

MRS. ROY ALLEN STEED, JR.
(Teresa Karen Moss)

MISS KAREN BEA FITE
(Bride-Elect of Robert Joe Griffin)

MISS JUDI BLACKBURN
(Bride-Elect of Nathan Sanders)

Saturday Rites [Unite] [Steeds]; Summer Wedding Dates Announced

Bethany Chapel of Augusta, Ga. provided the setting Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. for the wedding of Miss Karen Teresa Moss and Roy Allen Steed Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Henry Moss of Jackson, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain, and granddaughter of Mrs. Theodore Moss of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Moss. She is a secretary for Jackson Sportsweat, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen Steed of Jackson, S. C. are parents of the bridegroom. He attended Clemson University and owns and operates Green Dale Farm near Jackson.

Rev. T. S. Morgan officiated, using vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Susan Little was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Ernie Cross.

The altar of the church was arranged with white flowers and greenery and lighted with tall tapers in four seven-branch wrought-iron candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace featuring empire lines with long, full lace sleeves and long skirt enhanced by lace motifs and a sweep train. Her veil of triple tiers of illusion was attached to a camelot headpiece and she carried a Bible topped with an orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Susan Moss attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Alexander of Kings Mountain, and cousin of the bride; Miss Jackie Moss of Greenville, S. C., cousin of the bride; Miss Jean Morgan of Augusta, Ga. and Miss Teresa McClure of Jackson, Tammy Sanko of Stone Mountain, Ga. was flower girl.

All of the attendants wore formal gowns of lavender and pink velvet and chiffon featuring velvet bodices trimmed with nine small buttons down the front, sheer sleeves with taffeta cuffs and chiffon skirts. They wore matching headdresses and slippers and carried bouquets of pink flowers.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Ushers were Stephen Moss and Jonathan Moss, brothers of the bride; Warren Moss, cousin of the bride; Steve Sneed, cousin of the bridegroom; and Mark Reeves and Roger Floyd of Jackson.

The bride's mother was gowned in mint green taffeta and sateen with sheer sleeves.

The bridegroom's mother chose a pink dress with gold trim. For a trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the bride chose a mint green polyester dress with lace sleeves and the flower from her bouquet.

The bride's parents entertained after the wedding ceremony at a reception in the church parlors. The wedding theme of pink, lavender and white was featured in decorative details and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander of Kings Mountain, aunt and uncle of the bride, and Mrs. T. E. Moss of Kings Mountain, grandmother of the bride, assisted in serving and entertaining. Mrs. Emma Murrah cut and served the wedding cake.

The newlyweds will be at home in Jackson, S. C.

The engagement of Miss Karen Bea Fite of Charlotte and Robert Joe Griffin of Monroe is announced by her mother, Mrs. C. B. Fite of Kings Mountain.

Miss Fite is daughter of Mrs. Fite and the late Mr. Fite. A graduate of Western Carolina University with B. S. in education, she is an elementary teacher in the Gaston county schools.

The bridegroom-elect, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy N. Griffin of Grover, holds a business degree from Western Carolina University. After completing his tour of service in the U. S. Army, stationed in Korea, he is now employed by American Bank and Trust Company in Monroe.

The wedding will be an event of June 4th in Kings Mountain's Grace United Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Blackburn of Grover announce the engagement of their daughter, Judi, to Nathan Sanders, son of Rev. and Mrs. James Sanders of Kings Mountain.

The prospective bridegroom, a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, is a student at Chowan college at Murfreesboro, N. C.

A Summer wedding is planned.

Society News

SECTION B THE KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. Thursday, February 24, 1972

Frankie Parker, Gary Benton Give Plans

Miss Frankie Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blakely Parker of Gaffney, S. C., has completed plans for her marriage to Gary Dale Benton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Benton of Kings Mountain, and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, February 26th, at 4:30 p. m. in Southside Baptist church of Gaffney, S. C.

Miss Parker will have Miss Linda Ann McDaniel of Gaffney as maid of honor. Miss Jill Parker will be flower girl.

Frank Blakely Parker will give his daughter in marriage. The bridegroom-elect will have his father as best man.

Ushers will be Rodger Dale Moore and Tommy Tindall of Kings Mountain, Jerry D. Parker, brother of the bride-elect and David Cooper of Gaffney.

Ringbearer will be John David Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Benton will host the rehearsal party and cake cutting Friday evening in the Southside Baptist church social hall at 8:30 p. m.

Antiques Show Slated March 3

The Charlotte Antique Show and Sale will again be held in the Park Center Auditorium on Kings Drive in Charlotte.

Mispah Chapter 36, Order of Eastern Star will sponsor this three-day event, with proceeds going to the Eastern Star Home in Greensboro.

