

(Continued from one) OLD FURNITURE Route 2, Bessemer City, treasurer; and Mrs. Joe Whitehurst, Route 1, Kings Mountain; Jack Ormand, Concord; Mrs. Irene Simmons, Bessemer City; Starr Stacy Boone, Lewis Ormand, Route 1, Kings Mountain; John Hovis, Boone; and William Preston Goforth, Clover, S. C.

(Continued from one) KISTLER Point. The Kistlers express a strong preference for small towns such as Kings Mountain. They have been overwhelmed, not only by the kindness of his church people but by that of neighbors who are members of other churches. "We like it here very much," they say.

T. A. McDaniel's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for Thomas Albert (Bert) McDaniel, 67, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Eastside Baptist church, interment following in Mountain Rest cemetery. Rev. Harry Vance officiated at the final rites. Mr. McDaniel died at 6 p.m. Sunday while vacationing at Cherry Grove Beach, S. C. He was the son of the late Thomas Alfred and Pearl Franklin Neal McDaniel and a retired truck driver for Akers Motor Lines. He is survived by one son, James R. McDaniel of Gastonia; one sister, Mrs. Virginia Williams of North Wilkesboro; three brothers, Logan and Broadus McDaniel of Kings Mountain and David McDaniel of Hendersonville; one half-brother, Russell Franklin of Pepperell, Mass; and two grandchildren.

Jim Layton To Win Ph.D.

Candidates for the Aug. 12 Summer commencement exercises at the University of Southern Mississippi, numbering 883, have been announced by Dr. Gilbert Langdon, registrar. Exercises for the candidates, representing one of the largest summer classes to date, are scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. in Reed Green Coliseum on the University campus. Among the candidates from Kings Mountain, — James Ronald Layton seeking the Doctor of Education;

Cancer Campaign Is Lagging

The Kings Mountain area's cancer campaign is lagging. Funds to date total only $300. Goal of the effort is $4,000. Mrs. Jack Hauser, chairman of Cancer Sunday August 20th, invites persons who have not been contacted by a volunteer to mail their contributions either to her at 501 Crescent Hill or to Chairman Alfred Grigg, Jr. at First Union National Bank. "Cancer is the number one killer of adults," said Mrs. Hauser, "and funds are needed badly to provide the research into the cure for this dread disease." Sunday, August 20th, is Cancer Sunday and house-to-house canvasses will be made of the community that day. Citizens with memorial gifts to loved ones should forward their memorial checks to Mrs. F. S. Morrison, treasurer, 406 Edgemont Drive.

PRAYER MEETING Mrs. P. Q. Hambright will be hostess to cottage prayer meeting Friday evening at 7:30 at her home on Grover road.

Letter To Editor Dear Editor I would like for this to be published in memory of my husband, Charlie New Hendren, who passed away September 4, 1971. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, stepfather, loved one, and friend. We miss him more than any words can express. But we expect to meet him some day with Jesus, our Daddy, brothers, and loved ones who have gone on before. If we trust in God and keep the faith until Jesus comes or calls, we know we will meet again. The 23rd Psalm is my memory verse to him. The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. For Thou art with me, thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever. This my belief and true feelings. Thanking you. Mrs. Charlie (Nina) Hendren

Workshop Set For Teachers

The Kings Mountain school system will hold its first substitute teacher workshop Wednesday, August 16, from 2 until 5 p.m. at the School Administration building.

Supt. Donald Jones reminds that all persons interested in doing substitute work must attend the workshop.

He also reminded of the recent regulations on substitute teaching as adopted by the board of education:

- 1) that the teacher have at least a high school diploma with college training preferred; 2) that the teacher attend a two-hour workshop conducted by the school administration. Substitute teacher pay is $15 per day and applications are being accepted at the school administration offices.

