Sanders Is Looking Forward To Grid Year

CLEMSON, S. C. — He's been doing construction work this summer. But that's not really his trade. Still, he possesses a skill—carrying the football.

And the 16th of this month Smiley Sanders will exchange his work boots for a pair of cleats as Hootie Ingram's Clemson Tigers open practice that day in preparation for the 1972 season.

"I'm looking forward to this season," the Central native and ex-Daniel High standout commented. "I was disappointed that we didn't win more games in 1971 but we played a great game against South Carolina at the end of the season," the rising junior continued, "and we proved to people that we had a good team."

The Tigers, picked to finish in the cellar of the Atlantic Coast Conference a year ago, got tough in the stretch and wound up in second place behind North Carolina.

And Sanders played a major role in the season. The 6-1, 195-

DUKE
The nation after an 11-1 record, Alabama returns 25 lettermen and coach Bear Bryant will have six defensive starters and 11 offensive players returning. Included among the returning players are quarterback Terry Davis and All-America guard John Hannah.

Following the trip to Birmingham, the Blue Devils will travel to Seattle to face the Washington Huskies. Washington returns 19 or 21 starters off last season's squad that posted an 8-3 record. The Huskies are led by Heisman Trophy candidate Sonny Sikkiler. Southern Cal's John McKay says, "Washington may have one of the finest teams in the history of college football."

After the Washington trip, the Blue Devils will return home to face the Stanford Cardinals, Rose Bowl victors for the past two seasons. Stanford returns 33 lettermen and will be out to revenge a 9-3 loss to Duke last season.

Virginia finished tied for third in the ACC race last season and returns eight offensive starters and six defensive players. Among the offensive players are quarterback Harrison Davis and running back Kent Merritt.

The Duke coaches are in the process of putting together play books, scouting reports and making practice plans for the start of the season. Along with the preparation of the start of practice, the Blue Devil coaches will spend a week on the road looking over the prospective recruits for next season.

"This is an exciting time of year," recently remarked McGee, who guided the Blue Devils to a 6-5 record last season. "Everyone is talking football and anticipating the start of fall practice."

The fall practice will be short, because 19 days after the Blue Devil's report on August 21, they will be facing the Alabama Crimson Tide in Birmingham.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

Q. What are the 3 most important rules for profitable newspaper advertising?

A. 1. Your advertising message should be newsworthy, friendly, informative, easy to read. Give facts and news about your merchandise and service.

2. Advertise regularly. Make your advertising do what successful salesmen do—call on customers and prospects consistently.

3. Insist on audited circulation reports that give you the FACTS about the audience that your sales messages will have when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. What does A.B.C. do for me?

A. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of the circulation records of each publisher member. The results of each audit are published in an easy-to-read A.B.C. report for your use and protection when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. What are the FACTS in A.B.C. reports?

A. A.B.C. reports tell you how much circulation, where it goes, how obtained and other FACTS that help you buy advertising as you would make any sound business investment—on the basis of known values and audited information.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A.B.C. membership?

A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is evidence that the paper is wanted and read.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation. We want you to know the FACTS about the audience your selling messages will have when they appear in these pages. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.
