

Church Home-follow-up services... at 12:30... with singing... standing... acornburg...

5:21 p.m.

Society News

KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. SECTION B

MRS. HAROLD RUFUS WRIGHT (Miss Peggy Jane Blanton)

Blanton-Wright Marriage Vows Spoken Sunday In 4 P.M. Ceremony

Miss Peggy Jane Blanton and Harold Rufus Wright pledged their marriage vows in an impressive ceremony solemnized Sunday at 4 p.m. at Patterson Grove Baptist Church with the Rev. Richard Plyler officiating. The ceremony was performed before an altar of palms and branched candelabra holding tall white tapers. On the altar table was an open Bible and a three-branched silver candelabra holding white tapers. The Bible was centered with two red roses which the bride presented to her mother and to the bridegroom's mother at the end of the ceremony. A program of traditional wedding music was used prior to and during the ceremony with Miss Jantine Sellers rendering a vocal solo "Whither Thou Goest" by Gounod and Mrs. Jack L. Blanton singing "Wedding Prayer." Entering on the arm of her father, the bride chose a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta, the empire bodice styled with a scooped neckline accented with appliques of lace traced in pearls. Her wrist-length sleeves were gathered to five-button cuffs and the full skirt was caught to a bow at the back, spreading into a full chapel train. Her mantilla veil, lavishly bordered with lace, reached to her shoulders and was decorated with pink crepe with a jacket of matching venise lace and accessories of pink. She wore a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue crepe dress with which she wore matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. The bride's parents were hosts at a cake-cutting at their home immediately following the ceremony. Carrying out a color note of yellow, green and white, the bride's table was covered with a yellow linen cloth overlaid with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of spring flowers in shades of yellow and white. A silver candelabrum holding white tapers was posed opposite the three-tiered wedding cake, which was iced in white, decorated in green and yellow and topped with miniature bride and groom. After the wedding, couple cut the first slice of wedding cake, the cake was served with lime sherbet punch, party sandwiches, mint and nuts. Mrs. Sam Smart and Mrs. Glenn Hicke presided at the refreshment table. Mrs. Terry D. Bowen presided at the bridal register and Mrs. Gene Patterson directed the wedding. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hord Blanton of Route 3, Kings Mountain, the bride is a graduate of Tryon High School in Bessemer City and attended Gaston College. She was employed by the Lithium Corporation of America prior to her marriage. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. (Continued On Page Two)

MISS GLENDA ERDENIA THOMPSON (Brideelect of Raymond Louis Mitchem)

Miss Glenda Erdenia Thompson To Wed Raymond Louis Mitchem

The engagement of Miss Glenda Erdenia Thompson of Burlington to Raymond Louis Mitchem of Kings Mountain is announced today by her mother, Mrs. Lucille M. Ivey. The wedding will be an event of August 29 in Ebenezer Christian Church in Burlington. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchem of 505 North Watterson Street, Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of Compact high school and is a senior at North Carolina A & T State University. Daughter of Mrs. Ivey of 220 Foster Street, Burlington and Roy W. Thompson, Sr. of New York, N. Y., the bride-elect is a graduate of Jordan Sellers High School and is presently a junior at North Carolina A&T State University. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority and serves on the Women's Council at A&T.

Thursday, May 21, 1970 Woman's Club Will Hear Mrs. Haigler, Install New Officers

Mrs. B. F. Haigler, state citizenship chairman of Matthews, will be guest speaker at the final meeting of the club year for the Kings Mountain Woman's Club to be held Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the club building. Another highlight of the meeting will be installation of new officers to serve for the 1970-71 club year.

The Ways and Means Committee will be in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Haigler will also install the new officers, who are as follows: Mrs. W. T. Weir, president; Mrs. Eugene McCarter, first vice-president; Mrs. Don Blanton, second vice-president; Mrs. Ben Beam, chaplain; Mrs. Bryon Hord, secretary.

Miss Averitt Is Feted At Dinner

A dinner at Dixie Village Cafeteria last Thursday evening was given in honor of Miss Alice Averitt, who is retiring as coordinator of education in the Kings Mountain city schools, a post she has held for the past 19 years.

Hostesses for the event were a number of Miss Averitt's friends and they presented her with a corsage of pink roses and a gift. A booklet of poems and personal messages was presented to her also.

Sellers-Trammell Wedding Plans Are Announced

Miss Roxie Elaine Sellers has announced plans for her marriage on Sunday, May 24, to Francis Michael Trammell, the wedding to take place at Eastside Baptist Church at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Harry Vance officiating. A wedding rehearsal is scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday at the church and will be followed by a cake-cutting at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Trammell at 404 E. King Street.

