

Home Nuptials Unite Hollands

MRS. ROBERT MARION HOLLAND
(Victoria Elizabeth Cline)

Miss Deborah Timms, Armour Milner, Jr. Give Plans For Their Thursday Nuptials

Miss Deborah Wright Timms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Joseph Timms, has announced plans for her marriage to Armour Kyle Milner, Jr., of Gaffney, S. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Armour Kyle Milner, Sr. of Spartanburg, S. C.

The wedding will take place Thursday, Dec. 27th, at 7:30 p.m. in the evening in Central United Methodist church. The Rev. D. E. Alderman, former minister of the church, and Rev. Paschal H. Waugh will officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Eugene Joseph Timms will give his daughter in marriage. Best man for the bridegroom-to-be will be his father.

Mrs. J. N. McClure will be organist for the program of nuptial music and B. S. Peeler will be vocalist.

Miss Sharon Harris Timms will attend her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids will include Miss Tara Timms, sister of the bride-elect; Mrs. David Dunbar of Spartanburg, S. C., sister of the bridegroom-to-be; Miss Ann Young of Williamston, S. C., Miss Sally Strom of Spartanburg, S. C. and Miss Jane Nesbitt of Spartanburg, S. C., all college classmates of the bride-elect. Wendy Smith of Kings Mountain will be flower girl.

Benjamin Bryson of Gaffney, S. C. will be acolyte.

Groomsmen will include Alan Timms of Summerville, S. C., cousin of the bride-elect; Jim Hastings of Columbia, S. C., Rusty Milner of Spartanburg, S. C., brother of the bridegroom-to-be; P. T. McKoren of Gaffney, S. C. and George Young of McCormick, S. C.

The bride-elect's parents will entertain after the ceremony at a reception at their home on Downing Drive.

Since the announcement of their engagement Miss Timms and Mr. Milner have been honored at numerous parties and others are scheduled prior to the wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Milner, Sr., parents of the bridegroom-to-be, will host the rehearsal dinner on Wednesday evening at Kings Mountain Country club. Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Robert Holland, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco and afterwards will be at home at 309 Goad street.

Victoria Elizabeth Cline became Mr. Holland's bride in a high noon private ceremony Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buford D. Cline, on route one, Shelby.

Rev. J. Oscar Dowdle, pastor of Central United Methodist church on Albemarle road in Charlotte, officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Using the double ring ceremony the couple pledged their vows before an altar which was improvised using a sunburst arrangement as a focal point of cathedral arrangement of red white gladiolus and snapdragons with red carnations flanked by a cathedral arrangement of red candles in floor standards festooned with balsam swags and red velvet bows. After the ceremony the couple and immediate family cut their wedding cake.

The bride entered the ceremony room unattended. She wore a formal candlelight gown of satapeau and red-embroidered lace fashioned with empire bodice, high neckline and rousance sleeves. The bodice was enhanced by pearls and red-embroidered metallics and the full, circular skirt was edged with tined ruffles and satapeau and red-embroidered lace. She carried a cascade of cymbidium orchids and red garter roses caught with off-white velvet streamers. Her headpiece was of white cymbidium orchids held by off-white narrow velvet ribbon.

Lynda Herndon Sparrow, the bride's only attendant, wore a long-sleeved formal Christmas red dress designed along empire lines with scoop neckline. She wore at her shoulder a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's father was entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception from 2 until 4 p. m. at Kings Mountain Country club.

The foyer of the club was decorated with a spiral arrangement of Christmas greenery and votive lights effectively placed before a mirror. Dr. and Mrs. V. O. Cline Jr. of Rutherfordton, aunt and uncle of the bride, greeted guests and introduced them to the bride's parents, who headed the receiving line, and to the bridegroom and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max K. Holland of Dallas.

The refreshment table was covered with a floor-length champagne peat de sole cloth overlaid with lace and caught with stephanotis and satin ribbons at intervals along the length of the tables and at the corners, giving a garland effect. The center of the table held a large silver chandelier with lighted white tapers and a stylized arrangement of red and white carnations, stephanotis, red berries, gypsophyllia and Christmas greenery sheathed with satin ribbons tied in lover's knots.

Lime sherbet punch was served from a silver punch service by Mrs. Joe Broughton of Rutherfordton, sister of the bride. At the opposite end of the table was a handsome silver chafing dish which held creamed seafood and which was served by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Raye Cline, also of Rutherfordton. Other silver appointments held assorted sandwiches, ham biscuits, cheese straws, nuts and petit-fours.

A round table, covered in matching cloths from which champagne was served, was centered with a silver urn surrounded by a garland of greenery interspersed with red and white carnations and stephanotis.

Near the register was a tall hurricane lamp holding a lighted white taper. This was encircled with greenery, red berries, red and white flowers and clusters of stephanotis. Lynda Herndon Sparrow presided at the register and said goodbyes to the guests.

Music was provided by Allen Putnam at the piano. Mr. Putnam is minister of music at Hillcrest Baptist church in Greensboro.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. William R. Rhyne, Jr. of Gastonia, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Karla Cline of Rutherfordton, cousin of the bride; Miss Nancy Borders of Shelby, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Dorothy Ramey of Shelby, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Bobby Hubbard of Lawndale, cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borders of Shelby, aunt and uncle of the bride; and Mrs. Walter Lackey of Fallston.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy and white two-piece suit and lifted the orchid from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cline of Shelby are parents of the bride who is a 1964 graduate of Burns at Fallston high school and attended Gardner Webb college for training in data processing. She is secretary to State Senator W. K. Mauney, Jr. at Mauney Hosiery Mills in Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max K. Holland of

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, Dec. 31:
7:00 - 12 p.m.—Dinner-dance at Kings Mountain Country club for members and wives.
9:00-12 p.m.—New Year's Eve Dance at the American Legion building for Legionnaires, their wives and guests.

