Mrs. S. RONALD JESSIE HOWELL (Sandra Elaine Wright)

Florida Church Nuptials Unite Ronald J. Howells

DeLand, Florida's Northside Baptist church provided the setting November 5th for a candlelight wedding uniting Miss Sandra Elaine Wright and Ronald Jessie Howell.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Odell Wright, formerly of Bessemer City, is granddaughter of Mrs. Robert C. Graham and the late Mr. Graham and of the late Mr. and Mrs. David P. Wright, all of Kings Mountain.

Rev. James Underwood officiated at the 8 p. m. double-ring ceremony and a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Leonard Welch, organist, and Mrs. Robert Green of Holly Hill, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace over satin designed along empire lines with scoop neckline enhanced by pearl trim, long sleeves and a Chapel train of matching lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a cascade of white roses on a white Bible. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Barbara Carter of Jacksonville, Fla., attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Howell, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Terri Wright, sister of the bride.

All the attendants wore formal gowns of pink crepe designed along empire lines with Chantilly lace bodices. Their brief veils of Chantilly lace were caught by matching hairbows and they carried crescents of pink and Happiness roses. Each attendant wore a single strand of pearls, gifts of the bride.

Benny Shettlesworth of Atlantic Beach was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were David Howell, brother of the bridegroom, and Walter Brown, the bridegroom's uncle.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Sisters of the bride, Mrs. Michael Shreve of Orange City and Mrs. Billy Morgan, DeLand; Mrs. Tommy Walker and Mrs. W. L. Brown, aunt of the bridegroom, were hostesses.

Miss Karen Howell, sister of the bridegroom, kept the register. For traveling, the bride wore a pink polyester pantsuit with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds will be at home on Violetwood Road in DeLand. The bride is employed in the office of the Clerk of Circuit Court. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Howell, is a student at Daytona Beach Community college.

Golden Wedding Day For N. S. Hardins

Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Hardin were honored on their Golden Wedding Day last Saturday, November 13th, at a reception given by their children at their home on McSwain road.

Friends and relatives called from 3 until 6 o'clock. Receiving with the Hardins were their two daughters and son: Mrs. Clyde Horton of Grover, Mrs. Faye Woods of Kings Mountain and Max Hardin, of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Miss Susan Hardin and Miss Jackie Woods assisted in serving and Max Hardin greeted arriving callers and introduced the receiving line.

Anniversary colors of gold and white decorated the home. The refreshment table, overlaid with white over yellow, held a four-tier cake as central highlight. Centering the table was an arrangement of yellow roses. Yellow punch was served from a silver service at one end of the table.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Hardin are natives of Rutherford county but came to Kings Mountain 44 years ago. Mrs. Hardin is the former Lela Chapman. Mr. Hardin, a retired Baptist minister, was for many years pastor of David Baptist church.

The Hardins have 14 grandchildren.

For the reception Mrs. Hardin wore a purple dress with yellow rosebud corsage.

Miss Sandra Kay Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lee Wright, has completed plans for her marriage to James Ronald Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wright of Shelby and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Saturday evening at 6 p.m. in Temple Baptist church with the Rev. Frank Shirley to officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Dennis Huffstickler will be organist and Mrs. Martha Jackson will be vocalist for the program of nuptial music.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for the bridegroom-elect will be his father.

Mrs. John R. McDermid, Jr. of Kings Mountain will attend her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Brenda Alexander of Lincolnton and Mrs. Mary Ann Sarvice of Kings Mountain.

John R. McDermid, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride-elect, will usher with Bobby White. Miss Beth White of Kings Mountain and Miss Kathy Smith of Shelby will preside at the register.

The bride-elect's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McDermid, Jr., will entertain after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

New And Student Teachers Honored By ACT At Coffee At KMHS Library

Transformed into an old fashioned country kitchen, the Kings Mountain high school library was the setting for a coffee host ed by the Kings Mountain unit of the Association of Classroom Teachers in honor of the new and the student teachers in the Kings Mountain schools. Red checked table cloths were on the tables; oil lamps, one-burner oil stoves, brown stone jugs, black iron pots filled with fruit, ivy, and Pyracantha berries, red checked valances, country scales filled with dried okra, gourds, chinese lantern and spanish moss, and stereopticon—all added to the illusion.

Mrs. Dorcas White, chairman of the ACT public relations committee, headed the receiving line composed of Miss Brenda Hoyle, ACT president; Mrs. Hilda Goforth, secretary; Mr. Isaac Alexander, treasurer; the thirty-one new teachers and the student teachers. Mrs. Covell Vance, dean of girls, directed the guests to the refreshment table placed in front of the antique windows overlooking the student court. A unique arrangement of red candles, nuts, gourds, Pyracantha berries, turkey feathers, and small hens and turkeys formed the centerpiece. Trays of assorted sandwiches and chips, canapes, olives, and old fashioned chocolate cake roll completed the appointments. Coffee was served by Mrs. Adelaide Allison assisted by Mrs. Brenda Neal and Mrs. Hilda Wilson.

Assisting in serving and entertaining the guests were Miss Donna Dotson, Mrs. Sara Griffin, Mrs. Angel Lackey, Miss Helen Logan, Mrs. Carolyn McWhirter, Mrs. Virginia Raymer, and Mrs. Lillian Whitworth.

Area High School Senior Girls Ready For Homemaking Tests Tuesday Morning

High school senior girls here will be among more than 600,000 in nearly 15,000 schools across the country who will participate in a 5-minute written knowledge and attitude examination Tuesday, Dec. 7. Scores in the test will provide the first basis for judging which will eventually award a total of $111,000 in college scholarships in the 18th annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Sponsored by General Mills, the search is the only national scholarship program exclusively for high school senior girls.

Following grading of the examination, a Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow will be named for the high school here. She will receive a specially designed award charm, and will receive in the running for state and national honors.

State Homemakers of Tomorrow—one from each state and the District of Columbia—will be awarded $1,500 scholarships, with their schools receiving a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. A runner-up in each state will be awarded a $500 educational grant. Next spring, the 51 state winners, each accompanied by a faculty adviser, will join for an expense-paid educational tour of Colonel Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D. C. On the basis of personal observation and interview, the 1972 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up will be announced at the conclusion of the tour. They will receive increases in their scholarships.

New to the Betty Crocker Search this year is a special $1,000 nutrition scholarship. It will be awarded to a young woman who is planning a college major in nutrition or a related field, scores among the highest in her state on the overall Search examination and achieves the highest score among those meeting these first two criteria on the examination's nutrition items.

All judging and selection of winners in the Betty Crocker Search is conducted by Science Research Associates, Chicago, which also constructs and grades the written examination. Total enrollment since the program's inception in the 1954-55 school year has reached more than eight and one-quarter young women, and this year's grants will bring the scholarship total to almost $2 million.
