

MRS. THOMAS HILLIARD BLACK, II
(Patricia Leigh Curlee)

MRS. CHARLES COOPER PADGETT
(Janice Marjorie MacGill)

MRS. JOHN LUTHER MONTGOMERY
(Deborah Lynn Deaton)

June Weddings Unite Tommy Blacks, Charles Padgetts, Montgomerys

Thomasboro Presbyterian church of Charlotte provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Patricia Leigh Curlee and Thomas Hilliard Black II in marriage.

Rev. Leonard H. Bullock heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Jean Miller was organist for the program of nuptial music and B. S. Peeler, baritone, was soloist.

Organ program included Bach's "Air on G String", "Now Thank We All Our God", "Loure", "Be Thou But Near" and "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring"; Adagio from the First Organ Sonata by Mendelssohn; "Air from Water Music" by Handel and "Pontificale: O Lord Most Holy" by Franck.

Mr. Peeler sang "Wedding Prayer" by Fern Glasgow Dunlop prior to the processional of the wedding party and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte as the benediction.

William Robert Curlee escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design by Priscilla of imported candlelight silk organza designed along empire lines with empire bodice of English net and Duchess neckline with long sleeves re-embroidered with jeweled Alencon lace. The modified A line skirt was enhanced by jeweled lace appliques and flowing Chapel length train. She wore a formal length mantilla of illusion and lace appliques and peau de soie slippers with jeweled lace motifs. She carried a cascade of white roses and Stephanotis.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Harold Jackson of Parlin, New Jersey, brother of the bridegroom; Jim Dobbins of Lexington; Joe Saunders of Hudson; Jim Cloninger of Greensboro, cousin of the bridegroom; Barry Grewer and Tonnie Ware, both of Charlotte; Ralph Barrow of Silver City; and Russell Garmon of Forest City.

The bride's mother was gowned in soft rose silk crepe with orchid headdress and accessories and a cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother chose green silk shantung with matching slippers and accessories and a cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's parents entertained at the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall where the pink and white motif was beautifully observed in decorative details.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Schmitt and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Kiser greeted guests.

The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with white over pink and white cake and two three-branch silver candelabras with pale pink candles and pale pink roses and baby's breath as decoration. Mrs. Fred Davis and Miss Jane Greene invited guests to the punch table and Mrs. Robert Nash and Mrs. Evan Halyfield presided at the punch fountain. Silver appointments were featured on a third refreshment table from which finger sandwiches, ham biscuits, cheese straws, mints, nuts, melon balls, strawberries and petit-fours were served.

Mrs. Carol Miller of Charlotte and Mrs. Harold H. Jackson of Englin, New Jersey, sister of the bridegroom, were matrons-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Thorp of Cherryville, Mrs. Buster Willis of Gastonia, and Mrs. Tonnie Ware, Miss Greta Campbell and Miss Sarah Lindsay, all of Charlotte. Alicia Jackson and Ashlie Jackson, twin nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

All the attendants wore long formal's of Nile green imported voile designed with high smocked and ruffled necklines with sleeveless bodices enhanced by a smocked waist and pale pink, green and orchid embroidery. Wide ruffle borders trimmed the full, floor-length skirts. They wore wide matching brim hats trimmed with green velvet ribbon and carried nosegays of pink carnations and orchid asters.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and ferns and lighted by two brass tree candelabra, two spiral 15-branch candelabra and one arch of 15-branch candelabra. White flowers in silver urns graced the communion table which was centered by a three-branch silver candelabra, the center candle lighted by the bride and bridegroom during the marriage ceremony. Also on the altar table were two red roses which the bride presented to each of the mothers after the benediction was pronounced. Two to-plant trees and white carnations decorated the narthex where Mrs. W. Wray Helms presided at the register.

After a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga. and Frapp Island, South Carolina, the newlyweds will be at home in Kannapolis.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Black chose a navy blue and white dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

(Continued On Page Two)

Kathy Rhea Is Honored At Drop-In

Miss Kathy Rhea, whose wedding to Robert Lane Bumgardner will take place Sunday afternoon, was honored at a drop-in bridal party given by Mrs. Paul Reynolds, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, at her home on Woodside Drive.

