Planning a fishing trip or camping trip? It is a questionable practice to drink water directly from a lake or stream in most areas of the U. S. If you cannot secure approved public water, small amounts of water can be made reasonably safe for drinking by adding two drops of chlorine bleach or two drops of tincture of iodine to one pint of water and let stand for 30 minutes. A water purifying tablet is also marketed - one tablet to each pint of water. These are wise precautions also when traveling in some foreign countries.

Bell Lays Fifth Cable

Efforts of Bell System survey teams paid off last month as the fifth transatlantic cable, TAT-5, was successfully laid, opening a new era of lower cost phone service between the United States and Europe.

Now, callers in the Kings Mountain area, in fact in any area of North Carolina, can reach any point in 17 European countries at rates approximately 25 per cent lower than were possible before. This is because TAT-5 can handle more than 800 simultaneous telephone conversations and has reduced the load on other long distance facilities serving the same areas.

As could be expected, the cable-laying was years in the planning and took more than two years to complete.

Survey of the ocean floor was begun in early 1968, starting at Green Hill, Rhode Island, and ending at San Fernando, Spain - nearly 3500 miles. Equipment used included sonar, coring devices and underwater cameras that returned data from as far below as three miles. The route avoided sea mountains, the site of a 1929 earthquake, hazardous currents, undersea mudholes, boulder areas and other ocean cables.

On the continental shelves, for the first 95 miles a sea plow buried the cable two feet beneath the ocean floor to protect it from accidental damage. For the deep sea sections, underwater sand dunes and sediment beds made ideal natural cushions and cover for the cable.
