

"Thinking Day" Program Is Monday

Girl Scout Thinking Day is Monday and over 400 Girl Scouts and leaders in the Kings Mountain Neighborhood were busy this week readying for the event. The young people were busy with needle and thread stitching costumes of the various countries they will represent in a carnival type program, "Seven Flags Over Scouting", to be open to the interested public at 7 p.m. at the Community Center gymnasium Monday night.

Mrs. Barbara Devon, Neighborhood Chairman, said Girl Scouts from Kings Mountain Grover and Bessemer City troops will represent a different country via costumes, displays, dances, and artwork. She said each troop is very enthusiastic about the program and carnival-goers can expect to see a variety of talent as well as learn about scouting.

The United States flag, the Pioneer Girl Scout Council flag, the World Flag, and one flag each representing the four programs of Girl Scouting — Brownies, Junior, Cadettes and Seniors — will feature the decorations.

There is no admission charge.

BRIDAL PARTY FETED

Miss Betsy Hart and Steve Wells entertained members of their wedding party at a post-rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Shelby's Holiday Inn.

The U-shaped table in the El Sid Room was decorated with white flowers and candles.

Dinner was served to 30 guests.

Miss Hart and Mr. Wells, both teachers at Central Junior high school here, were married Saturday at 2 p.m. in John Knox Presbyterian church of Shelby.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Miss Teresa Huffstickler has returned to the Children's Home at Winston-Salem after spending the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Petrosino.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Morris have returned home after a week's stay in Jacksonville and St. Petersburg, Florida.

The Morris visited Mr. Morris' brother, Albert Morris and Mrs. Morris, in Jacksonville. They also visited Mrs. Maggie Rushing, sister of Mr. Morris, at Baptist Village Nursing Home, Waycross, Ga.

The Morris traveled via car and encountered a hurricane in St. Petersburg. They were greeted with snow on their return to Kings Mountain Saturday.

The Valentine theme was carried out in party decorations and refreshments Saturday for Sonya Smith's seventh birthday.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Smith was seven years old Sunday, Valentine's Day. Thirteen children attended the Saturday afternoon party at the Smith home on Bridges Drive.

A heart-shaped Valentine cake was cut and served with party refreshments. There were also party favors for the children.

Party guests were Sonya's double first cousin Jeffrey Smith, Pamela Bridges, Gina Henderson, Wanda Witherspoon, Reggie Blalock, Charlotte and Phillip Scism, Paula and Eric Sanders, Donna Kim and Sandy Moss and David Green.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Smith, Sr., of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirby of Gaffney, S. C.

MORE ABOUT Suber-Ramsey
(Continued from Page One)

ard and Paul Richbourg of Lincolnton.

Seven-branched candelabra with Western fern enhanced the entrance to the Chancel. Wedding vows were exchanged before a background of fifteen-branched spiral candelabra entwined with springer on either side of the altar. The altar vases held arrangements of white chrysanthemums.

A forty-five minute program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Yates Finger, organist. Preliminary selections included "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Psalm XIX" by Purcell, "Theme from Fifth Symphony" by Tchaikovsky, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and "Largo" by Handel. Miss Alice York, vocalist and college friend of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love" by Barnby, a selection used at the wedding of the bride's parents. Attendants and groomsmen entered the church to the strains of "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell. Wagner's Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" provided the musical background for the bride's entrance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a formal gown created of pearl tone silk organza and imported Alencon lace. The contour bodice was styled with a portrait neckline outlined with lace scallops delicately traced in pearls and crystals. A beaded lace plastron applied the bustline. Miniature organza bows defined the shoulder. The short lace sleeves were finished with tiny scallops. Silk covered buttons closed the back bodice. The dome skirt was caught to the waist in deep folds and accented with garlands of lace motifs. The General length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to an Alencon lace prayer cap encrusted in pearls and crystals and posed over a camelot cap. The bride carried a semi-cascade of white butterfly roses, stephanotis, and English ivy.

