Legislators Wives Entertain In Raleigh

Three legisla ive wives living in Raleigh during the current session decided to have a coffee get-to-gether Thursday with other wives of legislators living in the Capital.

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. of Kings Mountain, Mrs. William R. Roberson of Washington and Mrs. Julian Fenner of Rocky Mount enterrained the 55 women at Carolina Country club. Among guests were Mrs. Jim Holshouser, wife of Governor Holshouser; Mrs. J.m Hunt, wife of the N. C. Lieutenant-Governor; Mrs. Carl Slewart of Gastonia, Mrs. David Bummardner of Belmont and Mrs. Jack Hunt of Cleveland County.

Guests may think winter is on its way out after seeing their hostesses all dressed in yellow for the oction and the tables decorated with spring flowers,

The hostesses have been going to Raleigh with their husbands for years and are close friends and often lunch and play bridge. Last spring the trio and their their friendship have their own ideas about where to live in the Capitol. Senator and Mrs. Mauney reside at Landmark Apartments while Rep. and Mrs. Roberson and Rep. and Mrs. Finner prefer the hotel life. The Robersons are at the Velvet Cloak and the Finners at the naearby Hilton.

A party honoring Beth 's keley on her fifth birthday was hold Saturday aftomoon in Knoxville, Tennossee. Fourteen of Beth's friends were invited and party games played with prizes and favors given each child.

Beth cut a decorated birthday cake which was served with refreshments.

Beth is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Berkeley, 111, of Knoxville, Tennessee and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Mauney of Kings Mountain. Beth's mother is the former Kay Mauney of Kings Mountain.
