

Jaycees Extend Calendar Drive

The Kings Mountain Jaycees, at their monthly meeting Tuesday at the Royal Villa Motor Inn, voted to extend their birthday calendar sale for two weeks. Jim Belt, chairman of the calendar sale committee, said that any persons wishing to put their name on the calendar, may contact any member of the Jaycees.

The club also discussed a drag strip project and sent a letter to the president of the International Hot Rod Association. Steve Wilson is chairman of that committee.

The club voted to sell stadium seats and beach bags. That committee is headed by Jerry Simons.

Special guest Eeb Harris, AREAC Vice President, spoke to the club members on the need of new members and urged all members to bring new persons into the Jaycees.

Head Start Activities Are Slated

Activities for Kings Mountain's Head Start Program at Preschool Child Development Center will begin with a three day training session for all staff members and members of the policy council, Monday through Wednesday.

These sessions will be conducted by Dr. William Burnett Regional Training officer of the Child Development Center at the University of North Carolina Greensboro.

Emphasis will be placed on Child Development, Career Development and Parent Involvement.

On Wednesday, August 23rd, staff members attended the General Staff Meeting at Kings Mountain High School Gymnasium — Superintendent Donald Jones, presided.

Children will report to the Early Childhood Education Center on Thursday, August 24th, 8:30-10:30.

Parents are asked to please bring their children and remain for awhile for the purpose of filling out forms necessary to complete their enrollment.

On Friday, August 25th, children will remain at the Center until 2:30. Parents who transport their children are asked to remember this.

Members of the staff are Mrs. Willie Marable, director and teacher with Mrs. Thelma Patrick as teacher aide; Mrs. Diane Davis, assistant teacher, and Mrs. Sarah Pettis as teacher aide; Mrs. Emma Jo Randall, secretary; Mrs. Rosalie Garvin, parent co-ordinator; Mrs. Barbara Roberts, cafeteria aide; Mrs. Marable invites volunteer aides to assist in the program.

Mrs. Boles' Rites Thursday

Funeral rites for Mrs. Elizabeth Boles, 84, of 115 Cloninger street, will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. from Macedonia Baptist church, interment following in Lattimore Baptist church cemetery.

Rev. L. D. Scruggs will be assisted by Rev. C. A. Bost in officiating at the final rites.

The body will remain at Harris Funeral Home until the hour of service.

Mrs. Boles, widow of Oscar Boles who died June 4th this year, died Tuesday morning at 4 a.m. in the Kings Mountain hospital after illness of three weeks.