Mrs. Ralph Stillwell of Columbia, S. C., attended the bride as matron of honor. Her floor length gown of Cardinal velvet featured an empire silhouette and high neckline finished with an Edwardian collar edged in Cluny lace. The puffed Juliet sleeves had deep cuffs of velvet and lace. The A-line skirt was softly gathered to the waist and accented at the back with a velvet bow. Mrs. Stillwell wore a matching velvet Dior hair bow with tulle veil and carried a white fur muff.

Similarly attired were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Charles Hupfer of Charlotte, Miss Katherine McCullough of Newberry, S. C., Miss Jane Lockman of Lincolnton, and Miss Anna Mauney of Cherryville.

The bridegroom, wearing a white rose lifted from his bride's bouquet, was attended by his father as best man. Groomsmen included David Ramsey, Jr., of Lincolnton, the bride's brother, Claude Suber of Kings Mountain, the groom's brother, Richard Eckard, Jr., of Conover, George A. Hoke, Jr., of Hickory, Dennis Wean of Charlotte, Daniel Finger of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Tolly Shuford, Jr. of St. Pauls, N. C.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of gold silk shantung and lace complemented with a bronze cymbidium orchid and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding.

The mother of the groom was attired in a Parnes Feinstein Original costume suit of aqua silk worsted and matching accessories. She wore a white cymbidium orchid.

The bride's aunt, Miss Emily Hunter of St. Petersburg, Fla., wore a white cymbidium orchid to complement her dress of light blue polyester featuring long sleeves and rhinestone buttons.

The groom's aunt, Mrs. W. A. Gordon, Jr. of Greensboro was attired in a costume suit of pink and wore a white orchid.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March "A Midsummer Night's Dream" provided the recessional music for the bridal party following the benediction solo "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Lutkin.

BACKGROUND OF COUPLE

The bride, who is presently employed as a teacher with the Lincoln County Schools, was graduated from Lincolnton High School in 1966. During that year she was presented at the Sub-Debutante Ball in Shelby. She is a 1970 magna cum laude graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Education and was a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority and Mu Sigma Epsilon Honorary Scholastic Society.

The groom was graduated from Kings Mountain High School in 1965 and from Lenoir Rhyne College in 1969 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry. While in college, he was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity. He has completed course requirements for a Masters Degree in Textile Chemistry at Clemson University where he was chosen for membership in Phi Psi Honorary Textile Fraternity. At present he is employed by Dependable Knits in Kings Mountain.

Following a wedding trip to Nassau in the Bahamas, the newlyweds will make their home at 1240 A Carriage House Lane, Gastonia.

For travel the bride chose a dress and coat ensemble of teal blue wool complemented with a white cymbidium orchid.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Earl Ramsey, and the bride's aunt, Miss Emily Hunter, entertained with a beautifully-appointed reception in the Church Fellowship Hall.

The entrance to the Fellowship Hall was enhanced with a bowl of white snowdrift and gypsophylla flanked by silver candlesticks. Guests were greeted by Miss Hunter at the head of the receiving line.

The bridal table was overlaid with a white imported lace cloth. Five-branched silver candelabra draped with white butterfly roses and snowdrift added to the beauty of the table where the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. H. Ramsey of Richmond, Va., served guests from a silver punch bowl encircled with ivy. Mrs. I. C. Nixon presided over the second punch bowl.

PRE-REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robert Suber, Jr. honored their son Robert and his bride-elect Miss Emily Ramsey with a dinner at the Lincoln House in Lincolnton prior to their rehearsal.

The fifty guests present were served a three-course dinner in the private dining room which was enhanced with candles and lovely bridal arrangements in shades of green and gold.

Miss Ramsey was presented a white cymbidium orchid to complement her dress of coral polyester with long sheer sleeves.

Guests included the wedding party and close friends of the couple and the hosts.