Tuesday, Jan. 1:
7:30—Circle 4 of First Presbyterian church in the Ladies Bible class room. Hostess, Mrs. Zoe Falls.

Wednesday, Jan. 2:
10 a. m.—Circle 3 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. J. H. Bowman, 108 East Ridge street.

Two Clubs Schedule New Year's Eve Parties

Kings Mountain area citizens will greet New Year 1974 at semi-private and club parties on Monday evening, December 31.

At least two clubs in the city plan get-togethers for members and their wives.

Otis D. Green Post 155 will hold its traditional New Year's Eve from 9 until 12 p.m. with The Blue Velvets to play for dancing.

Kings Mountain Country club will hold a dinner-dance beginning at 7 p.m. New Years Eve. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Grady Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden and Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Goforth.

INFANT CHRISTENED

Chadwick Jason Brown, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey J. Brown of Greenville, S. C. and grandson of Mrs. Milton Fryer and the late Mr. Fryer, was christened at Sunday morning worship service at First Presbyterian church.

CAROLING GROUP

Members of the Dixon Community 4-H club held a caroling party on Friday evening, visiting shut-ins to sing Christmas carols and present gifts of Christmas stockings.

Yule Parties Are Continuing In Kings Mountain

Christmas parties are being held in the area.

Among them: Young Swingers, college students, will hold a Christmas party Saturday evening.

Legionnaires and their wives will have a Christmas party Saturday evening.

Kings Mountain Cotillion club members gathered for a festive party and dance December 15th, meeting for a social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomason and dancing to the music of the Blue Velvets at the Country club. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neisler Jr. were co-hosts with the Thomasons.

Other Country club activities included a party for the young set on Thursday afternoon. Another "Holiday Hope" is a scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 27th, from 8 to 11 p. m. and dancing will be to records.

Sixteen members of the choir of Dixon Presbyterian church held a Christmas party on Thursday evening. Members were treated to hamburgers with accessories by Choir Director Glenn Roundtree and exchanged Christmas presents. The group took the occasion to present Mr. Roundtree an engraved plaque.

Society News

SECTION B THE KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C.

Monday, December 24, 1973

TOFFEE BARS
By Mrs. Bob Davies
1 cup soft margarine
1 cup light brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
1 (6 oz.) package chocolate bits
1 cup chopped pecans
Cream butter, sugar, vanilla. Add flour, bits and nuts. Press stiff matter into ungreased jelly roll pan with spatula. Cook at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Cut into bars while warm. Makes 64.

COCONUT DATE COOKIES
1 stick butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 well-beaten egg
1 cup chopped dates
spoon vanilla, 1 cup chopped pecans and two cups rice krispies. Stir thoroughly. Let cool; roll in finger shape and roll in coconut. Cook above ingredients on low heat stirring constantly for four to five minutes. Add one tea-

TARHEEL KITCHEN

There are many reasons why the boiler-fryer has become a popular food item of the American public. Not only is chicken inexpensive and low in calories, but it is also quite versatile and tasty. It can be broiled, roasted, barbecued, simmered, and fried. It can be cooked in many ways to chicken versatility, it appears at just about any occasion, from the budget family meal to the most elegant formal dinner party. When chicken really puts on party accessories, such as classic sauce, mushrooms and other garnishes, the home-maker can serve dishes fit for a king. No matter what the occasion—holiday season, Sunday dinner, or any other time—chicken is a welcome guest at any home.

To help you begin the New Year off right, the North Carolina Poultry Federation is happy to share with you some "favorite" chicken recipes of some outstanding First Ladies throughout the United States. These are delicious, elegant dishes, one that your family will enjoy many times during the year. So do your family a favor—try any of these nutritional, tasty, chicken recipes. You'll be glad you did!

Mrs. James E. Holshouser Jr., wife of the Governor of North Carolina:
4 chicken breasts
2 tbs. snipped parsley
1 teaspoon rosemary
1 stick butter
Salt
1 egg
1-2 cup dry bread crumbs
All purpose flour
Have four large chicken breasts boned and halved. Place chicken breasts boned side up between two pieces of clear plastic wrap. Pound from center out to form cutlets not quite 1-4 inch thick. Peel off the wrap, season with salt.

Sprinkle parsley and rosemary over cutlets. Chill the butter. Cut the stick of butter into eight sticks. Place a stick at end of each cutlet. Roll as for jelly roll with flour and dip in beaten egg (beaten with 1 T water). Then roll in fine bread crumbs.

RED HOLLY BERRIES

A legend relates that on the first Christmas night, when the shepherds went to the manger, a little lamb following them was caught by the holly thorns, and the red berries are the drops of its blood that froze on the branches.

SERMON TOPIC

Rev. M. C. Bush will use the sermon topic, "Provisions" at Sunday morning worship hour at 11 o'clock at Grace United Methodist church.

Greetings with the Spirit of Christmas

Peace and love... hope and joy... goodwill among men and nations... these heartfelt wishes we share with you this happy holiday season. We hope your Christmas is a truly beautiful one.

Superior Stone Company

Christmas Joy!

Everyone! Join in the spirit of a very Happy Holiday with friends, family. For the pleasure of serving you, our heartfelt gratitude.

Western Auto Asso.