Hours for the show are Friday and Saturday 12 noon to 9:30 p. m.; Sunday 1 to 6, March 3, 4 and 5.

Fifty dealers from throughout the Eastern and Midwestern states will display their large collections of antiques, all offered to the public for sale.

There will be quality antiques on display, such as: Sterling silver flatware to match any pattern cut glass, art glass, clocks

(Continued On Page Two)

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday:

7:30—Rehearsal for the Benton-Parker wedding in Southside Baptist church of Gaffney, S. C.

8:30—Mr. and Mrs. Odell Benton are entertaining in the Social Hall of Southside Baptist church of Gaffney at an after-rehearsal party for the Benton-Parker wedding party.

Saturday:

4:30—The wedding of Miss Frances Joanne Parker and Gary Dale Benton in Southside Baptist church of Gaffney, S. C.

Janice Bolin, Don Phifer Are Entertained

Miss Janice Bolin and Don Phifer, whose wedding will take place June 24th, were honored Saturday evening at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Al Foy at their home in Roxboro.

Miss Bolin and her fiancé were house-guests of the bride-elect's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eolin, former residents, now of Roxboro.

The Bolins took the occasion to present the engaged pair a service for eight in stainless tableware.

A Valentine red and white motif was featured in decorative details and refreshments. The bride's table, done in red and white, held an assortment of miniature pecan pies, homemade cookies and fancy sandwiches. Mrs. Foy served Russian tea from a silver service at one end of the table.

Guests enjoyed music and folk singing with Miss Bolin playing the piano accompaniment and Mr. Phifer as drummer.

Mr. Foy is minister of music and associate pastor of Roxboro Baptist church which the Bolins attend.

Bride-Elect Wanda Long Is Honored

Miss Wanda Ann Long of Cherryville, whose wedding to Jerry Jay Dellinger of Cherryville took place Saturday, was honored February 5th at a bridal tea held at Club Carolina in Cherryville.

Mrs. Keith Long Sr., Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. Worth Sharp, all aunts of the bride-elect, and Mrs. W. Lewis Dellinger of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Keith Long Jr., cousins of the bride-elect were hostesses.

The 60 guests called between 2 and 4 p. m.

Mrs. Keith Long Jr. welcomed arriving callers and introduced the receiving line which included the bride-to-be; her mother, Mrs. Harold Long; her future mother-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Deminger, Jr. and the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Leona Camp.

Miss Linda Tharp and Miss Janie Long, sister of the bride-elect, were at the refreshment table and Mrs. W. Lewis Dellinger presided at the tea service.

The bride's table, over laid in white damask, was decorated in green and white with a five-branch candelabrum of tapers, white mums, white carnations and greenery as central highlight. Party sandwiches and fancy pick-ups were served from silver trays and all appointments were in silver. The tea service and coffee service were used on a refreshment table, also appointed in white and green.

The bride-to-be was given a corsage of gladiolus, to pin to the shoulder of her party dress and was remembered with a hostess gift.

Miss Long and Mr. Dellinger were married Saturday in a 4 p. m. wedding in Cherryville's First Methodist church.

employed as a stenographer by Fiber Industries at Earl.

The prospective bridegroom, a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, is a student at Chowan college at Murfreesboro, N. C.

A Summer wedding is planned.

Rayfields Note 25th Anniversary At Family Party

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rayfield were honored on their silver wedding anniversary Saturday at a family party given by their children at their home on Waco road.

Entertaining together were Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Smith of Taylorsville, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoyle of Charlotte and Larry Rayfield of Kings Mountain.

The 25th wedding anniversary motif was featured in decorative details. The refreshment table was overlaid with a lace cloth and held a two-tier anniversary cake topped with 25 candles and a bride and groom centerpiece. White candles and mums were also used on the table. The cake was cut and served with punch, mints and nuts.

Mrs. Rayfield, the former Margaret Bridges of Kings Mountain, was given a white carnation corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her party dress.

The Rayfields were married February 9, 1947. Mr. Rayfield is a brick contractor.

The family also includes a two-year-old grandson, Chad Stephen Smith.

Miss Alexander WSCS Speaker

Miss Cindy Alexander gave a review of highlights of her trip to Russia with the Good News Singers to feature the program of the general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at Central United Methodist church Monday night.

A Bible student and active in the Bible club at Kings Mountain high school, Miss Alexander told how her study of the Bible had enriched her life and reported on Bible club activities of which William Alexander, Bible Teacher, is leader.

