(News items this week from Johnston, Columbus, Rockingham and Pasquotank counties.)

DON'T NEED FANCY PAN
You don't need a lot of fancy pans or order to cook foods that you want and need. For Expanded Nutrition Program Aides are working with families that are interested in trying new recipes, even if they don't have the "proper" pots and pans to cook them in.

Mrs. Trudy Benson, a Johnston County aide, has a homemaker in the program that had always dreamed of baking a lemon supreme cake.

Since she did not own a tube pan, the homemaker decided to substitute her fry pan. The cake turned out beautifully. "The homemaker was pleased and her family enjoyed the cake," Dorothy Johnson, associate home economics extension agent, relates.

NEW HOUSE — OLD FURNITURE
Mrs. Emma Haynes, Whiteville, Rt. 1, believes in using what she has to decorate her new house.

Mrs. Haynes, and her husband, both senior citizens, recently refinished a chest for use in their house, built by Extension house plan 90.

The Haynes' children thought their parents should buy new furniture; that is, until they saw the chest. Mrs. Elaine Blake, home economics extension agent, Columbus County says.

DO-IT-YOURSELF CABINETS
Do-it-yourself kitchen cabinet construction has caught on with several Rockingham County ladies.

One such homemaker, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Eden, Rt. 1, has made three floor and two wall cabinets from "chip wood," which she later painted and finished as she wished.

Mrs. Taylor told Mrs. Zedie Jackson, home economics extension agent, "My dream kitchen is being realized."

She added, "I want to thank Extension and others for showing me the way to better kitchen storage at low cost. Since I finished my unit many other fam-

Citizens of Kings Mountain:

There has been considerable controversy this past week on the recent edition of the Kings Mountain High School annual. The issue dealt with the choice of cover for the annual. The cover—a picture of the KMHS mascot. This mascot was chosen by the entire student body to represent our school as a mountaineer. Doug Byars, a black student at KMHS, does just this. The cover was not intended to be a photograph of a black boy but of the KMHS symbol—the mountaineer. There are a lot more important things in this town that the citizens should give their attention to.

can this be accomplished when citizens will not permit the youth minority of this town to take an active part as an individual in student affairs. Who is more capable of making the decisions that concern these students than the students themselves? Who knows more about what needs to be done?

Little do people realize how much work goes into the making of an annual. I as editor am human and make mistakes, but little did I realize that me and my staff's efforts would be viewed so immaturely by so many. I guess what I'm really trying to say is that the students at Kings Mountain High School have in my opinion proven themselves capable of handling their own affairs and should be given the opportunity by this town to do so without being under constant criticism and pressure.

Sincerely
LYNN CORNWELL
Editor of the Kings Mountain High School Annual.

Last week a large part of the future of Kings Mountain High School was determined in the High School gymnasium as all students and faculty, black and white, assembled and made plans for the equalizing of student representation, privileges and rights. This open discussion was led solely by the students and a plan was agreed upon by every student present. This I feel was a definite plea by the vast ma-