Lee A. Sellers will give his daughter in marriage and she will be attended by Mrs. Tommy Bennett as matron of honor and the following bridesmaids: Mrs. Bruce Summey of Bethesda, Md. and Mrs. Joe M. Ormand of Kings Mountain, sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Becky Kennedy and Miss Ann Hammett of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Vick Packard of Shelby and Miss Brenda Neal of Bessemer City.

The bride's cousin, Regina Gregory, and Roxie Elaine Neal, the bride's namesake, will serve as flower girls. Michael Lloyd Ormand, nephew of the bridegroom, will be ringbearer.

J. A. Trammell will attend his son as best man and ushers will include George Clinton Trammell, III, his cousin; Bruce Summey of Bethesda, Md. and Joe M. Ormand of Kings Mountain, William Earnest (Butch) McCluney and Hugh Dillingham of Shelby and Jimmy White of Kings Mountain. The couple will greet their wedding guests in the vestibule of the church following the ceremony.

Contest Winners

John A. Balleu of Kings Mountain High School was among second place winners in chemistry in North Carolina High School Academic contests announced by the Bureau of School Services, Extension Division, at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Among those taking third place honors was Howard Swafford, also of Kings Mountain High School.

Fall is the time of the year to put away patio chairs, pull out the snow tires and pay for last summer's vacation.

Travel in the U. S. by foreigners has increased sharply. A 10.4 per cent increase was recorded the first five months of this year.

Boy down the way says mothers have a one-track mind. He played in the swimming pool all afternoon and still had to take a bath before going to bed.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED — Mrs. Nellie M. Dunn announces the marriage of her daughter, Myrtle, to William A. Christenson, the marriage having taken place May 10 in Gaffney, S.C. Mrs. Christenson is the daughter of Mrs. Dunn and the late Lottie Thomas of Kings Mountain. The bridegroom, who has just received his discharge from the U. S. Navy, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gust Christenson of Northern, Illinois. Mrs. Christenson is employed by B & B Food Stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yarbro Honored Sunday At Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Event

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yarbro, Sr. of Bethlehem Road celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon when they were honored at a reception at their home by their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yarbro, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ned T. Yarbro.

One hundred and forty friends and relatives called to wish the couple continued happiness, calling between 2 and 5 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Yarbro, the honored couple's grandson and his wife, greeted guests as they arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Yarbro received their guests in the living room. Mrs. Yarbro choosing a lilac knit dress with which she wore a yellow cymbidium. Mr. Yarbro wore a yellow rose pinned to his lapel. Their sons and daughters-in-law received with them.

Arrangements of bronze, gold and yellow mums and yellow glads were used in profusion throughout the house. In the dining room the refreshment table was covered with a gold cloth, overlaid with white lace, and was centered with a five-branched candelabra holding gold tapers and showered in the center epergne with yellow, gold and bronze mums and fern.

The three-tiered heart-shaped cake, iced in yellow and white and inscribed with "50th" in gold, was cut and served with nuts and heart-shaped mints. Mrs. Lallage Hord, sister of Mrs. Yarbro, cut and served the cake and another sister, Miss Picola Blalock, served punch from the opposite end of the table.

Four other sisters of Mrs. Yarbro also assisted in receiving and entertaining during the event: Mrs. Lois Bookout and Mrs. Ruth Dixon presiding in the gift room, Mrs. Beck Wright and Mrs. Har-

A large number of young men are being rejected from military service because of heart and blood vessel ailments, and a good many more are receiving disability discharges from the armed forces because of these ailments. The North Carolina Heart Association says that 307,500 men in military age bracket were rejected for service in World War II for this reason.

Drop-In Thursday At UNC-G Honors Two From K. Mtn.

Miss Libby Alexander, bride-elect of Roger Putnam, and Mrs. Gary Sugg, who was Miss Teresa Jolley before her February, 14 wedding, were honored at a handkerchief drop-in shower in Greensboro last Thursday evening. The event was held in McIver lounge on the campus of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro and was attended by 20 of their classmates, all graduating seniors from the music department who will be awarded their degrees in exercises on May 31.

Another classmate, Mrs. Barbara Bair, was hostess for the party and at the same time honored two other classmates whose weddings will occur soon, Miss Betty B. Jones of Charlotte and Miss Jean Blinson of Clayton. She presented each of the brides-elect a corsage of white carnations. Miss Alexander wore a light blue linen frock and Mrs. Sugg chose a white dress for the event.

