

MRS. JOSEPH WINSTON TIMBERLAKE, III (Katherine Lash Jordan)

Local Women On Tour; Golfer Takes Honor

Three Kings Mountain women joined the Houser Tours of Cherryville for a scenic trip to Nashville, Tennessee during the weekend.

Making the trip were Mrs. Bernice Kirby, Mrs. Wilma Kirby and Mrs. Faye Bridges, all of Kings Mountain. The group enjoyed sight-seeing and reported fall foliage "at its peak" and visited the Grand Ole Opry and Opry Land in Nashville.

Mrs. Lester Houser was tour director.

ABOUT THIS N THAT

Mrs. W. W. McCarter of Grover will be instructor for a cake-decorating class beginning November 13th at the Kings Mountain Community Center.

Classes will be held from 6 until 9:30 p.m. and registration fee of $2 should be paid on the opening night. The City Recreation Department and Cleveland Technical Institute are co-sponsors.

Mrs. Charles F. Mauney shot a 79 as top scorer in the recent Gaston Country club Guest Day on the Greens of the Gaston Country club.

Mrs. Mauney is active in the Women's Golf Association of Kings Mountain and in the Foothills League of Women Golfers.

Mrs. Mauney, the former Lynn Wagner, is wife of Charles F. Mauney, general manager of Mauney Textile Interests.

Four Kings Mountain Legionnaires representing Post 155 and two Kings Mountain Auxiliary members were among the large crowd attending the Fall Conference of the American Legion and Auxiliary in Raleigh during the weekend.

Representing Post 155 were Bob Davies, Carl Wilson Gene Tignor and Joe H. McDaniel, Jr. Representing Post 155 Auxiliary were Unit Vice President Ruth Gamble and District 23 President Elizabeth Stewart.

Mrs. Gamble and Miss Stewart were luncheon guests Sunday in Durham of Mrs. Gamble's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blanton, Lori and Timmy. Also visiting the Blantons were Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hawkins, of Kings Mountain, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Gamble.

The Kings Mountain Unit won an engraved plaque as the first unit in the state, among 232, to attain its 1973-74 membership goal.

Beth Hughes, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes of the Dixon community, is among 73 Wingate College students initiated into Phi Beta Lambda, a national organization of college students majoring in business oriented studies.

The Wingate PBL chapter, according to Prof. Geraldine Michael, faculty sponsor, is one of the largest and most active in the state. Two chapter members are also state PBL officers: Jackie Garrison, of Charlotte, is state PBL secretary and vice-president of the Wingate college chapter. Pam Black, also of Charlotte, is North Carolina state parliamentarian. Other officers are Eddie Gamble of Monroe, president; Janet VonCannon, Wadesboro, corresponding secretary; Myra Joyce Bridges, from Cordova, N. C. is chairman; Claudine Ridenhour, historian, from Richfield, N. C., and Kathy Humphrey, of Jacksonville, N. C. is chapter reporter.

St. Paul's Episcopal church of Petersburg, Virginia was the setting for the wedding Saturday at 11:30 a. m. of Miss Katherine Lash Jordan and Joseph Winston Timberlake, III.

The bridegroom is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Caveny of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Neisler of Lake Waccamaw and son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Timberlake Jr. of Greenville, N. C. The bridegroom's mother is the former Miss Betty Lee Neisler of Kings Mountain.

The Rev. John Cameron Grainger, rector of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory satin peau with an empire bodice and Chapel train. Her veil was a full-length mantilla of tulle edged with scalloped Alencon lace.

Miss Sally Yates Wood of Richmond, Va., was maid of honor and Miss Rilyn Timberlake of Greenville, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

The two attendants wore long gowns of green Shantique and brocade and carried baskets of fall flowers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackwell Jordan, in Petersburg, Va.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Junior college of Raleigh and West Hampton college of Richmond.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Randolph Macon college where he was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The newlyweds will be at home in Richmond, Virginia.

GOOD FIT

A proper fitted shoe is half an inch longer than the foot, allowing room for toe movement. It should fit snugly at heel and instep. Uppers should be of supple leather or fabric, adds Dorothy Barrier, extension clothing specialist, North Carolina State University.

Vickie Sims Has Birthday

Vickie Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Sims, celebrated her seventh birthday Friday and was honored at a party Saturday afternoon by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sims, at their home on Gantt St.