CAKE CUTTING

Miss Sarah Yoder and Mrs. Hal Heafner honored the bride and groom-elect with a cake cutting in the Ladies Parlor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church following the rehearsal.

The bridal table was overlaid with an Italian cutwork cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake in white topped with wedding bells and a silver marriage symbol graced the table. Three-branched candelabra with crystal epergnettes holding red carnations, white snapdragons, and gypsophylla added beauty to the refreshment area.

The bride and groom cut the first piece of cake. Mrs. Forrest Allen, Jr. continued serving the cake to the other guests. Guests enjoyed ruby punch and coffee, mints, and salted nuts along with the traditional wedding cake.

BRIDESMAID'S LUNCHEON

The bride-elect was entertained at noon on February 13 with the traditional bridesmaid's luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jack Lockman on East Rhodes Street. Hostesses with Mrs. Lockman were her daughter Jane, and Mrs. Curtis Broome and daughter, Mrs. Charles Hupfer.

The sixteen guests were seated by white china, decorated name plates at tables covered with white linen, centered with flower arrangements of white and red gypsophylla. Further emphasizing the Valentine motif, Miss Ramsey's place was marked with a corsage of white carnations. Interspersed with dainty red hearts.

Attired in a beige and brown ensemble with brown accessories, the bride selected this occasion to present her attendants with gifts of white fur muffs to be carried in the wedding. She also presented the organist with a Swiss figurine music box. For the vocalist, the bride had chosen a sterling silver wedding bell bracelet and her gift for the wedding director was a pair of brass candlesticks.

The honor guest received two hand-detched pictures on silk and a gift of silver from the hostesses.

Guests in addition to Miss Ramsey and her mother, Mrs. David Ramsey, included Miss Emily Hunter of St. Petersburg, Florida; Mrs. S. R. Suber, Jr., Kings Mountain; Mrs. W. A. Gordon, Jr., Greensboro; Mrs. Ted Barrow, Rockingham; Mrs. Rus Stillwell, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Katherine McCullough, Newberry, S. C.; Miss Anna Mauney, Cherryville; Miss Alice York, Asheboro; Mrs. C. H. Ramsey, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Yates Finger, Mrs. Ralph Wallace and Mrs. Richard Jenkins, Lincolnton.

MORE ABOUT Jones-Bowen
(Continued from Page One)

Clifford V. Bowen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design made by her mother of white peau de soie woven in the lace enhancing the neck and front of the dress. Her Chapel length veil, trimmed in matching lace, was designed by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wayne Smith, of Shelby, and draped mantilla style over the cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, white roses and baby's breath centered with a white orchid.

Miss Freida Bowen of Grover attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Calvin Cook of Asheville and Miss Hilda Jones of New Orleans, La., sisters of the bridegroom. Gina Smith of Shelby, cousin of the bride, and Melissa and Anna Cook of Asheville, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

All the attendants wore Valentine red floor-length gowns of peau de soie designed along empire lines with matching head dresses and slippers. They carried bouquets of red and white carnations and baby's breath with red streamers.

Participating in the wedding as honorary attendants were Miss Roxie Stroupe of Morganton, Miss Diane Tomlin of Shelby, Miss Hilda Blackburn of Grover, Miss Joy Welch and Miss Sue Wilson, both of Kings Mountain. They wore red and white street-length dresses and carried long-stemmed red carnations.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Calvin Cook of Asheville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Wayne Smith of Shelby, uncle of the bride; John Wilson and Paul Dockery, both of Shelby.

Mike Smith of Shelby, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress with pink and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a blue dress with blue and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Miss Roxie Stroupe of Morganton presided at the bride's register.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church parlors.

