MRS. ROBERT DAVID DODGE (Nancy Denise Roberts)

MRS. GLENN RAY WHITE (Peggy Jorene Graham)

MISS DENISE ADALE ELLIS (Bride-Elect of Michael Ray Ellison)

Newlyweds To Europe; Church Rites Unite Three Couples; Engagements Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Robinson, Jr., who were wed Friday, are on a wedding trip to Europe and afterwards will be at home in Dallas, Texas.

Miss Carol Jean Goter became Mrs. Robinson's bride Friday afternoon in a 4 p.m. contemporary worship service in Resurrection Lutheran church.

The Rev. A. Glenn Boland heard the vows and officiated at Holy Communion with the congregation participating and with the bride and groom.

The congregation joined in the singing of "Now Thank We All Our God" and responses and Mr. Canan sang "Hymn of Praise."

After the reading of Old Testament Lessons, the Chancel choir, under the direction of Donald Deal, sang the Thanksgiving anthem, "Alleluia" and the minister read New Testament selections.

The congregation joined in the singing of "Deck Thyself With Joy and Gladness" after a wedding sermon by Pastor Boland on "Love" from First Corinthians 13.

The bride and bridegroom came to the altar together with their mothers and members of their wedding party to exchange vows in a double-ring ceremony.

After they were wed and the parental blessing was said the bride and groom exchanged the sign of peace (a kiss) with their families and wedding party and returned to their pews for the Liturgy of the Eucharistic Meal.

The choir sang "The Great Thanksgiving" and invited the wedding party and all worshippers to the altar for the serving of the Lord's Supper.

The communion service closed with the congregational praying of the Lord's Prayer. Worshippers joined in the singing of "Come With Us, O Blessed Jesus" before the benediction and recessional of the wedding party.

The bride's wedding gown was an Original of off-white silk faille designed with rolled collar embellished with seed pearl trim.

Miss Nancy Denise Roberts and Robert David Dodge exchanged marriage vows Saturday in a 6 p.m. ceremony held in the couple's new home at 314 Somerset Drive.

The Rev. Charles B. Summey, pastor of Gastonia's First Baptist church, heard the pledges in the presence of their immediate families.

A white wrought-iron arch covered in ivy and banked with pink and white mums formed a background for the setting. The couple knelt on a white kneeling bench for the benediction.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Billy H. Roberts. She wore a traditional floor length wedding gown of all-over Cluny lace designed with basque waist, bishop sleeves and pearl-encrusted high neckline.

A matching Camelot lace headpiece held her bouffant fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a Symphony cascade of pink carnations, Star of Bethlehem and pink star flower.

The altar of the church was arranged with two tree candelabra centered with a lighted arch of cathedral tapers. A large basket of mixed fall flowers in yellow, bronze and gold was at the center of the altar flanked on either side with palms.

Donald R. Graham escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of Chantilly lace posed over faille taffeta and styled with an Edwardian collar of lace scallops.
