

MRS. GERARD JOHN ROCHE
(Susan Carolyn Harper)

MRS. GEORGE ANTHONY RUPPE
(Beverly Louise Hughes)

Church Rites Unite John Roches, Tony Ruppes

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard John Roche, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Mexico and afterwards will be at home at 5015 Highlake Lake Plaza, Charlotte.

Miss Susan Carolyn Harper became Mr. Roche's bride in an 11 a.m. ceremony in Charlotte's Our Lady of Assumption Catholic church with Father Ronald McLaughlin officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom spoke their vows in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride wore a white wool long-sleeved dress and a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed luncheon at Charlotte's Holiday Inn where the bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake. The tables were decorated with yellow, green and white snapdragons and mums.

The bride's table held the three-tier yellow and white wedding cake as highlight of decoration.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson Harper of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A graduate of Macanaquah high school in Bunker Hill, Indiana, she attended Purdue University and graduated with honors from the School of Architecture of the University of Florida with a degree in interior design. She is employed by the architectural firm of Odell Associates of Charlotte.

She is granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Oates Plonk, Sr. of Kings Mountain and of the late Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson Harper of Kings Mountain and Chipley, Florida.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roche of Baltimore, Md. He was graduated from Patterson Park high school in Baltimore, Md. and received his B. S. in marketing from the University of Maryland and was commissioned a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army and served a tour of duty from 1967-69. His tour of duty in Vietnam was culminated by presentation to him of a Bronze Star for meritorious service. He is Marketing Representative for Armstrong Cork Company in Charlotte.

Trott-Blanton
Invitation Issued

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ladshaw Trott have issued wedding invitations to friends to attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Wadsworth Trott and Jerry Zay Blanton.

The ceremony will take place Saturday, November 11th, at 4 p. m. in St. Matthew's Lutheran church. The bride-elect's parents will entertain after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Bride-Elect
Libby Trott
Is Honored

Miss Elizabeth Trott, bride-elect, was honored Saturday at a luncheon held at the home of Mrs. Paul McGinnis on Hawthorne Lane.

Entertaining with Mrs. McGinnis was Mrs. Ben F. Beam.

Covers were laid for 12 guests at tables decorated with fall flowers carrying out the bridal motif of green and white. Miss Trott's place was marked by a white corsage and a gift of china and crystal in her patterns.

Miss Trott wore a red and white party dress.

The wedding of Miss Trott and Jerry Zay Blanton will take place November 11th in St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Antiques Show
Is Slated
In Hendersonville

The 27th Hendersonville semi-annual Antiques Show and Sale will be held in the National Guard Armory, Highway 176, October 26, 27, 28 and 29.

The show opens Thursday evening at 7 o'clock and closes at 10 p. m.—Friday and Saturday 12 noon to 9:30 p. m.—Sunday 1 p. m. to 6 p. m.

Sponsor for this event is the Hendersonville Woman's club. Home-cooked food will be served by the women of the club during the showing of antiques.

Forty dealers from throughout the southeast and midwest will display their rare antiques, all offered to the public for sale. There will be on display: Sterling silver to match any pattern, Cloisonne, China, art glass, cut glass, clocks, coins, dolls, furniture, heirloom jewelry, toys, magazines, books, Orientals, primitives and many objects of art.

Second Baptist church provided the setting Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Beverly Louise Hughes and George Anthony Ruppe.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Eugene Land, minister of the church.

Mrs. Keith Kiser was organist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Evelyn Chambers was vocal soloist. Mrs. Chambers sang "O Perpet Love" before the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Jerrell H. Hughes escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design created of Chantilly lace and posed over a sata peau de soie.

Styled in Victorian silhouette, the dress had a high neckline finished with Edwardian collar with bands of sequins accenting the natural waistline and long fitted sleeves. Her Chapel length mantilla of English tulle was bordered with matching lace and draped on a satin camelot cap with Sequins and lace headpiece. She carried a white Bible topped with yellow rosebuds and an orchid showered with valley lilies.

