Miss Morrison, Louis Cook Give Plans

Miss Scarlett Ann Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Morrison, has completed plans for her marriage to Louis Edward Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cook of Grover, and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in Grover's First Baptist church with the Rev. Paul Milwood to officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. N. McClure will be organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections will be by Burlie Peeler, baritone.

The bride-elect's father will give her in marriage. Best man for the prospective bridegroom will be his father.

Miss Marion Morrison will attend her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Jerry Cook of Grover, sister-in-law of the bridegroom-elect; Miss Scarlett Thetti of Charlotte and Mrs. Jeff Mercier of Richmond, Va., cousins of the bride-elect; and Miss Susan Welch of Gaffney, S. C., college classmate of the bride-elect.

Rene Cook of Grover, niece of the bridegroom-elect, and Tricia Carson of Statesville, cousin of the bride-to-be, will be junior attendants.

Ringbearer will be Tim Edwards of Greenville, S. C., nephew of the bride-elect.

Groomsmen will include Jerry Cook of Grover, brother of the bridegroom-to-be; Richard Little of Cramerton, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be; Richard Morrison, brother of the bride-elect; Lee Blackstone of Crosswater, Fla., cousin of the bride-elect; and Hubert McGinnis of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect's parents will entertain after the ceremony at a reception at Kings Mountain Country club.

It's The Season Of Year For Bazaars

It's the fall season of the year, and at least two churches and the Kings Mountain Women's club are planning bazaars featuring goodies, crafts and other suitable gifts for Christmas-giving.

Members of the Woman's club will hold the annual bazaar in connection with the autumn festival Wednesday with doors to open at 11:30 a. m. at the Woman's club. A spokesman for the club said a number of bazaar items are new ones this year and should provide the fairgoer much shopping pleasure.

Patriotic Program Given By Auxiliary

A patriotic program calling attention to the 191st observance of the Battle of Kings Mountain and Veterans Day October 24th featured Thursday's meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Ken Cronin and Mrs. John Tria presented the program and served as hostesses.

Mrs. J. W. Gladden gave the devotional.

The Auxiliary welcomed as new members Mrs. Juanita Pruitt and Mrs. B. F. Randle, both of Grover; Mrs. W. D. Morrison and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel.

Members voted to co-sponsor with the Shelby unit the annual Gold Star Mother's luncheon to be held next month.

Women of Grace United Methodist church are at work on plans for a bazaar to be held November 13th at the church educational unit. Baked goods, crafts, and canned goods are among items for sale and in addition, those attending can enjoy hotdogs and hamburgers with accessories for lunch and dinner.

Women of Central United Methodist church are planning a bazaar in December at the church educational unit and they are already at work sewing and creating numerous holiday gift items.