The Valentine theme of the wedding was beautifully carried out in decorative details and in refreshments. Overlaid with cloth of white satin and lace, the bride's table, highlight of decoration, held a heart-shaped three-tier cake as central decoration. Centering the table was an arrangement of red and white carnations and candles. The wedding cake was cut and served from one end of the table. Red punch was served from a silver punch service from the opposite end of the table.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Wayne Smith, Miss Diane Tomlin, both of Shelby; Miss Hilda Blackburn of Grover and Miss Joy Welch and Miss Sue Wilson, both of Kings Mountain.

The bride and bridegroom and members of the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet guests. Receiving with them were Mrs. Ethel Bowen, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Turner Jones, grandmother of the bridegroom.

For a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga. the bride wore a blue and white ensemble with navy accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford V. Bowen of Grover are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she is employed in the offices of the Kings Mountain Merchants Association.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Haskell Jones, Sr. of Milledgeville, Ga. He is a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne high school and Wake Forest University. He is a social worker with the Cleveland County Social Services Department.

The newlyweds will be at home at 704 Kings Road in Shelby.

Miss Mauney, David Faunce Are Honored

A rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 6:30 at Gaston Country club honored Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr.

Hosts were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Britton Faunce, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The 50 guests included members of the two families and wedding party.

Pink and red flowers and candles were combined on the bride's table and on round tables where other guests were seated.

The bride-to-be's place was marked by a shoulder corsage of white flowers from the hosts.

MORE ABOUT Benson-Hite
(Continued from Page One)

Mrs. J. O. Dees, organist, played a number of selections before the service, including "Suite Gothique" by Boellmann, "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby. Mr. Jack H. Oetgen, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The bridal party processed into the sanctuary to the strains of Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary in D Major" and the bride processed to Wagner's "The Wedding Chorus" from "Lohengrin" with Mendelssohn's theme from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" played as the recessional music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Wilbert Miller, Hite.

The bride was lovely in a gown of all white silk organza. The empire bodice was delicately appliqued with imported Alencon lace. It was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline, sheer yoke and bishop sleeves adorned by vertical patterns of the lace. Motifs of matching lace highlighted the A-shaped skirt and were repeated in a wide border at the hemline. Her Watteau train cascaded gracefully to a chapel length and was edged in scallops of the lace. Completing her look of elegance she wore a fingertip mantilla heavily bordered in Alencon lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of set-phanotis, white sweetheart roses, white phalaenopsis orchids, accented with leather leaf fern edging and white satin ribbons. She also wore a single strand of pearls given to her by the bridegroom.

Mrs. Arthur E. Swum of Atlanta was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard W. Autry of Charlotte, N. C., Mrs. Michael B. Benson of Marietta, Ga., and Miss Rebecca F. Alexander of Robbins, N. C.

Complementing the bride the attendants were gowned in willow green georgette. Their floor length gowns featured a high neckline, sheer bishop sleeves and a natural waistline banded in green satin. White Venice lace adorned the center front bodice which was accented by tiny covered buttons in green satin. A softly gathered skirt extended from the satin band at the waist. A Dior bow finished the center back. The attendants wore head-dresses of tangerine pixie carnations and green velvet ribbon which complemented their bouquets of white tulips, tangerine pixie carnations, yellow pompon mums and leather leaf fern edging tied with willow green net and satin ribbons.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Michael B. Benson, brother of the groom, of Marietta, Ga.; Jimmy Stewart of Athens, Ga.; and Mack Northcutt of Smyrna, Ga.

The mother of the bride was attired in a floor length sky blue silk shantung gown with a natural waistline and beaded bodice. She wore a pair of cream cymbidium orchids.

The mother of the groom was dressed in a floor length gown of yellow chiffon and organza with an empire waistline and beaded bodice. She carried a corsage of cream cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Chiles, grandmother of the groom, wore a floor length silk shantung gown of rose with a natural waistline and bodice trimmed in beads. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

The bride's parents entertained after the wedding at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church social hall.

A five-tier wedding cake was the focal point of decoration and was flanked by yellow sweetheart roses and greenery. Arrangements of mixed spring flowers also decorated the tables.