Mrs. Michael Bookout of Gastonia attended her cousin as matron of honor and Miss Cindy Hughes, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Champion, Miss Susan Bungardner and Miss Sandy Jackson, all of Kings Mountain. Alison Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Champion, was flower girl.

All the attendants wore formal length gowns of shrimp satin peau de soie with empire bodices overlaid with floral chiffon and long, fitted sleeves. They wore floor-length matching headpieces with velvet ribbons and carried colonial bouquets of a variety of autumn colors with matching streamers.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Jerry Ruppe, brother of the bridegroom, ushered with Billy Smith, Gene Alexander and Earl Stroupe, all of Kings Mountain.

Barry Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ross, was ringbearer.

Miss Betty Jo Wheeler kept the bride's book in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

For a trip to Beach Mountain,

Legion Books Palisades, Nightclub Troupe

"The Palisades" of Spartanburg, S. C. will play for an American Legion - sponsored dance Saturday from 9 until 12 p.m. at the American Legion building.

Other dances on tap during October-November will feature The Six O' Clubs on October 28th; the Blue Velvets on November 11th; The Limglighters on November 18th; the Six O' Clubs on November 25th and Jeanne Carroll and her orchestra for a floor show on Monday, November 27th.

Miss Carroll and the Music Men play arrangements of music in the Tommy Dorsey - Sammy Kaye pattern with Tommy Allan, featured artist and musical director on the high trombone and Miss Carroll as soloist for a floor show which has played top billing at a number of clubs throughout the country. Reservations should be made with W. D. Morrison, manager.

Heidi Denise Kiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kiser of Waco, celebrated her first birthday Sunday.

A family birthday party was held at the Kiser home and Heidi's Cinderella doll decorated cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Young Miss Kiser is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kiser of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grigg of Waco. She is great-granddaughter of Mrs. Garman Davis of Kings Mountain.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sanders of 306 Scotland Drive announce the arrival of their second child, a daughter, Amy Elizabeth, Friday, October 6th, Cleveland Memorial hospital, Shelby.

The baby weighed eight pounds, five and one-half ounces and is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gregory of Havana, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanders of Miami Lakes, Florida.

Other member of the Sanders family is two-year-old Joseph.

Beverly Littlejohn, of Kings Mountain, histologist at Cherokee County Memorial hospital in Gattney, S. C., flew to Washington, D. C. to attend the eighth annual symposium of histologic technic held at the Sheraton Inn in Silver Springs, Md. Oct. 3-6.

Six hundred histologists attended the symposium including all the officers of the South Carolina Society of Histologists of which Mrs. Littlejohn is vice president.

The symposium consisted of scientific sessions, workshops and a tour of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology and the Medical Museum in Washington, D. C.

Heather Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Jr. of Charlotte, celebrated her second birthday October 5th.

A Mickey Mouse theme was featured in decorative details. Heather's decorated Mickey Mouse cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Heather is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weir, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Sr., all of Kings Mountain. Heather's mother is the former Marlene Weir of Kings Mountain.

Vickie Ann Moss, a senior at Kings Mountain High School was recently notified that she is to be featured in the Sixth Annual Edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1971-72, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from over 18,000 public, private, and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the book. Less than 1.5% of the junior and senior class students nation-wide awarded this recognition.

Miss Moss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solan Moss of Route 3. In addition to having her biography published in the book, she will also compete for one of ten $1,000.00 scholarship awards funded by the publishers and will be invited to participate in the firm's annual "Survey of High Achievers" later in the academic year.

Miss Moss is active in the FHA, FTA, and Bible Club of Kings Mountain high school. She is a member of Temple Baptist church. She belongs to "The True Spirit Singers."

Eddie Michael Moss, Jr. celebrated his fourth birthday October 4th. He was honored at a kindergarten party at First Baptist church here where party hats were given as favors and refreshments of clown cupcakes were served.

Michael's mother, Mrs. Sandra Moss, entertained on Saturday at their home at 307 West Gold street at a party which featured the cutting of a football player decorated cake.

Children present for party fun and refreshments were Leigh Ann Odell, Christy and Mark Davis, Misty and Shane Shockley, Paige Mauney, Doug Sanders, and Shane Barnes.