The 35 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts.

Mrs. Coleen Jenkins assisted Mrs. Reynolds in serving and entertaining.

The refreshment table was decorated in green and yellow with refreshments carrying out the decorative motif. Miss Rhea was presented a daisy corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her navy blue party dress.

Bob Yarbro To Los Angeles

Robert Edward Yarbro of Boiling Springs, son of Mrs. Ann Yarbro of Boiling Springs and Alvin E. Yarbro, Jr. of Kings Mountain, departs this morning by plane from Charlotte to Los Angeles, California.

In Los Angeles he will visit for two months with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Peck and their son, Dustin, and attend summer school there. Enroute back to North Carolina, Yarbro will enjoy a month's sight-seeing tour with the Pecks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eskew of Atlanta, Ga. and Paul Starnes of Charlotte were Monday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Nettie Hughes.

Miss Cora Felton Bass of Columbia, N.C. is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nettie Hughes. Miss Bass was a former music teacher in the Kings Mountain school system.

Miss Janice Marjorie MacGill became the bride Charles Cooper Padgett Saturday in a 3 p. m. wedding in Charlotte's St. Andrews United Methodist church.

Rev. Kenneth Johnson, minister of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Two standing bouquets of mixed pastel summer flowers graced the altar.

Mrs. Gloria Brown was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers were by Leonard Crowe.

Robert MacGill escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white peau de soie with raised waistline, full skirt and short train. The round neckline and short sleeves of the bodice were edged with narrow lace and the lace yoke in front and back were embroidered with seed pearls. Her floor-length veil of silk illusion was held by a headpiece of matching ace and pearls and she carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers in tones of pink and lilac.

Mrs. Thomas F. Zimorski attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Malona Robertson of Raleigh and Miss Lillian Raven of Jacksonville, Fla.

The three attendants wore formal's of Nile green imported voile designed with high smocked and ruffled necklines with sleeveless bodices enhanced by a smocked waist and pale pink, green and orchid embroidery. Wide ruffle borders trimmed the full, floor-length skirts. They wore wide matching brim hats trimmed with green velvet ribbon and carried nosegays of pink carnations and orchid asters.

All the attendants wore long formal's of Nile green imported voile designed with high smocked and ruffled necklines with sleeveless bodices enhanced by a smocked waist and pale pink, green and orchid embroidery. Wide ruffle borders trimmed the full, floor-length skirts. They wore wide matching brim hats trimmed with green velvet ribbon and carried nosegays of pink carnations and orchid asters.

(Continued on page two)

Grover's First Baptist church was the setting Friday evening at eight o'clock for a candlelight wedding uniting Miss Deborah Lynn Deaton and John Luther (Chip) Montgomery.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Paul Millwood, pastor of the church.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and background greenery and centered by a central arrangement of pink mums and pink gladioli enhanced by cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra.

Mrs. Gilmore Byars was organist for the program of nuptial music and Miss Vickie Moss was vocal soloist. Miss Moss sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of antique satin with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long, tapered buttoned sleeves. The full skirt extended into a sweep train. She wore a shoulder-length veil of silk illusion enhanced by motifs of lace and held by a lace headpiece. She carried a white "ace-covered Bible topped by an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

(Continued on page two)

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of antique satin with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long, tapered buttoned sleeves. The full skirt extended into a sweep train. She wore a shoulder-length veil of silk illusion enhanced by motifs of lace and held by a lace headpiece. She carried a white "ace-covered Bible topped by an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of antique satin with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long, tapered buttoned sleeves. The full skirt extended into a sweep train. She wore a shoulder-length veil of silk illusion enhanced by motifs of lace and held by a lace headpiece. She carried a white "ace-covered Bible topped by an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of antique satin with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long, tapered buttoned sleeves. The full skirt extended into a sweep train. She wore a shoulder-length veil of silk illusion enhanced by motifs of lace and held by a lace headpiece. She carried a white "ace-covered Bible topped by an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of antique satin with scalloped sweetheart neckline and long, tapered buttoned sleeves. The full skirt extended into a sweep train. She wore a shoulder-length veil of silk illusion enhanced by motifs of lace and held by a lace headpiece. She carried a white "ace-covered Bible topped by an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

(Continued on page two)

Legion Auxiliary Winner Of Three State Awards

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 155 of Kings Mountain copped three awards at the state convention in Durham during the weekend.

