Pair Feted After Rehearsal

Miss Teresa Camp and Darrell Ladd cut their wedding cake March 31 at an after-rehearsal party given by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Camp, at their home on York road.

The pink and white theme of the wedding was featured in decorative details and refreshments.

A three-tier wedding cake was cut and served with punch and party refreshments. Mrs. John Hunkabee cut and served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Roy Clark and Miss Virginia Bridges, and Miss Debbie Blanton served punch.

Guests were members of the two families and wedding party.

Legion Auxiliary Held Workshop On Girls State

State Girls State Chairman Mrs. Leroy Lakey of Charlotte was guest speaker at Thursday's meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary at the American Legion building.

Mrs. Lakey conducted a workshop session for local delegates Donna Jones and Nancy Hord who will represent Unit 155 at Tar Heel Girls State in June in Greensboro.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and Mrs. Charles Hampton were program chairmen and Mrs. Orangel Jolly, state chairman of field service, introduced the speaker.

Present as visitors, in addition to the Girls State delegates, were their mothers, Mrs. D. F. Hord and Mrs. Don Jones, Mrs. Leroy Hammett and Mrs. Sewell Lockridge were recognized as new members.

The Unit unanimously voted to sponsor a resolution recommending to the state organization an amendment to the auxiliary constitution following examples of the national organization in electing a president of the state organization annually. Mrs. Robert Ruff made the motion which was seconded by Mrs. Paul Mauney.

President Elizabeth Stewart, who presided, announced that the District 23 meetings will be held in Shelby April 29th. Winners of the auxiliary first annual scholarship will be announced at the June meeting. New officers will be elected at the May meeting. Mrs. Cicero Falls, Mrs. Zoe Falls and Mrs. William Christenson were hostesses and served a dessert course at refreshment time.

Mrs. Charles Hampton and Mrs. Betty Allen were sergeant-at-arms for the opening and closing ceremonies.

Mrs. Paul Mauney conducted the devotional, reading the Easter Story.

Bridal Luncheon In Grover For Miss McCarter

Miss Susan McCarter honored her sister, Miss Anne McCarter, bride-elect of Saturday, at a luncheon Wednesday at her home in Grover.

The 35 guests were members of the wedding party.

The wedding colors of ivory, yellow and green featured decorative details. Over-laid with cut-work cloth, the bride's table held a teardrop crystal gold-footed vase of Dutch iris, azaleas, and baby's breath.

Smaller tables held bud vases of lily of the valley.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé, Robert Gaudin, took the occasion to present gift to their attendants.

The hostess presented the engaged pair a place setting in their pattern of china.

Miss McCarter wore a navy and white pantsuit and a Dutch iris corsage, gift of the hostesses.

Guests from out-of-Grover included Mrs. R. H. Gaudin, Robert Carter, Mrs. Nanny Dickerson, Miss Melma Slidie, Mr. and Mrs. James Hundley, all of Ruffin; Mrs. Dolores Rogers of Weidsville; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Nail and Mrs. Billie D. Neal and Margo, all of Shelby.

Garland Jones' Rites Conducted
