The bride was escorted to the HAMRICK GET-TO-GETHER

Forty-one members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Bun Patterson gathered Christmas Day for dinner at the home of Fire Chief Floyd Thornburg and Mrs. Thornburg.

Dinner was served buffet style and the Thornburg home was decorated in the Christmas motif.

Mrs. Dora Hamrick, mother of Frank Hamrick, was present as a special guest.

Chief Thornburg opened his gifts which included presents from the Kings Mountain Fire Department. He expressed appreciation to city firemen for their kindnesses.

Miss Jo Bridges, bride-elect, was honored December 20th at a bridesmaid luncheon given by Mrs. Bob Hullender and Miss Ann Owens at the Hullender home.

The Christmas motif was featured in decorative details. The bride's table was festive with a Christmas cloth, red candles, greenery and red berries with red velvet bows.

Miss Bridges presented gifts to her bridal attendants and the two hostesses took the occasion to present their wedding gifts to Miss Bridges.

Present, other than the bride-elect, her mother, the bridegroom-to-be's mother and bridal attendants, were Mrs. G. A. Bridges, Sr., arandmother of the bride-elect, Miss Mae Hamrick, Mrs. Becky Fisher, Mrs. Elaine Powell, Miss Linda Roberts, Mrs. Ann Owens, Mrs. Brenda Morrow and Miss Vickie Turner.