In addition, fruit punch, a ham and pineapple bowl with sauce, cheese pastries, assorted melon balls, fruits, nuts and mints were served.

Assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. R. O. Southwell and Miss Sandy Southwell of Kings Mountain; Mrs. Ralph Barnhart of Raeford, N. C.; Mrs. Mack Northcutt of Smyrna, Ga.; and Mrs. William Anderson of Charlotte, N. C.

Presiding at the guest register was Miss Lynn Shoenig of Atlanta, Ga.

Out of town guests included Miss Eva Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Southwell and Miss Sandy Southwell of Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnhart of Raeford, N. C.; Dr. and Mrs. E. Alexander and Miss Rebecca Alexander of Robbins, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Autry, Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. T. M. Plonk of Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. Wayne T. Crane, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Chiles, Mrs. Louis Shortridge, Mrs. John R. Chiles, Dr. and Mrs. Seymour Marco, Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Chiles Sr. and Harold Chiles, Jr.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold T. Tremps, all of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrold of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chancey of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Mallory C. Jones of Macon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keeler of

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney, Mr. Faunce Honored At Breakfast On Wedding Day

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr. were honored at their wedding day Saturday at a high noon wedding breakfast hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Byers Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson Crawford at Gaston Country club.

The 90 guests included the two families, wedding attendants and a large number of out-of-town guests.

The bride-to-be was presented a corsage of gardenias which she pinned to the shoulder of her red velvet dress and a gift from the hosts.

Howard B. Jackson offered a toast to the bride-elect and bridegroom-elect and presented them a four leaf clover as a goodluck charm. Rev. Charles Easley, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, offered the invocation.

Cream chicken in patty shells, broiled tomatoes, asparagus with cheese sauce, heart-shaped salad and strawberry parfait was the menu. Large heart-shaped salads on the table were featured in the decorations.

Pink and red hearts and flowers were beautifully combined for decoration. The bride's table, overlaid with pink linen, held a central arrangement featuring a cupid composite of pink and red carnations and tulips. Runners of red streamers connected the centerpiece with cupid place-cards. Pink linen cloths also covered the other tables where red hearts were centerpieces with red streamers connecting the heart with the placecards.

Round tables were set up in two private dining rooms for the serving of guests.

In the entrance to the club was a huge wall heart of red flowers with red streamers cascading from it. Columns in the reception areas and ballroom were garlanded in pink and red.

MORE ABOUT Mauney-Faunce
(Continued from Page One)

Ivory peau de soie trim and Dior bows. The honor attendant carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and gardenias. Bridesmaids carried clusters of white gardenias with red velvet muffs.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were William Kemp Mauney, III, brother of the bride; John Allyn Cheshire, III of Kings Mountain; Joseph Worrell Seidde of Wayne, Pa.; James William McIntyre of Gladwyne, Pa.; Paul Wright, III, of Greensboro and Robert Baker Eadie of Nashville, Tennessee.

Dickson Sanford, of Denver, Colorado, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a formal gown of light blue peau de soie with beading accenting the skirt panel and bodice. She wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in seafog green peau de soie and carried a cymbidium orchid atop her evening bag.

Mrs. William Kemp Mauney, paternal grandmother of the bride, chose a lavender formal gown and wore an orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances West, chose a blue formal gown with an orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. John Faunce of Bryn Mawr, Pa., paternal grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a royal blue gown and wore an orchid corsage.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception at their home on East Gold street where a color motif of red, pink and white featured decorative details.

Overlaid with floor-length cloth of ivory moire, the bride's table was highlight of decoration. Centering the table was a four-tier pink and white wedding cake topped with bride and bridegroom figurine. Two four-branch Williamsburg candelabras held pink tapers with red roses, white stock, pink tulips, pink carnations, gardenias and gypsophylla highlighting the arrangement.

Corners of the tablecloth were caught up with clusters of red, pink and white carnations with puffs of pink net.