Mrs. C. L. Jolly, WSCS president, introduced Miss Alexander, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Charles Alexander. Mrs. Jolly also conducted business of the

(Continued On Page Two)

Miss Beatty, Odell Curry Plan April 9th Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman G. Beatty of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Deloris Ann, to Kelly Odell Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Curry of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect is a 1970 graduate of Kings Mountain high school.

A 1969 graduate of Kings Mountain high school, the prospective bridegroom is employed at Minette Mills in Grover.

The wedding will take place April 9.

Debbie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Louise Johnson of Durham, celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday at a skating party at Rollerdom Skating Rink in Durham.

Thirty-seven children attended. Birthday cake, cookies and drinks were served at refreshment time.

Assisting in serving and entertaining were Mrs. Evalie Smith, Mrs. Shirley Siple, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hickman.

Debbie's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owens of Kings Mountain. Debbie's mother is the former Louise Owens.

Lashelle Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cline of Symrna, Ga., celebrated her eighth birthday February 7th.

A party for Lashelle was held at the Cline home. Lashelle's older sister, ten-year-old Lisa Cline and her second grade schoolmates were present for party fun and refreshments.

Lashelle's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bennett of Kings Mountain, spent the weekend with the Clines.

Paternal grandparents are City Commissioner Ray Cline and Mrs. Cline of Kings Mountain.

A birthday party was given Sunday, February 6th, for one-year-old Kimberly Annette Huffstetler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Huffstetler, at their home at 318 Fulton street.

Guests were Mrs. Ruth Owens, Kimberly's grandmother; Kelly and Charles Owens, Mr. and Mrs. James Padgett and daughter, Tammy, all of Gaffney, S. C.; and Kimberly's sister, three-year-old Angela.

Kim's mother is the former Ann Sparks of Gaffney, S. C. Grandparents are Lewis Owens of Gaffney, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Huffstetler of Kings Mountain.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Mrs. Howard Blanton and two children, Lori Ann and Tim, of Durham, were weekend guests of Mrs. Leonard Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hawkins. Mrs. Blanton is the former Lois Gamble.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Summitt, who were married 47 years ago on February 14th, were honored on their wedding anniversary at a family party at the home of their granddaughters, Mrs. Steve Wells and Miss Debbie Sprouse, in Charlotte. The couple, above, are pictured at the refreshment table where they cut and served a Valentine-decorated anniversary cake.

A Good Chicken Plate May Be Worth $10,000 In Cash To Area Homemakers

Have you ever cooked a chicken plate or a chicken dinner that was worth ten thousand dollars? If not, you may want to try your hand and enter the North Carolina Chicken Cooking Contest—and if you win in North Carolina you will be eligible for the national prize of $10,000.

Yes, a nice way to "swing into spring" will be to enter the ninth annual North Carolina Chicken contest. Why not try your hand at a new recipe—while providing a delicious meal for your family, you may be on your way to becoming the State Chicken Cooking Contest Champion.

The annual State Chicken Cooking Contest is sponsored by the North Carolina Poultry Processors in conjunction with the North Carolina Poultry Federation, the North Carolina Department of Agriculture, Carolina Power and Light company, Duke Power company, and Virginia Electric and Power company. The event is scheduled for April 20, 1972 in the Food Science Building at North Carolina State University, Raleigh.

From the many entries in North Carolina, ten contestants will be chosen to compete during the state contest. The first place winner in the state will then be eligible to compete in the National Chicken Cooking Contest to be held May 20, 1972 in Birmingham, Alabama.

Recipes must feature whole or parts of broiler-fryer chickens and must include products as listed on the official entry blank. The contest is open to men and women twelve years of age and older who are not practicing home economists, professional cooks or family members of sponsoring agencies. Recipes will be judged on the basis of appeal, method, idea, appearance, flavor and eating qualities. Recipes should "resent something new and different and should include clear directions for preparation.

All entries must be sent no later than March 31, 1972 to:

The National Chicken Cooking Contest
Box 260
New York, N. Y. 10046.

Entry forms are available from the Agriculture Department or the North Carolina Poultry Federation, both in Raleigh.

The North Carolina Poultry Processors have again this year chosen Mrs. Elane Harvell, marketing specialist with the North Carolina Department of Agriculture as the state contest chairman.

Prizes for the state contest include an electric grill, a blender, a television set, mixer, frying pan with dome, fondue pot, and an electric knife or can opener.

"Seven Flags" Program Theme Of Thinking Day

"Seven Flags Over Scouting" will be the theme of annual Girl Scout Thinking Day Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in the Community Center.

All scout troops in the Kings Mountain Girl Scout will take part.

The Community Center will be transformed as various countries of the world with each scout troop in the area depicting a different country in dress, song and displays. The seven flags of scouting will form a background for the gala setting.