Rev. Shelton's Sister Passes

Funeral rites for Mrs. Geneva Shelton Queen, of Sylvia, N. C., age 53, sister of Rev. Odas Shelton, Doyl Shelton and Mrs. Duffie Guyton of Kings Mountain, were conducted Thursday, August 3 at 4:00 p.m. from the Chapel of Moody's Funeral Home in Sylvia. The Rev. Clyde Collins officiated and burial was in Fairview cemetery. Other survivors are her husband, Dewey Queen; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shelton of Franklin; her brothers, Burgess of Belle Glade, Fla.; Lloyd of Franklin; Verlon of Waynesville; J. F., Jr. of Stock Bridge, Ga.; and Arvil of Hood River, Ore.; and her sister Mrs. Lois Nanney of Cliffside.

7 More Homes In Northwoods

Phillips Development Corporation plans to build seven more six-room residences in North Woods Sub Division estimated to cost $112,081.90. The firm purchased city building permits this week to build a six room residence on Lot No. 47 to cost $16,983; a six room residence on Lot No. 46 to cost $14,983; a six room residence on Lot No. 45 to cost $16,583; a six room residence on Lot No. 43 to cost $14,983; a six room residence on Lot No. 42 to cost $16,983; a six room residence on Lot No. 40 to cost $14,983; and a six room residence on Lot No. 41 to cost $16,583. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander purchased a permit to build a six room-two-bath residence at 511 Ellenwood Drive at cost of $23,000. Marion Dixon will be contractor. B. P. Jackson obtained a permit to repair the roof to his home at cost of $700. Trailer placement permits were issued to Betty Hovis of North Piedmont Avenue and Amos Trailer Park, 618 E. Gold street. Gus Peterson obtained a permit to build a carport to his residence at 991 Second street and add a driveway at estimated cost of $850.

Paragon Signs Johnnie Floyd

Free lance writer Johnnie E. Floyd, a native of Augusta, Ga., arrived in Kings Mountain Wednesday to work with Paragon Studios on its filming of "Sign O. L." a murder mystery being filmed in and around Kings Mountain. Floyd has worked with such writing greats as the late Nobel Peace Prize winner John Steinbeck and novelist Bill Adler. Floyd won the Freedoms Foundation Award in 1966 for his coverage of the Vietnam War. Floyd initiated the Stars and Stripes column, "Pup Tent Poems" and also has a chapter

BAKE SALE Rainbow Girls of Kings Mountain Assembly 50 will hold a bake sale Saturday morning beginning at 9:30 at Phifer Hardware. Cookies, cakes and pies will be available and proceeds will benefit the Assembly's community projects.

Pvt. Hamilton Finishes Training

FF. JACKSON, S. C. (AHTNC) July 19 — Army Private Michael A. Hamilton, son of Mrs. Catalina W. Hamilton, 114 E. Mane St., Bessemer City, N. C., recently completed eight weeks of basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C. He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions. Pvt. Hamilton received his training with Company C, 7th Battalion of the 2nd Brigade. The 17-year-old soldier's father, Clyde D. Hamilton, lives at 1129 Cleveland Ave., Gastonia, N. C.

New Students Register Now

School students who have recently moved into the Kings Mountain school district are asked to register at the schools nearest their home.

Supt. Donald Jones reminds that principals are on duty and new students are urged to register as soon as possible.

Jones said any new student not knowing what school district he lives in should contact the school administration office or any principal.

Schools Staff Near Complete

Schools Superintendent Donald Jones reported Wednesday that the staff for the 1972-73 school year is complete with one exception.

"Still needed is a part-time attendance counselor. Jones said the job would consist of approximately five hours a day and the pay would be in the neighborhood of $300 per month.

Anyone interested in applying for the job should contact Supt. Jones at the schools administration office.