On a second table the silver punch service, garlanded with greenery, stephanotis and red and pink carnations.

Mrs. Miles Rhyne of Raleigh cut and served the cake after the bride and bridegroom had cut the first slice.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Jackson were at the front door to greet arriving guests and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson, aunt and uncle of the bride, introduced the receiving line which included members of the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. George Houser received in the gift room and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney aunt and uncle of the bride, received in the den and introduced a receiving line composed of the bride and bridegroom's grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Greenville, S. C.

From the church the bride and bridegroom departed for a honeymoon cruise to Nassau and Freeport. For her going away ensemble the bride wore a navy blue A-line knit dress with empire waistline bordered in white and green bodice. She carried navy blue accessories and lifted the orchids from her bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will make their home in Marietta, Georgia where Mr. Benson is employed in the regional office of Gulf Oil in Atlanta and Mrs. Benson is employed with Guide Services, Inc. also in Atlanta.

Mrs. Benson is a graduate of Peace Junior College Preparatory Department in Raleigh, N. C., and received her bachelor of arts degree from Queen's College at Charlotte, N. C., where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority.

The bridegroom graduated from Sprayberry high school in Marietta, Georgia and attended Kennesaw Junior College and the University of Georgia.

Pair Feted After Rehearsal Friday Evening

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Faunce were honored at an after-rehearsal "Casino" party Friday evening by the bride-elect's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

The Mauneys entertained 100 guests, including members of the wedding party and a large number of out-of-town guests here for the Saturday 8 p.m. nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden assisted in entertaining.

Various gamerooms were inviting to guests as they received "playmoney" to vie for prizes. Top prizes of the evening went to Kemp Mauney of Raleigh, brother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Miles Rhyne of Raleigh.

A large handpainted "Casino" sign was on the veranda and home decorations were in yellow, white and green.

Miss Mauney wore a flowered pantsuit and she and her bridegroom-to-be took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Guests were invited to serve themselves from a refreshment table, done in white, green and yellow, and holding a champagne fountain as central decorations. Hors d'oeuvres and party refreshments were served.

Senior Citizens Meeting Friday At Woman's Club

Cindy Alexander and Larry Wood, Kings Mountain high school students, will present a program of music for members of the Senior Citizens club Friday.

The club will gather for a regular meeting at 3 p.m. at the Woman's club.

Sewing, Upholstering Classes Slated

Cleveland County Technical Institute in conjunction with the extension department will offer classes in sewing and upholstering methods starting March 2 at Concept Furniture Corporation.

Anyone is eligible to attend the classes. These classes are open to improve or learn new skills for future job opportunities.

Registration will be held at 7 p.m., February 25, at Concept Furniture Corporation.

Miss Mauney, David Faunce Are Honored

A rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 6:30 at Gaston Country club honored Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr.

Hosts were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Britton Faunce, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The 50 guests included members of the two families and wedding party.

Pink and red flowers and candles were combined on the bride's table and on round tables where other guests were seated.

The bride-to-be's place was marked by a shoulder corsage of white flowers from the hosts.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford V. Bowen of Grover are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she is employed in the offices of the Kings Mountain Merchants Association.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Haskell Jones, Sr. of Milledgeville, Ga. He is a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne high school and Wake Forest University. He is a social worker with the Cleveland County Social Services Department.

The newlyweds will be at home at 704 Kings Road in Shelby.

Miss Mauney, David Faunce Are Honored

A rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 6:30 at Gaston Country club honored Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr.

Hosts were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Britton Faunce, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The 50 guests included members of the two families and wedding party.

Pink and red flowers and candles were combined on the bride's table and on round tables where other guests were seated.

The bride-to-be's place was marked by a shoulder corsage of white flowers from the hosts.

