

Mountaineers Host Lincolnton Friday Night

HERALD SPORTS

By TONY TOMPKINS

The world of college football has suddenly hit the world of sports and this is the time of the season to see what some men can do for an encore.

For the past six years, there has been an amazing story up in Chapel Hill, and it all centers around a fellow from Alabama. His name is Bill Dooley. He is often called a "trench fighter", but if you've met him, you would think that he had been named wrong. Bill Dooley is a true gentleman in every sense of the word. He is the quiet type, who has nothing but fine words for his opponents. But, let us take a look at what he has accomplished since he took over as head coach at North Carolina.

There has been two Atlantic Coast Conference football championships in succession.

There has been fifteen straight Atlantic Coast Conference victories.

He has an improved record for each of the past five seasons.

He has guided his teams to three consecutive bowl trips.

He has twenty-eight wins in the last 34 regular season games.

Last year, he guided his team to a 32 to 28 victory over Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl.

The dynamic Dooley has pulled off a rare feat in his six seasons at North Carolina. He has improved the Tar Heel record each year he has been on the scene and it is believed that no other coach in history has ever did that.

Caught with mediocre material at the start, the Tar Heels went 2-8 under Dooley in 1967. It was 3-7 in 1968, 5-5 in 1969, 8-3 in 1970, 9-2 in 1971 and 11-1 in 1972. What can he do for an encore? Well, he could go 12-0 but you will never get Bill Dooley to admit to anything like that.

The last time a Tar Heel team lost a conference game was in the middle of the 1970 season, when Wake Forest upset the Tar Heels 14 to 13. Dooley has now carried the Heels to three straight bowl games; the Peach Bowl in 1970, the Gator Bowl in 1971 and last year to the Sun Bowl. No other Carolina coach has ever done that.

He is a different kind of coach as he doesn't wear a tie and coat, but instead, goes to the game in his work clothes. He even jogs on and off the field with his team. It seems as if he is just one of the boys.

He has made a tremendous hit with the Tar Heel fans and he believes in running a tight ship. He believes that you have to have discipline in anything that you undertake if you plan to be successful. Make no mistake about one thing — Bill Dooley is a fierce competitor on and off the football field, but he also is a true gentleman.

I happened to look at my last week's predictions and I came out better than I thought I would. I hit on nine out of twelve for a .750 percentage. Well, I have decided to try my luck once more, so here goes.

CREST OVER CHASE: The Chargers will down the Trojans without too much trouble.

SOUTH POINT OVER EAST GASTON: No contest, as the Red Raiders roll on.

CHERRYVILLE OVER EAST RUTHERFORD: This one could go either way, but Tommy Summer could be the answer. The Ironmen in a close one.

SHELBY OVER BURNS: The Golden Lions will be mad this week.

NORTH GASTON OVER R.S. CENTRAL: North Gaston is going to beat somebody bad before long, and I think that this is the one.

KINGS MOUNTAIN OVER LINCOLNTON: I believe in the Mounties, so let's show the home folks a big win.

N. C. STATE OVER VIRGINIA: The Wolfpack will have more trouble this week, because the Cavaliers will come to play.

WEST VIRGINIA OVER MARYLAND: West Virginia hasn't forgot the Peach Bowl and Maryland is an ACC team.

TENNESSEE OVER DUKE: The Blue Devils are no match for the Volunteers of Tennessee.

FLORIDA STATE OVER WAKE FOREST: Wake Forest just isn't quite ready for this aerial circus yet.

NORTH CAROLINA OVER WILLIAM & MARY: V&M and company should get by this one, but William & Mary is no pushover anymore.

PENN STATE OVER STANFORD: This one is on TV, but I'll still take the Nittany Lions.

Speaking of interesting football games that will appear on the television tube this season, don't forget to set aside the date of October sixth. ABC will televise the North Carolina State and North Carolina game, which is already sold out. Last year, UNC won by a single point, and I doubt if it will be a much wider margin than that this year. It should be a very interesting afternoon up in Raleigh.

City Tournament Starts Thursday; Four Teams Open Play at 6:30

Four teams are entered in the due to the football game. On City tournament starting tonight Saturday at 5 p. m., the winner at the Community Center. They of game one meets the winner of are First Wesleyan. Second game two. At 6 p. m., the loser of game one meets the winner of game two. At 7 p. m., the winner of game two meets the winner of game one. At 8 p. m., the winner of game three meets the winner of game two. At 9 p. m., the winner of game four meets the winner of game three. If another game is necessary, it will be played at 8 o'clock. Friday night will be skipped.

Guard David Bell Is Tapped Outstanding Player Of Week

An outstanding performance by Kings Mountain guard David Bell has earned him the honor as Player of the Week, by Fulton's department store. The 168 pound Bell, who broke through and blocked a North Gaston punt, which enabled fullback Carl Roseboro to score an insurance touchdown in the third period, helped paved the way for the Mounties' 13 to 0 win. In addition to the blocked punt, Bell played an outstanding game on defense and was constantly in the North Gaston backfield, stopping enemy runners throughout the night. Fulton's will present a gift to Bell and the department store will continue to honor an outstanding player each week during the football season.

Mountaineers Seek Victory Two Of New Season

The Kings Mountain Mountaineers will open their 1973 home schedule against the Lincolnton high Wolves of Coach Van Ray Harris at John Gamble stadium on Friday night at 8 o'clock.

The Wolves will be looking to improve on their 3-7 mark of last season, but inexperience and lack of depth could be a menace to the usually tough Wolves. They lost their opener last Friday night to South Point by the score of 35 to 0.

