with pink streamers.

Miss Ruth Hulleder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hulleder, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a floor length dress of white tulle. Styled on empire lines, pink velvet ribbon and wide lace underscored the bustline. A train, edged in wide lace, extended from the back seam above the waistline. Her headpiece was a pink velvet bow with white tulle veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds accented with pink streamers. (Continued On Page Two)

David Baptist church provided the setting Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Mary Anna Hastings and Mrs. Kenneth Wayne Dellinger. Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the bride's father, Rev. A. R. Hastings, minister of the church.

Mrs. Marie Horn was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Mrs. Gene Hoyle, Mrs. Edwin Babbs and Mrs. Samuel Blanton. Mrs. Hoyle and Mrs. Babbs sang a duet, "Whither Thou Goest" and Mrs. Blanton sang "The (Continued On Page Two)

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sloan Plonk announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Gail, to Thomas Frank Goforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Goforth, Sr. Both families are of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect and the prospective bridegroom are both graduates of Kings Mountain high school and are now attending Appalachian State University. The wedding will be an event of late summer at Resurrection Lutheran church, Kings Mountain.

Miss Wanda Kay Biddix became the bride of Daniel C. Parker Sunday afternoon in a 4 p.m. exchange of vows in East Gold Street Wesleyan Methodist church.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Edwin R. Chriscoco, pastor of the church, assisted by the bridegroom's grandfather, Rev. C. C. Parker, of Marion. Mrs. Bobby Goodson was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Bobby Goodson and Mrs. J. D. Biddix who sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony. Mr. Goodson sang "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction. White and gold antique arched candelabra holding cathedral tapers formed the setting for the exchange of vows. On either side of the altar were seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Oregon ferns formed the background of white ferns centering the setting. City Commissioner W. Seimore Biddix escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of Dulect satin and imported Peau d'Ange lace styled in empire silhouette. The empire bodice featured a sheer yoke outlined with garlands of lace medallions traced in seed pearls. A satin bow accented the front waist. The full lace bishop sleeves had deep cuffs at the wrist. The A line satin skirt was detachable lace-trimmed train was caught to a bow at the waist and spread chapel length.

The bouffant veil of triple tiers of imported silk illusion was caught to a plateau of lace petals sparked with pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of Hahn's ivy and cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. John Roscoe Teal of Toccoa, Ga. attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Wheeler of Kings Mountain and Miss Kathy Godfrey of Richmond, Va. Miss Toni Christine Ledford of Gastonia, niece of the bride, was flower girl. All the attendants wore floor length dresses of powder blue silk georgette posed over taffeta styled with a scoop neckline which dipped to a squared V back. The raised empire waists were circled with grosgrain ribbon and Venise floral embroidery. The long sleeves were finished with belled self ruffles circled by dyed-to-match Venise trim. The dome skirts were softly gathered at the waist. They wore matching headdresses and carried white lace umbrellas arranged with blue ribbons and Hahn's ivy.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father. John Roscoe Teal, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered with Bill and Keith Parker, brothers of the bridegroom. The bride's mother chose a beige suit with green accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink suit with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. Legion Birthday Dance Saturday At 9

American Legion Post 155 will hold a birthday dance Saturday in celebration of the 51st anniversary of the national organization and 44th birthday of the local post.

"The Blue Velvets" will play for the dance, from 9 until 12 p.m. Saturday at the American Legion building. Legionnaires, their wives and guests are invited to attend.

Otis D. Green Post 155 of Kings Mountain was chartered in 1925. The American Legion was founded March 15-17 1919, during a caucus in Paris, France, attended by representatives of the various outfits of the American Expeditionary Force of World War I. The organization has since opened its ranks to veterans of World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War.

Here in Kings Mountain, Otis D. Green Post 55 American Legion and the Auxiliary are both active organizations. Carl F. Wilson is commander of the Legion and Mrs. Orangrel B. Jolly is president of the Auxiliary.

The gigantic birthday celebration — of which Post No. 155's festivities will be a part—will include participation by the more than 10,000 American Legion Posts and Auxiliaries throughout the nation and overseas.

As part of its preparation for the observance, Post 155 is putting the finishing touches on its 1970 membership drive. Commander

Wilson explained, Nationally, the American Legion has recorded five consecutive years of membership gain, he pointed out, and his membership workers are striving to give further emphasis to the Legion's 1970 theme—"U.S.A.—Unity and Service For America"—through an increase in the number of Legionnaires taking part in the programs of Post No. 155.