Numerous Accidents Reported

During the past week the Kings Mountain police investigated numerous traffic accidents. Saturday, at 5 p.m., cars driven by Donald Lynn Smith, 34, of Charlotte and Clyde Odem Taylor, 61 of Kings Mountain, collided on Highway 74 on King street. According to investigating officer David Corn, the Taylor car had slowed to make a turn. Taylor reportedly gave a left turn signal, the Smith car attempted to pass on the right. Damage to the Smith car was $100 and to the Taylor car $75.

Two other accidents were reported Saturday. At 12:30 a.m., Johnny Lee Surratt, 18, of Kings Mountain told investigating officer T. F. King "the gas pedal hung up and he hit a light pole and turned over." Officer T. F. King said the car traveled 100 feet and landed on its top in a field. Damages to the car were $1600.

At 3:00 a.m., vehicles driven by John Warren Downing, 28, Rocky Mount, and Allen Homer Robbins, 44, Shelby, collided on York road. According to investigating officer L. D. Beattie, Downing was backing his vehicle across the road and Robbins late model vehicle ran into the side of Downing.

Monday, at 8:57 p.m., investigating officer Sgt. D. R. Corn stated a car driven by Grady Lewis Bently, 41, Gastonia overturned when he tried to stop for a 1970 Ford but skidded, hit the curb and overturned. Damage to the Bently car was $2,000.

Tuesday, at 8:00 p.m., cars driven by Thomas Mills Curry, 82, Shelby and Norman Gene Atkins, 22, Grover, collided on East King street at the intersection with Gaston street. Investigating officer Roger Dodge said damages to the Curry car were $300 and to the Atkins car $600.

House Break-In Is Reported

The Cleveland County Sheriff's Department is investigating a break-in which occurred sometime last week at the home of Odus Whisnant on Route 1, Kings Mountain. Detective Paul Barbee said the break-in was discovered last Friday by a neighbor. Barbee said Whisnant had been out of town for several days.

Entry was made by someone breaking out a glass in a back window. Barbee reported that a complete stereo system, a lamp and a table were missing from the home. He estimated the value at $750.

Barbee said indications were the thieves dragged the stereo out the front door, but no tire tracks were found around the home.

AT MEETING J. Don Shields is attending the Associated Public Safety Communications Officers Conference in Boston, Massachusetts. Shields is the first Vice President of the North Carolina Chapter of APCO. The East Coast Conference will be held in Asheville next May and Shields has been named General Chairman of the Conference.

Mrs. Bulwinkle CLOC Speaker

"Preservation of Crowders Mountain" will be the topic of discussion at Thursday's meeting of the Cleveland League on Conservation at 7:30 p.m. at Cleveland Memorial Library in Shelby. Mrs. Lewis Bulwinkle of Gastonia will be guest speaker. Bill Green, program chairman, invites interested Kings Mountain area citizens to attend.

Mrs. Beam's Mother Passes

Funeral rites for Mrs. Addie Lee Hawkins, 55, of Bolling Springs, mother of Mrs. Mary Beam of Kings Mountain, were conducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. from Popular Springs Baptist church with the Rev. J. Edgar Bishop and Rev. Mitchell Pruett officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Hawkins died Monday morning in Royster Memorial hospital.

She is survived by her husband, J. K. Hawkins; four daughters, Mrs. Frances Emory, Mrs. Jamie Hunt, both of Shelby, Mrs. Shelby Jean Shehan of Lincoln and Mrs. Mary Beam of Kings Mountain; seven sons, Chivius, Glenn, William and Cecil Hawkins, all of Shelby, Ray Hawkins of Bolling Springs, Boyd Hawkins of the home; one sister, Mrs. Lola West of Augusta, Ga.; five brothers, Grady Edwards of Fayetteville, Hubert Edwards of Spindal, Worth Edwards of Rutledge, Dewey Edwards of Forest City and Hiley Edwards of Denton; and 29 grandchildren.

M. L. Green's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for Manley Lee Green, 73, of Route 1, Grover, were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3 p.m. from New Buffalo Baptist church, interment following in Grover cemetery.

