VA Questions And Answers

Q.—How does the freeze affect the health industry?

A.—The health industry is subject to all aspects of the freeze like any other industry. No price may be increased during the freeze period. This includes cost reimbursement contracts.

Q.—Are cost reimbursements paid during the freeze period for services rendered prior to the freeze subject to the freeze?

A.—No. Such prices are governed by the regulations in effect when the services were rendered.

Q.—Are third party cost reimbursement contract adjustments for a completed year subject to the freeze?

A.—If all of the cost increases included in the cost report for the completed fiscal year were incurred prior to the freeze, the adjustments are not subject to freeze. Cost increases incurred during the freeze are not reimbursable.

Q.—Are interim rates paid under a cost reimbursement contract subject to the freeze?

A.—Yes.

Q.—May an interim rate be increased during the freeze?

A.—No.

Q.—If a price was increased after June 8, must it be rolled back?

A.—Yes. Will the new Form S-52 (Revised July 1973) still become effective on July 1, 1973?

A.—Phase III regulations remain in effect in addition to the freeze. Therefore, the new Form S-52 (Revised July 1973) should be used for planning purposes. No prices may be increased during the freeze. Price increases subsequent to the freeze will be governed by Phase IV regulations.

Q.—Are institutional and non-institutional health providers subject to the general posting and freeze price information requirements?

A.—Yes. Records of fees and charges prevailing during the freeze base period must be maintained and information on freeze prices provided to the public within 48 hours of a request. A sign must also be posted announcing the availability of freeze information.

Q.—Can the Social Security administration increase the reasonable charge screens under Part B of the Medicare program during the freeze?

A.—No. The reasonable charge screen is in effect during the freeze base period represent the maximum price that may be charged to the Medicare program by a participating physician.

Q.—Can the Social Security Administration increase the premium charge for Supplementary Medical Insurance coverage under Medicare during the freeze?

A.—No. The premiums represent a price charged by the Federal government and is frozen at the level in effect June 1 - 8.