Tempting refreshments were served between the calling hours of 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Attending from Kings Mountain were the two honorees' mothers, Mrs. T. H. Jolley and Mrs. James Alexander, and Mrs. Russell Putnam, the bridegroom-elect's mother.

Lovely Luncheon Marks Final Meeting Of Garden Club

Members of the Kings Mountain Garden Club enjoyed their final meeting of the club year with a delightful luncheon held on Wednesday, May 13, at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Ying for points during the year, Mrs. Carl Mauney's team was laser and thereby privileged to host the club at the festive event. Mrs. Philip Padgett and Mrs. George Houser were in charge of the menu which included shrimp salad, cheese souffle, a jollied salad, lemon meringue pie and hot rolls.

Lovely floral arrangements were made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Carl Mauney, from whose garden they were cut. Mrs. Frank Sincow was chairman of the flower committee and serving with her were Mrs. George H. Mauney and Mrs. Milton Fryer. An eye-catching arrangement of noonties was used in the foyer while the T-shaped table at which members were seated for lunch was a picture of beauty with its centerpiece of roses and peonies from which mock orange trailed the entire table length. Following the luncheon, the centerpiece was taken to Mrs. Cornelia May for her to enjoy. Other roses used for decorations were taken to First Presbyterian Church to be used for the Women of the Church's birthday party.

Mrs. Larry Hamrick, president, wore a corsage of yellow roses, which was created and presented to her by Mrs. Carl Mauney. Also, an attractive door prize, a yellow watering can filled with roses, was won by Mrs. Charles F. Mauney.

Mrs. Hamrick, in a short business session, reported that the club emblems are ready to be placed on the city's entrance signs and Mrs. M. A. Ware reported on awards the club won at the Three Seasons Garden Club show held April 18 in Shelby. The club was presented a blue ribbon award for its bird display. Mrs. J. E. Herndon, who will have charge of programs for the next club year, asked for suggestions from the group.

Mrs. Hamrick, in a short business session, reported that the club emblems are ready to be placed on the city's entrance signs and Mrs. M. A. Ware reported on awards the club won at the Three Seasons Garden Club show held April 18 in Shelby. The club was presented a blue ribbon award for its bird display. Mrs. J. E. Herndon, who will have charge of programs for the next club year, asked for suggestions from the group.

Recipe
CRAB NORTH CAROLINA
1 1/2 pounds crab meat
1/4 cup lemon juice
3/4 cup butter, melted
Paprika
Grated cheese, optional
Remove any remaining shell or cartilage from crab meat. Pour butter and lemon juice over crab meat; toss lightly. Place in 6 well-greased individual shells or 6-ounce custard cups. Sprinkle with paprika and grated cheese, if desired. Bake in a very hot oven, 450 degrees F. for 10 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Yields 6 servings.

MRS. FLOK RECEIVES NEWS OF 16th GREAT-GRANDCHILD

Mrs. C. S. Plonk became a great-grandmother for the sixteenth time Saturday, May 16, when a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis of Farmville. The baby boy, who was born in the Greenville Hospital, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Isley of Burlington and his mother was the former Kay Ellen Isley.

Stan Scruggs celebrated his ninth birthday Saturday when he entertained several of his friends at a movie party, after which they went to his home at 804 Linwood Drive to enjoy snacks of hot dogs, potato chips, ice cream, cake and colas. Stan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Scruggs, helped him entertain. His birthday cake was decorated with clowns.

T. B. Rape, lives in Blacksburg, S. C.

Stan's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Scruggs of Gaffney, S.C., and another grandfather of Shelby and Jimmy White of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. W. M. Gannt, prominently known throughout the state for her garden club work, was a charter member of the Open Gate Garden Club instead of the Kings Mountain Garden Club as the Herald reported last week. Mrs. Gannt and Mrs. Humes Houston were delegates to the 45th annual convention of Garden Club of North Carolina, Inc. in Winston-Salem recently.

LORI MICHELLE HAS BIRTHDAY

Lori Michelle Belt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Belt of 701 Landing Street, Kings Mountain, observed her second birthday on May 16 and had all of her little friends present to help her celebrate. Also present were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Burton of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Joseph Belt of Smyrna, S. C.

Lori Michelle's birthday cake was iced in yellow and white and decorated on top with two miniature little girl dolls. Her cake was cut and served with ice cream and colas.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Moreau announce the birth of a son, David Stewart, born May 2 in Chapel Hill. Mrs. Moreau is the former Polly Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Page of Kings Mountain.

(Continued on Page Two)