Mr. Green died Monday at Cleveland Memorial hospital after an extended illness.

A native of Cleveland County, he was the son of the late Malachi and Elvira Cooper Green.

He retired from Cra. Tspun Mill after 1958.

Survivors include five sons, Charles Green of Grover, William Green of Earl, Donald and James Green of Shelby and Max Green of East Molene, Ill.; one half-brother, Albert Green of Blacksburg, S. C. one sister, Mrs. Ocia Smith of Chesnee, S.C.; two half-sisters, Mrs. Jack Crawley of Bessemer City and Mrs. J. B. Wood of Columbia, S.C.; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Rev. Joe Whitworth and Rev. N. S. Hardin officiated at the final rites.

PPG Names Gene Mosier

PITTSBURGH — Eugene B. Mosier has been appointed general manager of aircraft and specialty products for PPG Industries' Glass Division.

He will be responsible for sales and marketing of aircraft and specialty transparencies, as well as their manufacture at PPG Huntsville, Ala., and Creighton, Pa., fabrication plants. Mosier, who had been assistant manager of PPG's Meadville, Pa., float glass plant, will be headquartered at the firm's aircraft and specialty products offices in Huntsville.

F. W. Lowe's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for Forney Washington Lowe, Sr., 70, retired master mechanic at Osage Mills in Bessemer City, were conducted Monday afternoon at 4 p.m. from Bessemer City's First Baptist church with the Rev. A. A. Bailey officiating.

Interment was in Gastonia's Hollywood cemetery. Son of the late John and Sally Walker Lowe, Mr. Lowe was a member of the First Baptist church of Bessemer City where he was a deacon and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. He was also a Mason, a member of Whetstone Lodge No. 515.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Connie Holland Lowe, two sons, Bob H. Lowe of Kings Mountain and Forney W. Lowe, Jr. of Greenville, S. C.; two daughters, Mrs. Olin Mooney and Mrs. Marvin Mooney of Bessemer City; two brothers, F. F. and Charles Lowe of Gastonia; 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

HOSPITALIZED Mrs. Dewey Grigg underwent gall bladder surgery Monday morning in Cleveland Memorial hospital at Shelby where she remains a patient. Mrs. Grigg, the former Linda Stewart, is employed in the offices of K Mills.

TO CHARLOTTE Mrs. Amos Dean moved Monday to Charlotte where she has occupied an apartment at 28 Briantey Court. Mrs. Dean, who formerly lived at 414 West Gold street, is a representative for "Inch-Master".

SINGING There will be a singing at Piedmont Baptist Church Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Featured groups will be the Singing Doss Family and The Apostles Quartet.

Dellinger's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for W. Clarence Dellinger, 80, who died Friday, were conducted Sunday at Mt. Zion Baptist church of which he was a member.

Rev. I. A. Cable and Chaplain Jack Cooke officiated at the final rites and interment was in the church cemetery.

A native of Lincoln County and a farmer, he was the son of the late John P. and Ellen Henson Dellinger. He was a member of Warren F. Hoyle Post 82 of Shelby and a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Lavanda Shuford Dellinger; one daughter, Mrs. Donald Kewley of Go-wanda, N. Y.; four sons, Roy Dellinger and Glenn Dellinger, both of the home; and six sisters, Mrs. E. A. Wright, Mrs. Andrew Lovelace, and Mrs. John Patterson, all of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Miles Cornwell of Shelby, Mrs. Joe Beam of Homestead, Fla., and Mrs. Dan Foster of Dallas.

Jessie Ramsey's Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Jessie L. Ramsey, 83, of 114 Lackey street, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3:30 from First Wesleyan church, of which he was a member.

Rev. Boyd C. Kistler, Rev. John Harris and Rev. J. W. Phillips officiated at the final rites and interment was in Mountain Rest cemetery.

