Shelby Church Was Setting On Friday For Dixon-Wolf Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Doris Elaine Dixon was married to James Brown Wolf Friday in a 7:30 p. m. candlelight service in Shelby's Central United Methodist church.

The officiating minister was Dr. Wiley Jackson Honeycutt. A program of organ music was presented by Mrs. Gene Arrowood.

Holland P. Dixon gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of silk organza and Venice lace posed over faille tulle. The bateau neckline, edged in narrow lace outlined with lace motifs, was cut to a deep scoop in the back. Lace motifs trimmed the empire bodice, the full bishop sleeves and the front of the A-line skirt. The full chapel train fell in unpressed pleats from lace motifs at the back. A forward profile of French silk flowers and organza bows held her bouffant veil of English illusion. Her bouquet was a nosegay of gardenias, pink sweetheart roses and snowdrift.

Mr. Milton G. Newton of Burlington was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Holland P. Dixon, Jr. of Raleigh; Mrs. W. Duke Everhart of Florence, S. C.; Mrs. James C. Goodman of Concord and Mrs. R. Michael Mincey of Charlotte.

Robert D. Wolf, Jr. of Interlaken, N. J. was his brother's best man. Richard L. Krewson of Winston-Salem, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Holland P. Dixon, Jr. of Raleigh; Kirk P. Carter of Memphis, Tenn.; and John B. Neville of Jackson, Miss., served as ushers.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at Hotel Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland P. Dixon of Shelby are parents of the bride who was graduated from Shelby high school in 1961 and made her debut in the Debutante Ball that year. She was graduated from Wingate college in 1963 when she served as the school's May Queen. She was graduated from Kings college in 1964. In 1968, she was named Sweetheart of the Charlotte Bachelors club. She is a former member of the Charlotte Spinners club and a former employe of First Union National bank.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wolf of Satellite Beach, Fla., is a 1961 graduate of Morris Hills Regional high school and a 1965 graduate of the University of Mississippi. A former member of the Charlotte Bachelors club, he is now vice president in loans and investments and head of the commercial development division of First Union National Bank in Charlotte.

Following a three-week tour of the western states, the newlyweds will reside at 4538 Wentworth Place, Charlotte.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Fletcher Ware of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Ware.

El Bethel Women Plan Bethware Fair Exhibits

Mrs. Rebecca Hunt, 90, of Screven, Ga., house-guest and long-time friend of Mrs. Jasper Ware and Mrs. P. K. Harmon of the El Bethel community, is exhibiting her homemade pocketbooks fashioned from plastic chlorox bottles at the Bethware Community Fair.

The Fair opened Wednesday for a four-day run on the grounds of Bethware School.

Mrs. Harmon, a perennial winner of first place awards for her checked gingham aprons, embroidery and her pear and fig preserves and jellies is also a fair exhibitor this year. Mrs. Harmon, sister-in-law of Mrs. Harmon, is also exhibiting gowns and pajamas and samples of her handiwork in the women's division of the fair.

The Hunt-created pocketbook is enhanced black wool thread which is crocheted in squares on the bag. The handle is created from a gallon plastic chlorox carton. On the store shelves the pocketbook would retail for $8.

Mrs. Hunt's Kings Mountain friends joined her in a birthday celebration Saturday at the P. K. Harmon home.

Schools Supt. Donald Inge will be guest speaker at the fall meeting of the fall of Kings Mountain Woman's club.

Members will meet at 7:45 p.m. September 27th at 7:45 p.m. for a preview of "What's New In Kings Mountain City Schools."