Pair Feted After Rehearsal Friday Evening

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Faunce were honored at an after-rehearsal "Casino" party Friday evening by the bride-elect's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

The Mauneys entertained 100 guests, including members of the wedding party and a large number of out-of-town guests here for the Saturday 8 p.m. nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden assisted in entertaining.

Various gamerooms were inviting to guests as they received "playmoney" to vie for prizes. Top prizes of the evening went to Kemp Mauney of Raleigh, brother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Miles Rhyne of Raleigh.

A large handpainted "Casino" sign was on the veranda and home decorations were in yellow, white and green.

Miss Mauney wore a flowered pantsuit and she and her bridegroom-to-be took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Guests were invited to serve themselves from a refreshment table, done in white, green and yellow, and holding a champagne fountain as central decorations. Hors d'oeuvres and party refreshments were served.

Senior Citizens Meeting Friday At Woman's Club

Cindy Alexander and Larry Wood, Kings Mountain high school students, will present a program of music for members of the Senior Citizens club Friday.

The club will gather for a regular meeting at 3 p.m. at the Woman's club.

Sewing, Upholstering Classes Slated

Cleveland County Technical Institute in conjunction with the extension department will offer classes in sewing and upholstering methods starting March 2 at Concept Furniture Corporation.

Anyone is eligible to attend the classes. These classes are open to improve or learn new skills for future job opportunities.

Registration will be held at 7 p.m., February 25, at Concept Furniture Corporation.

Miss Mauney, David Faunce Are Honored

A rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 6:30 at Gaston Country club honored Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr.

Hosts were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Britton Faunce, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The 50 guests included members of the two families and wedding party.

Pink and red flowers and candles were combined on the bride's table and on round tables where other guests were seated.

The bride-to-be's place was marked by a shoulder corsage of white flowers from the hosts.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford V. Bowen of Grover are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she is employed in the offices of the Kings Mountain Merchants Association.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Haskell Jones, Sr. of Milledgeville, Ga. He is a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne high school and Wake Forest University. He is a social worker with the Cleveland County Social Services Department.

The newlyweds will be at home at 704 Kings Road in Shelby.

Miss Mauney, David Faunce Are Honored

A rehearsal dinner Friday evening at 6:30 at Gaston Country club honored Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Britton Faunce, Jr.

Hosts were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Britton Faunce, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

The 50 guests included members of the two families and wedding party.

Pink and red flowers and candles were combined on the bride's table and on round tables where other guests were seated.

The bride-to-be's place was marked by a shoulder corsage of white flowers from the hosts.

Pair Feted After Rehearsal Friday Evening

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney and David Faunce were honored at an after-rehearsal "Casino" party Friday evening by the bride-elect's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

The Mauneys entertained 100 guests, including members of the wedding party and a large number of out-of-town guests here for the Saturday 8 p.m. nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden assisted in entertaining.

Various gamerooms were inviting to guests as they received "playmoney" to vie for prizes. Top prizes of the evening went to Kemp Mauney of Raleigh, brother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Miles Rhyne of Raleigh.

A large handpainted "Casino" sign was on the veranda and home decorations were in yellow, white and green.

Miss Mauney wore a flowered pantsuit and she and her bridegroom-to-be took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Guests were invited to serve themselves from a refreshment table, done in white, green and yellow, and holding a champagne fountain as central decorations. Hors d'oeuvres and party refreshments were served.

Senior Citizens Meeting Friday At Woman's Club

Cindy Alexander and Larry Wood, Kings Mountain high school students, will present a program of music for members of the Senior Citizens club Friday.

The club will gather for a regular meeting at 3 p.m. at the Woman's club.

Sewing, Upholstering Classes Slated

Cleveland County Technical Institute in conjunction with the extension department will offer classes in sewing and upholstering methods starting March 2 at Concept Furniture Corporation.

Anyone is eligible to attend the classes. These classes are open to improve or learn new skills for future job opportunities.

Registration will be held at 7 p.m., February 25, at Concept Furniture Corporation.