Mr. Ramsey died Friday at 10 p.m. at Hawthorne Lane Nursing Center in Charlotte after extended illness.

A native of Cherokee County, S. C., he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey. He was a retired textile worker.

Surviving are his wife, Emma Owensby Ramsey; three sons, J. E. Ramsey of Goldsboro, Bedford Ramsey of Monroe and A. C. Ramsey of Marietta, Ga.; one brother, Gene Ramsey of Atlanta, Ga.; three sisters, Mrs. Esther Reavis of Asheville, Mrs. Edney Ramsey of Atlanta, Ga.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Scruggs Rites Are Conducted

Funeral services for Harold Dean Scruggs, 31, of Topeka, Kansas, brother of the Rev. B. D. Scruggs of Kings Mountain, were held Sunday afternoon from Polkville Baptist church.

Rev. Mr. Scruggs was assisted by Rev. W. P. Biggestaff and Rev. Raymond Crook in officiating at the rites.

A native of Cleveland County, he was the son of Mrs. Pearl Philbeck Scruggs of Polkville and the late Lonzo B. Scruggs.

He was a member of High Shoals Baptist church in Henrietta.

Surviving, other than his mother and brother, are two sons, Rickie and Jimmy Scruggs of Cliffside; three brothers, Lewis Scruggs of Lawndale, C. B. and Billy Scruggs of Polkville; and three sisters, Mrs. Hugh Greene and Mrs. James Greene, both of Polkville, and Mrs. Brannon Turner of Caroleen.

SENIOR CITIZENS Senior Citizens club members will gather for a hamburger supper Friday at 5 p.m. at shelter No. 1 at Lake Crawford. All members are invited to attend.

ROTARY OUTING Rotarians and their families will assemble at the Country club at 6:30 p.m. tonight to go to Gastonia for a ballgame. Supper at the game will be hotdogs with all the trimmings.

Free Puppies Are Advertised Free puppies, anyone? A Kings Mountain man is advertising mixed breed, German Shepherd and beagle puppies, this week free to anyone who wants a good pet. The telephone number to call, after 6 p.m., is 739-3125.

Grace Methodists Picnic Sunday Members of Grace United Methodist church and their families will hold the annual church picnic Sunday at 6 p.m. at Shelter 2 at Lake Crawford. Members will begin arriving at the picnic area at 4 p.m. for games with the children. Following supper, a worship service will be led by the pastor, Rev. N. C. Bush.

Churches To Aid Hurricane Victims

Methodist churches in the area will observe a special day of prayer for world peace on Sunday.

At Grace Methodist church Sunday an offering will be received for victims of Hurricane Agnes.

"Picking Up The Pieces of Ourselves" will be the sermon topic of Rev. N. C. Bush at Sunday morning worship hour at Grace United Methodist church.

SERIOUSLY ILL Manuel A. Moss, father of Mayor John Moss, remains seriously ill following a stroke. He is a patient in the Kings Mountain hospital.

HAS SURGERY Lynn Wilson, small daughter of Grover, underwent a tonsillectomy Friday at Charlotte Presbyterian hospital and is recuperating at home. Rev. Mr. Wilson is pastor of Dixon and Shiloh Presbyterian churches.

DISCHARGED William Williams was discharged Sunday from Kings Mountain hospital after treatment for minor burns sustained when he was drilling under the house at 402 E. King street.

RECUPERATING Miss Bessie Lee Bumgardner, who sustained injuries when struck by a car July 22 on York road, continues to recuperate in the Kings Mountain hospital.

Want To BUY? SELL? RENT? HIRE? THEY GET RESULTS! Phone 739-5441 Try HERALD WANT ADS

Subscribe To The HERALD

Tax Discount Notice DISCOUNT OF 2% Will Be Allowed on All 1972 City Tax Bills During August Only CHANGES IN STATE LAW NO LONGER PERMIT DISCOUNTS AFTER AUGUST City Of Kings Mountain