Aunts Fete
Bride-Elect
Donna Crawford

Mrs. Horace Kiser and her sister, Mrs. R. C. Grayson, entertained together Friday at a family drop-in shower honoring their niece, Miss Donna Ann Crawford whose wedding to Joe Bill Cornwell takes place April 25th in Boyce Memorial ARP church.

Family members showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts and called from 7:30 until 9:30 at the Kiser home.

The hostesses presented the bride-to-be a corsage of wedding bells which she pinned to her party dress and a 10-piece set of Corningware as their wedding gift.

The refreshment table was overlaid with white linen cutwork and held a bridal bouquet interspersed with wedding bells and green candles as central decoration. Punch and party pickups were served.

Roxie Sellers,
Bride-Elect
Is Honored

Miss Roxie Sellers, bride-elect of Mike Trammell, was honored Saturday evening at a bridal shower from 7 until 9 p.m. at the home of her aunt, Miss Annie Mae Sellers, in the Dixon community.

Entertaining with Miss Sellers was her niece, Mrs. David Love, cousin of the bride-elect.

The honoree wore a white party dress and was given a shoulder corsage of carnations from the hostesses.

The hostesses and 41 guests showered the bride-elect with miscellaneous household gifts.

A color note of pink and white was featured in decorations and refreshments. Arrangements of pink and white snapdragons decorated the home. Pink and white ice cream and mints were served with punch.

SHOWERPROOF — Maid of Cotton Gayle Thornton is ready for April showers in her contemporary mass coat by Mallory. In natural cotton canvas, it's leather-trimmed.

Maid's Eye
View Of Fashion
For Spring, Summer

The travel wardrobe of 1970 Maid of Cotton Gayle Thornton captures the latest and greatest in the world of fashion. And a quick preview shows the most potent fashion message is telegraphed in prints.

On her six months' international tour, the Maid travels with a 'round-the-clock wardrobe of high fashion cottons. It includes pantsuits, coats, afternoon dresses, cocktail ensembles, and formal evening gowns.

Outfits are gently shaped and feminine, with skirts that are A-shaped, gathered, or swinging with inverted pleats. Belts, placed high or slightly above the waistline, accent almost every style.

While silhouettes are soft, fluid, and uncluttered, the fabrics are sharply defined in eye-catching prints that come in all colors of the rainbow... in true only-in-cotton hues.

Stripes, florals, polka dots, patchwork, abstracts, and geometrics add extra dimension to

Food Director To Meeting

Some 100 school food service directors from all parts of the State will meet in Asheville April 14-17 for a Spring Workshop to be sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction.

Mrs. Helen Logan, food service Supervisor for Kings Mountain City schools is expected to attend.

Ralph Eaton, director of school food services for the State Department of Public Instruction, is in charge of arrangements for the meeting. The program, he said, will emphasize administration, nutrition, and management.

According to Eaton the number of school food supervisors has increased from 40 in 1963 to 95 in 1970.

Craig Phillips, Superintendent of the State Department of Public Instruction, said the workshop is another example of the Department's effort to keep up with developments and to continue the training of all public school personnel.

Garden Club
To Show Exhibit

Kings Mountain Garden club will exhibit an educational display in the Three Seasons Garden club Standard Flower Show this weekend in Shelby.

The show will be staged on Saturday until 8 p.m. and from 12 noon until 5 p.m. Sunday at Shelby City Park.

The Maid's wardrobe of cotton knits, brocades, jacquards, ottomans, piques, and double wovens.

One smart ensemble in the 30's mood is a skimmer dress and tunic coat. It's in soft cotton jersey printed with big pen-and-ink oriental flowers.

Another newsmaking costume is a high-belted jacket and dress in a three-dimensional raschel cotton knit. The fabric features a bold red and white geometric design.

In the color palette, the wardrobe features shades of French blue, apricot, palest yellow, primary red, and pastel pink. Brown and white is a popular combination for day-time as well as evening.

Project Plans
Are Reviewed
By Garden Club

Kings Mountain Garden club is beginning a project to erect welcome markers at city entrances with names of the nine civic organizations enshrined and discussed the project at Wednesday's meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Padgett.

Mrs. Larry Hamrick, reporting to the club on the project, said cost would exceed $500.

The club voted a $10 contribution to the Cancer Drive.

Program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Robert Davies who discussed, "Winter Birds." Mrs. Davies said there are ten common birds in North Carolina and illustrated her talk with pictures of birds and birdfeeders. After the program, Mrs. Moffatt Ware reminded members to display birds and accessories in the educational exhibit the club is sponsoring in Shelby's Four Seasons Garden club show this weekend in Shelby.

Mrs. Ware, in relating "helpful hints," said April is a good time to finish pruning and to plant trees. "Be sure and don't plant azaleas in red clay," reminded Mrs. Ware.

Mrs. Hamrick invited members to attend the state garden club convention in Winston Salem May 5-6 and Tryon House Tour on April 23.

Mrs. Moffatt Ware and Mrs. Frank Summers, scrapbook co-chairmen, will display the scrapbook of the year's activities at the May meeting, a dutch luncheon at the Country club.

Mrs. Hamrick read a thank you note from Mrs. J. E. Herdon, Sr., recently hospitalized after an automobile accident, who had received an azalea from the club as a remembrance gift.

Mrs. Charles May, mother of the hostess, assisted Mrs. Padgett in serving a dessert course.
