

MRS. JOHN FREDERICK PETTUS
(Norma Claudette King)

MRS. EDMUND MILNOR BROWN
(Alice Lee Pike)

MISS DIANNE KATHERINE HAUSOR
(Bride-Elect of Stanley Robert Brown)

MRS. HENRY ADOLPHUS LONDON, II
(Karen Elizabeth Cansler)

Engagements Announced; Church Weddings Unite Pettuses, Browns, Hal Londons, Hamricks

St. Paul's Episcopal church was the setting Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. for the candlelight wedding of Miss Norma Claudette King and John Frederick Pettus.

The Rev. Eugene Land, minister of the church, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. L. E. Hinnant was organist for the program of sacred music and vocal numbers were by Rev. Jerry Laughter.

The wedding service was opened with a Call to Worship led by the minister. Rev. Jerry Laughter led the congregational singing of "Love Divine All Love Excelling" before the bridal party entered to "Trumpet Voluntary." The minister led a Litany of Dedication which included a responsive reading and then addressed the congregation, read the Sermon from the Bible and charged the bride and groom.

The couple exchanged their vows and Biblical response was made to the vows before the exchange of rings. Rev. Mr. Laughter sang "Seal Us O Holy Spirit" before the Biblical Beatitudes and pronouncement of marriage. The service was concluded with the congregational singing of "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" and the benediction. Mrs. Hinnant played "Trumpet Tune" as the recessional.

The altar of the church was banked with Boston palms and arranged with gold tree candelabra holding lighted tapers and accented by a gold prayer bench. White mums, chrysanthemums and white roses filled floor baskets on either side of the setting.

The bride's White Bible on an antique Bible Stand was displayed in the vestibule of the church. Purple and pink asters enhanced the arrangement. The Bible was recently presented the bride for nine years service as church pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of silk organza and Venice lace over taffeta fashioned with scoop neckline, long, full sleeves and Chapel length train. Lace threaded with white satin ribbon circled the raised waistline and cuffs of the sleeves. Her mantilla of silk illusion was bordered in lace and worn over a silk Camelot cap. She carried a white Bible topped with pink roses and a white orchid showered with streamers of lily of the valley.

Miss Joyce Ann King attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Faye McAbee of Kings Mountain, Miss Doris Susan Webster of Charlotte, and Miss Sally Jane Crump, Miss Betty Mae Crump, and Miss Hazel Lee Crump, all of Drakes Branch, Va., cousins of the bride.

Flower girls were Tracy Lee Ann Bolin of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride, and Andrea Michelle Grant of Gastonia. They wore long lavender dresses and carried baskets of pink and purple asters.

All the attendants wore long gowns made by the bride's mother of lavender peau de soie designed along empire lines with short, puff sleeves enhanced by lace trim and white lace threaded with purple velvet ribbon around the waistlines. Chokers of matching purple velvet were worn with the dresses and they wore short white gloves and carried baskets of lavender and purple asters, Shasta daisies and pompons.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Eugene McAbee of Kings Mountain, Jack Douglas King and Bruce Wayne King, brothers of the bride, Joseph Wayne King of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride, and Michael Ritch Pettus of Gastonia, brother of the bridegroom.

Miss Cheryl McAbee kept a bride's book in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony. Miss McAbee wore an aqua blue formal-length dress and a white shoulder corsage.

The bride's mother chose a beige dress with off-white jacket and a cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother chose a pink ensemble with a white Royal Bouquet orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. T. Frank Ware, grandmother of the bride, chose a pink dress with matching accessories and a white carnation shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Ullis King, grandmother of the bride, chose a beige dress with matching accessories and a white carnation shoulder corsage.

The bride's parents and the bride's aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bolin, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hannah entertained.

Continued On Page Two

Parkway Baptist church of Greensboro provided the setting Saturday for a 2 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Alice Lee Pike and Edmund Milnor Brown.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pike of Greensboro, is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hord of Kings Mountain.