Harris will have 14 of last year's promising juniors returning and is hoping that these returnees can provide the necessary leadership to mold a winning team. Gone are backs Bill Murphy and Fred Dymple, but sprinter Larry Easter is among the returnees. Other returnees are David Eaker, Doug Norwood, Boyce Briggs, Tim Stamey, Randy Parker and junior Scott Cloninger.

With the loss of some key personnel from last year's team, the Wolves' younger must come through in order for them to have a chance to improve on the 1972 record. However, those returning players could provide enough experience to help the Wolves spring a few surprises around the league.

Coach Bobby Jones expects a real tough game from the Wolves and he has plenty of respect for this team.

Coach Jones feels that if his Mountaineers can stop some of their mistakes and can give a good offensive and defensive performance on the field, he could spring a few surprises around the league. The Mounties also have a depth problem, so we look for an exciting game on the field.

If the Mountaineers continue to improve each week, they have an excellent chance of improving the record of last year's club. The outstanding play of the defensive unit, which has yet to be scored on, has been a bright spot for the Mountaineers so far this season.

The offense seems to be picking up and the layers seem to be jelling as a unit. This is a good sign for the Mounties. The offensive team has been able to move the ball in both games, and pretty soon, the breaks will come their way.

The new-look offense has Austin at quarterback, Falls and Van Dyke at halfbacks and Roseboro at fullback. Coach Jones uses Southwell and McDevitt as alternates in his backfield.

After the Lincolnton game, Kings Mountain will take a week off before meeting Burns at Burns and then will be home to East Rutherford.

New Look Pays Off For Jones Boys

The Kings Mountain Mountaineers of Coach Bobby Jones, came out Friday night at North Gaston sporting a brand new look offense, and it paid off in a thrilling 13 to 0 win.

The Mounties were led by junior quarterback Chuck Austin, who had previously handled only one starting assignment prior to the North Gaston game. The previous assignment was against Lincolnton in the season ending game last year.

In the first quarter, with the ball on the five yard line, Austin took the handoff and rolled out to his right, faking a pitchout to his halfback, then pulled up and fired a touchdown pass to halfback Darrell Van Dyke.

This lead held up until the third quarter. With the ball on their own 42 yard line, North Gaston dropped back on fourth down to punt. Guard David Bell of KGM broke through to block Steve Neely, outrushed the kick and fullback Carl Roseboro picked up the loose pigskin and rambled into the end zone for the final touchdown. Roseboro, who had earlier kicked the conversion, missed on his second try of the night.

Once again, the Mountaineers defensive team played a bang up game. David Bell, Mike Ship, Larry Hamrick and Dennis Hogue were outstanding on defense and they had able help from the rest of the Mountaineers.

Coach Jones commented that, even the Mounties still made some mistakes, he was well pleased with their performance. He said that they had made some definite progress since their opening game at Bessemer City.

The Mountaineers lost only one fumble and were penalized only 20 yards as compared to four fumbles lost and 95 yards penalized last week in Bessemer City.

In the rushing department, North Gaston, largely on the running of Carlton Gingles and Steve Neely, outrushed the Mounties 185 yards to 172 yards. North Gaston had no passing yardage, while KM gained 41 yards through the air to give them a final tally of 213 yards to 185 for North Gaston.

In the individual department, Chuck Austin hit on 4 of 8 passes for 41 yards. Darrell Van Dyke, a 145 pound senior, who gained 97 yards in 16 carries last week, added 68 yards in 14 carries to give him a total of 165 yards in 30 carries for an average of 5.5 yards per carry for the season.

The Mountaineers had four other scoring threats, driving to the North Gaston 13 yards line in the first period; driving to the North Gaston 9 yard line where Roseboro missed a field goal in the second period; driving down to the North Gaston 30 yards line in the third period and finally in the fourth period, driving to the North Gaston 29 yards line before giving up the football.

North Gaston drove to the Mounties.

Kings Mountain one yard line in the fourth quarter before giving up the football. Austin then drove the Mountaineers out to the KM 17 yard line as the game ended.

The victory gave Coach Jones' lads a 1-0 conference mark and a 1-1 season mark heading into tomorrow night's conference scrap against Lincolnton in John Gamble stadium. It will be the first home game for the Mounties.

CARL ROSEBORO — Picked up blocked punt by David Bell and carried it in for Mounties second touchdown.

Roark, Spencer, Beason Win Money In Second Week Of Grid Contest

Wayne Roark won the third grid contest sponsored by the Herald by picking 12 winners out of 12 games. He was also very close to the tie breaker score (24 points) by guessing 30 points.

Wayne is not new in the winning of the grid contests, as he enters the contest regularly and gives a good account of himself.

He will receive a check for $15 as the first place winner.

Ed Spencer of R-4 Cove Creek Drive, Gastonia, who won the third place money last week, moved up a notch to capture second place this time around. Ed will receive the $10 second prize.

Ronnie Beason, of 6450 Margrace Road, won third place and will receive a $5 check for his fine efforts.

All three missed the Avery County-Spruce Pine game. Spencer also missed the Burns - R. S. Central game while Beason missed the Shelby-Hunter Huss and North Iredell - Alexander Central game.

Another contest is in this week's Herald, so you still have an opportunity to join this week's three money winners. Just fill out your ballots and return them to the Herald by Friday noon.

You could very easily be the next winner.

Last Friday's contest scores appear on this page today.

Keep in mind that you can enter only once. Entries for next week's games should be in this office by noon on Friday.