Twelve children were present for party fun and refreshments. Vickie's pink, blue and white birthday cake was topped with flowers and butterflies and was cut and served with refreshments.

Vickie is also granddaughter of Mrs. Virginia Gates of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Vickie is a first grader at North school.

Children present for the party were Sandra Falls, Pam Blanton, Leann Gann, Yona Childers, Lou Ann Black, Cindy Black, Tammy Cooke, Pammy Bridges, Monte Bridges, Eddie Stewart, Johnny Stewart and Vincent Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dorse Whiteside were honored on their Golden Wedding Day Sunday at an anniversary party given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Whiteside, in the fellowship hall of Resurrection Lutheran church.

Assisting the hosts in entertaining was their son and the honored pair's only grandson, Alan Whiteside.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoyle L. Whiteside of Statesville, former resident, greeted arriving callers. Rev. Mr. Whiteside is nephew of the honored couple.

The guests and guests-of-honor received several hundred friends during the reception hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Whiteside wore a light orchid dress and a yellow rosebud shoulder corsage.

Displayed on the gift table were numerous cards of congratulations including those from President Richard Nixon, N. C. Governor James Holshouser and U. S. Senator Strom Thurmond.

Nieces and nephews of the honored pair assisted in receiving and entertaining.

Mrs. Donnie M. Carthage of Pineville invited guests to register and Mrs. Dan Weaver of Gastonia and Mr. and Mrs. James Haynes of Greer, S. C. cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Donald Jenkins of Lincolnton and Mrs. Carol Dills of Gastonia were at the punch service. Mrs. Charles Bell of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Ruth Weaver of Gastonia presided at the gift table and good'ies were said to Mr. and Mrs. Berry Cauble Jr., of Gastonia.

The golden motif was beautifully decorative details and refreshments. The refreshment table, highlight of decoration, was topped with wedding bells and a bridal figurine and cut and served from one end of the table.

Gold punch was served from a lunch service at the opposite end of the table. Silver appointments held an assortment of party pick-ups. A statuette of greenery and flowers decorated the gift table, also overlaid with lace and gold.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM DORSE WHITESIDE note Golden Wedding Day

Both Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside are long time Kings Mountain residents and Mr. Whiteside is a retired employee of Mauney Hosiery Mills. Mrs. Whiteside is the former Miss Alma Haynes of Lincolnton and Kings Mountain. The couple reside at 904 Boyce street and are active in Resurrection Lutheran church.

Miss Linda Sue Fortenberry and Edward John Wright pledged their marriage vows in a 3 p. m. wedding Sunday in Grover's Allen Memorial Baptist church.

The Rev. George Tidwell was the officiating minister, and musical music was provided by Miss Joy Dellinger, pianist, and Mrs. W. C. Dellinger, vocalist.

George Fortenberry gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a street-length dress of embroidered satin fashioned with a high ruffled neckline and sheer, embroidered sleeves ending in ruffled cuffs. Her bouffant waist-length veil was caught to a white bow. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Mrs. Lawrence Simpson of Grover was her twin sister's matron of honor. The bridegroom's sisters, Miss Judy Wright and Miss Jo Ann Wright, both of Kings Mountain, were bridesmaids.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father, Ronnie Anderson and Coleman Anderson of Grover served as ushers.

A 1974 graduate of Kings Mountain high school, the bride is employed by Wix Corporation of Gastonia.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman E. Wright of Kings Mountain, attended Bethwa re high school and is employed by Minette Mills of Grover.

When they return from a trip to the North Carolina mountains the newlyweds will occupy their new home on route two.

HIGH HEELS In Paris and London, the new look in clothes is romantic, soft and draped, with muted colors.

Exaggerated platforms and heels look wrong. So shoe shapes are changing, notes Harriet Tutten, extension clothing specialist, North Carolina State University. Slimmer-toed, slimmer-soled, high-heeled shoes have returned, in pumps and slim strapped styles.

PLANTING BULBS

Planting bulbs this fall? If so, here's a tip from North Carolina State extension specialists that may help: In loost, sandy soil, plant bulbs three to four inches deeper than the depths recommended for heavier soils. Plant them to recommended distance apart to allow room to develop new offshoots.