Rev. Charles Howell, minister of the church officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Rev. Charles Howell, minister of the church officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown designed along empire lines of white rayon organza embroidered with lace around the bodice, cuffs of the sleeves and neckline. Lace enhanced the Chapel length train. A Juliet cap held her veil of illusion and she carried a nosegay of white stephanotis and yellow roses centered by a phalaenopsis orchid.

Miss Kay Brown of Columbia, S. C. attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Connor of Shelby, Mrs. John E. Phillips of Boiling Springs, Miss Barbara Craig of Rutherfordton, Miss Donna Pike of Greensboro, Mrs. William K. Neely of Wake Forest and Mrs. Dick Benton of Reidsville.

All the attendants wore long gowns of deep gold featuring lace on the bodice and sleeve cuffs. They wore matching headdresses and slippers and carried nosegays of white Marguerite daisies and yellow roses.

Furman H. Brown of Columbia, S. C. was best man for his son. Ushers were Fagg Nowlan of Pleasant Garden, N. C.; Louie

Continued On Page Two

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Peter Hauser announce the engagement of their daughter, Dianne Katherine, to Stanley Robert Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dion H. Brown. Both families are of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect is a 1970 graduate of Kings Mountain high school and attended Appalachian State University at Boone. She made her debut at the 1970 Debutante Ball in Shelby and is employed in the offices of Kings Mountain Savings & Loan Association.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1969 graduate of Kings Mountain high school and attended Gardner Webb college. He is a senior student at Appalachian State University, majoring in Health and Physical Education.

The wedding will be an event of December 2nd in St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Miss Karen Elizabeth Cansler of Chapel Hill, formerly of Kings Mountain, and Henry Adolphus London, II, of Charlotte pledged marriage vows Thursday in a high noon wedding in Clemmons, N. C. Presbyterian church.

Rev. E. Lamar Beck, pastor of Fayetteville's First Presbyterian church, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Ralph Underwood who prayed the Lord's Prayer as the couple knelt for the benediction.

Mrs. Ray Jenkins was organist for the program of nuptial music. Organ program included

"Claire De Lune," "O Perfect Love," "Ave Marie," "Indian Love Call," "Liebestraum," "Bells of St. Mary's," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The altar of the church was decorated with spiral candelabra and arrangements of white snapdragons, yellow pompons and pink roses.

Anthony Cansler of Charlotte escorted his niece to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of ivory silk organza. The front of the dress and the low, square-cut neckline and short sleeves were trimmed with matching cotton lace re-embroidered with small pallettes. The long, full train, attached to the back of the neckline, was also trimmed in matching lace. Her veil, worn mantilla fashion over soft folds of ivory illusion, was of old pointe de Venice lace. She wore white glove kid gloves and carried a white Testament topped with a cascade of gardenias.

Mrs. Diana Wohlford attended her sister as matron of honor and only attendant. Her floor-length gown of green chiffon was flocked with pink and white floral design. She wore a white wide-brimmed hat with green trim and carried a nosegay of white pompons, baby's breath and pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom's father was best man. After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the newlyweds will be at home in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Samuel W. Thrasher of Winston-Salem, formerly of Kings Mountain, and the late Grady Cansler of Kings Mountain and granddaughter of the late George and Martha Cansler and of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Parrish, all of Kings Mountain. A 1962 graduate of James A. Gray Senior high school of Winston-Salem, she received her bachelor's degree.

Continued On Page Two

MRS. MARVIN STEWART HAMRICK
(Kathy Renae Ware)

Elizabeth Baptist church of Shelby was the setting Sunday for the 3 p. m. wedding of Miss Kathy Renae Ware and Marvin Stewart Hamrick.

The Rev. Charles Summey, pastor of Gastonia's First Baptist church, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Fred Mauney was organist and Mrs. Sidney Tanner was vocalist for the program of traditional music.