Michael is son of Mrs. Sandra Moss and Eddie Michael Moss, Sr. and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Huffstetler and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Huffstetler and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moss.

Daniel Todd Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny C. Parker, celebrates his first birthday today, October 19th.

A family birthday party was held in Todd's honor Saturday night at his home at 703 Princeton Drive. A blue and white clown decorated birthday cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Todd is the sixth grandchild of Commissioner and Mrs. W. S. Biddix and the fifth grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Parker. Todd's mother is the former Wanda Biddix.

Society News

SECTION B THE KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. Thursday, October 19, 1972

Lutheran Women Set Meeting

Saturday, Oct. 21, Ascension Lutheran church will host to the Southwestern District meeting of Lutheran Church Women, N. C. Synod. Thirty-two churches from Asheville to Mt. Holly will send representatives. Mrs. Clyde Brown of Cherryville, district president, will preside. Mrs. Paul Conrad of Statesville, vice-president of the North Carolina LCW unit will bring greetings.

PICTURE PRETTY FOR FALL — Cotton seersucker steps into the fall fashion picture in a mini Mexican wedding dress, left above. Dorissa of Miami garnishes the tomato red dress with colorful touches of braid trim at the waist and cuffs. Fabric by Stanley Looms. Free-wheeling is the style of the scotabout dress, right, in pure cotton knit. A turtle-neck top in spotlight red is paired off with a swinging skirt in a multi-colored patch plaid. In Marcrest Knitting Mills' cotton, it's a Beaux Age design.

Carolyn Wilder Is Honored At Luncheon

Mrs. Paul McGinnis and her daughter, Mrs. Doyle Campbell, entertained together Monday at the McGinnis home on Hawthorne Lane at a 1 o'clock luncheon honoring Miss Carolyn Gray Wilder, bride-elect.

Miss Wilder's wedding to Robert H. Falanga of New Orleans, La. takes place Saturday in Kings Mountain Baptist church.

Fall flowers decorated the McGinnis home. Eight guests were served a three-course luncheon from a table appointed in green and white.

Miss Wilder, who wore a brown and white dress, was given a shoulder corsage of Garza mums and a cup and saucer in her china pattern from the hostesses.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to the many friends and neighbors, for their many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy at the death of our beloved wife, mother and daughter, Mrs. Helen Morrison Willis. The Family of Gary Willis. The Family of Mrs. Robert Morrison.

Mrs. Fryer Heads League Of Voters

The Kings Mountain Women's Voters League, which met last Thursday evening at Mauney Memorial library, decided to "walk before they run" and become a local unit to learn more about better government before affiliating with the prestigious national League of Women Voters. The purpose of the local league will be to study local issues and needs and try to find answers.

On the agenda for the evening was an "Analysis of our Community" given by Mrs. Thomas Burke, after which the meeting was thrown open to discussion on local needs.

Mrs. Milton Fryer was elected President of the group. Mrs. Thomas Burke, vice president and Mrs. W. D. Werner, secretary-treasurer. Monthly meetings will be held on the third Thursday at 7:45 p. m. at Mauney Memorial library. All interested women over 18 are urged to attend and make themselves a part of knowing and helping their community.

Miss Wilder Is Honored At Luncheon

Mrs. D. F. Hord entertained Saturday at her home on Cleveland Avenue, along with Mrs. R. G. Franklin and Mrs. J. C. Bridges, at a 1 p. m. luncheon honoring Miss Carolyn Gray Wilder whose wedding to Robert Henry Falanga will take place Saturday in Kings Mountain Baptist church.

The bride-to-be was presented an orchid corsage which was pinned to her green, blue and orange dress by one of the hostesses.

Upon their arrival the 12 guests were invited into the den for punch.

The bride-elect's wedding colors of green and white were featured. The buffet table in the dining room was spread with a white cloth and arranged with a centerpiece of white snapdragons and white Garza mums accented by ivy.

Miss Wilder was presented a silver sugar spoon in her pattern from the hostesses.