The Unit won an engraved plaque and a certificate for membership honors, having been the first unit among 232 to reach its quota in membership for the year. The state organization now numbers 10,036 members.

Unit President Elizabeth Stewart also received the communications award for the best project by a unit president. Miss Stewart was elected state communications chairman and was installed as Alternate President of District 23 along with new officers on Saturday. Mrs. Oran-grel Jolly, treasurer of the local unit, was named to the committee on field service.

Membership honors went to five Kings Mountain members. In addition to Mrs. Jolly, they were Mrs. J. M. Rhea, Mrs. J. E. Mauney, Mrs. Lillian Mitchem and Mrs. Bessie Beam.

Representing the Auxiliary at the convention at Durham Hotel-Motel were Miss Stewart, Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Leonard Gamble, unit chaplain.

TRACY PAYNE CHRISTENED

Ernest C. (Tracy) Payne, three-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Payne of York, S. C., was christened at morning worship services Sunday at Trinity United Methodist church in York.

Going to York for the special services were Tracy's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Payne of Kings Mountain and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mehaffey of Lancaster, S. C. Other family members attending were Mr. and Mrs. David Hughes, Mrs. Gordon Hughes, all of Kings Mountain; Bill Payne of Marion; and Mrs. Ginger Payne Gower of Gastonia.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Louis G. Sabettie of Kings Mountain will attend the forthcoming Southeastern convention of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Miami, Fla. June 25-28. Also attending will be his sales representatives from Gastonia, Rock Hill and Chester, S. C.

Sabettie, who has been affiliated with the Gastonia-based firm since 1953, is head of the district's Ordinary agency. This agency has been a leader in sales since its organization in 1968.

Mrs. Sabettie and their son, Tony, age 13, will accompany Mr. Sabettie to Miami where they will stay at the Playboy Plaza Hotel, convention headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grigg, Jr. of Raleigh, N. C. and children, David, Laura, and Sara are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grigg, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moss this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright III and son Lindsay of Raleigh, N. C. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright II and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moss.

Society News

SECTION B THE KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. Thursday, June 22, 1972

Kathy Rhea, Robert L. Bumgardner Give Plans For Their Sunday Nuptials

Miss Kathy Lynn Rhea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Rhea, has completed plans for her marriage to Robert Lane Bumgardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linard Franklin Bumgardner, and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in First Presbyterian church with Dr. Paul Ausley to officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Darrel Austin will be organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers will be by Miss Judy Rayfield and Miss Debbie Burns.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for the bridegroom-to-be will be his father.

Mrs. Jackie Crawford, college roommate of the bride-elect; Mrs. Scottie Walker of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride-elect; Mrs. Paul Reynolds, sister of the bridegroom-to-be; Miss Debby Ramey of Seneca, S. C., college classmate of the bride-elect; and Mrs. Chuck Ross of Kings Mountain.

Barbara Rhea, sister of the bride-elect, will be junior bridesmaid. Lee Anne Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders and cousin of the bride-elect, will be flower girl and Bradley Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds and nephew of the bridegroom-to-be, will be ring-bearer.

Paul Reynolds, brother-in-law of the prospective bridegroom, will usher with Chuck Ross, David Goode, Jackie Crawford, and Gary Wall. David Rhea, brother of the bride-elect, will be junior usher.

Mrs. Bill Sellers, aunt of the bride-elect, will keep a guest register.

Mrs. Paul Ausley will direct the wedding.

The bridal party will form a receiving line in the chapel of the church to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

Parties will honor Miss Rhea and Mr. Bumgardner prior to their wedding day.