Mrs. Tanner sang "My World" and "Walk Hand In Hand" before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" as the benediction.

The altar of the church was arranged with Southern palms and baskets of white mums and glads. Two spiral candelabra and four wrought-iron candelabra held lighted tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown created of silk organza and imported Venice lace over taffeta styled in Victorian silhouette with a high neckline finished with Edwardian collar of lace threaded with velvet ribbon. Bishop sleeves were appliqued with lace florets and finished with deep lace cuffs. The A-line skirt, banded in lace and ribbon, dipped to the back to a Chapel length train. Her Chapel length veil of imported English tulle was caught to a Venice lace Camelot cap and she carried a white prayerbook topped by Frenched carnations

Continued On Page Two

SECTION B THE KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. Thursday, August 24, 1972

Miss Sylvia Diane Coleman and Randy Eugene Strickland, both of Kings Mountain, plan to be married September 8th.

Their engagement is announced by Miss Coleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Coleman of 111 McGinnis street.

A senior student at Kings Mountain high school, the bride-elect is employed by Carolina Throwing Company.

The prospective bridegroom, son of Woodrow W. Strickland of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Boyce D. Neal of Shelby, attended Kings Mountain high school. He is also employed by Carolina Throwing Company.

MISS SYLVIA DIANE COLEMAN
(Bride-Elect of Randy Eugene Strickland)

Auxiliary To Host Party At Oteen On Sunday

Members of Otis D. Green Post 155 Auxiliary will entertain a group of veterans at Oteen hospital Sunday afternoon at a 2 p.m. bingo party.

The unit will serve refreshments and present game prizes. Mrs. Robert Ruff is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Legionnaires of Post 155 at the same time will present a television set to patients at the hospital.

A large group of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members plan to gather at the American Legion building at 11 a.m. Sunday morning to drive to Oteen.

WARE REUNION SUNDAY

The annual James Grimes Ware and Edilia Hamrick Ware reunion will be held Sunday, August 27th, at Masonic Temple at the corner of Landing street and Fairview Road.

Picnic lunch will be spread at 1 p.m. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

PAIR FETED SATURDAY

Miss Kathy Renae Ware and Marvin Stewart Hamrick cut their wedding cake Saturday night at an after-rehearsal party held in the fellowship hall of Elizabeth Baptist church at Shelby. Hosts to 100 guests were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Ware.

Mrs. Jack Ware and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Jr. were at the door to greet guests and Miss Jean Phifer was at the register. Mrs. Dean Costner and Mrs. Bobby Webster cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Paulette Phifer served punch.

The bride's table was overlaid with lace cloth caught up with yellow bows and decorated in the wedding colors of yellow and green. The four-tier cake and punch bowl were at opposite ends of the table. Centering the table was an arrangement of yellow mums and yellow carnations. Heart-shaped sandwiches, cheese daisies

Continued On Page Two

Mary Williams Sandy Mauney Are Honored

Miss Mary Williams of Maryville, Tennessee and George H. (Sandy) Mauney Jr., whose wedding takes place September 2 in Maryville, were honored at two dinner parties recently.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Suber Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finger, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger and Mr. and Mrs. John Cheshire entertained 25 couples at Kings Mountain Country club.

Champagne toasts were made to the bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be.

Dinner was served from U-shaped tables decorated in yellow and white with yellow and white chrysanthemums and greenery as central decoration. The bride-to-be's place was marked by a yellow shoulder corsage.

The hosts took the occasion to present the engaged pair with gifts of silver in their selected pattern.

Miss Williams wore a long dress featuring a yellow skirt and print blouse.

Ken Ferguson honored Miss Williams and Mr. Mauney at a swim party and dinner at his home on Lake Hickory in Hickory. The host and the engaged pair were classmates at Lenoir-Rhyne college.

Guests were their classmates from Lenoir-Rhyne. Mr. Ferguson took the occasion to present his wedding gift to the couple.