More About SCHOOL BOARD

Continued From Page One from out-of-state have been visiting the summer learning camp at and have commented that it's the best program they've seen anywhere.

Jones said the school system owns the land on which the junhigh would be located but that the board is negotiating with some property owners for approximately 15 acres adjoining the school's land. The main purfor buying the 15 acres would be for practice fields for athletic teams. Jones noted that new ball fields would not have to be built for the junior high school. He said scheduling could be arranged so that the junior high could use er Scouter on the Philmont Exthe high school facilities.

No special registration will be needed for the bond vote, Jones said. He said that Gaston County residents would be eligible to vote if the Gaston County portion of Kings Mountain is officially declared a part of the school district. Jones said that registration books would be opened for those not registered and newcomers to the community.