Gary Wall will honor Mr. Bumgardner and men of the wedding party at a bachelor's supper Friday evening at Fern Forest Apartments in Gastonia. At the same hour, Mr. Bumgardner's bride-to-be and members of the bridal party will be entertained at a "hen party" at the home of Miss Trisha Robertson at Shamrock Garden Apartments in Charlotte.

The bride-elect's mother will fete members of the bridal party at a noon bridesmaid luncheon Sunday at the Rhea home on Fulton road.

After the wedding rehearsal on Saturday evening, Miss Rhea and Mr. Bumgardner will cut a wedding cake in the fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Billy Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney.

Participating in the wedding as honorary bridesmaids will be Miss Adele Pittman of Spruce Pine, Miss Patti Meeks of Clemson, S. C., Miss Carol Bellamy of Hendersonville, all college classmates of the bride-elect at Western Carolina University, and Miss Gloria Wells of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride-elect.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday: 9:00— Gary Wall is entertaining at Fern Forest Apartments in Gastonia at a bachelor party honoring Robert Lane Bumgardner.

9:00— Miss Trisha Robertson is entertaining at Shamrock Garden Apartments in Charlotte at a "hen party" honoring bride-elect Kathy Rhea.

Saturday: 7:00— Rehearsal for the Rhea-Bumgardner wedding in First Presbyterian church.

8:30— Mr. and Mrs. Billy Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney are entertaining at an after-rehearsal party honoring Miss Kathy Rhea and Robert Lane Bumgardner in the fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church.

Sunday: 12:00— Bridesmaids luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Rhea honoring Miss Kathy Rhea and her bride! attendants.

3:00— The wedding of Miss Kathy Lynn Rhea and Robert Lane Bumgardner in First Presbyterian church.

Visiting last week with Mrs. M. L. Houser and family were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Houser and Anita, Tucson, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Byrne, Rodney, Kim and Danielle, Tucson, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Houser, Jr., Russell and Shawna, San Francisco, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Houser, Jr., Goldsboro, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Houser, John and Emily, Goldsboro, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Umstead, Chuck and Leann, Goldsboro, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stokes, Ruffin, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stokes, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Suzanne Stokes, Charlotte, N. C.

Mary Jo Hord Bride-Elect Is Honored

Mrs. Hal S. Plonk and Mrs. Tommy Goforth honored bride-elect Miss Mary Jo Hord at a one o'clock luncheon Saturday, June 17 at their home on Crescent Circle.

Miss Hord and Stan Whitley are to be married August 12.

Arrangements of magnolias were used in the foyer, den and living room. In the dining room, a miniature bride, flanked by large gold wedding rings topped by white carnations, decorated the buffet. Duplicate ring decorations in white and gold and bridal place cards were used on the guests' tables.

The dining table, overlaid with a white lace cloth, held a centerpiece of magnolias and white tapers in silver candelabra. A three-course buffet luncheon was served to twelve guests.

In addition to the bride-elect, covers were laid for Mrs. D. F. Hord, mother of the bride; Mrs. Marie Yow Whitley of Concord, mother of the groom; Mrs. Byron Keeter, grandmother of the bride; Miss Nancy Hampton of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Gene Thomas of Marietta, Georgia; Mrs. Michael McRee of Gaffney, South Carolina; and Mrs. George Moss, Mrs. J. C. Bridges, Mrs. John C. McGill, Miss Barbara Hord, Miss Nancy Hord of Kings Mountain.

The hostesses presented the bride-to-be with a decorative china clock.

Assisting in serving was Mrs. Bill Bridges of Kings Mountain.

LISA CLINE (LEFT) AND LASHELLE CLINE

Clines Dance In Recital In Marietta

Lisa Cline and LaShelle Cline, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cline of Smyrna, Ga., were presented in recital along with students of Jan's School of Dance in Marietta high school auditorium Saturday, June 10th.

The program featured the theme, "Variety Time 1972."

Lisa Cline appeared in two numbers: "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing"; and "On Pointe". LaShelle Cline appeared in "AB,DEFG".

The Cline sisters are granddaughters of City Commissioner Ray Cline and Mrs. Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bennett. Their mother is the former Linda Bennett.