

Stone,
Falls Vows
Exchanged

William Floyd Stone, Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was an Original design created of satin organza and imported Venise lace posed over fallie taffeta. The empire lace bodice was fashioned with a yoke of English net outlined with lace scoops and topped with a scalloped lace Edwardian collar. Lace scoops circled the raised waistline. Long, fitted sleeves had lace points at the wrists. The A line skirt was finished with a wide hemline border of peau de sole banded with lace which extended around the Chapel length train. Her Chapel length veil of English tulle was caught to a matching Venise lace Camelot cap and she carried a cascade of yellow and white roses with baby's breath.

Miss Martha Stone of Gastonia was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Bill Stone of Kings Mountain, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alta Chester of Salisbury, Miss Teresa Deal of Marion, Mrs. Jeffrey Lyman of Decatur Ga., sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jon Eaker of Cullowhee, Mrs. Mike McDaniel of Kings Mountain and Miss Malissa Wilson of Greenville, S. C.

All the attendants wore floor length dresses of mint green voile printed with sprays of tiny yellow flowers and styled with a scoop neckline outlined with a wide ruffle collar. The waistlines were accented with a bias insert and a sash that tied to a bow at the back with streamers. The gowns were enhanced by softly gathered column skirts. They carried arrangements of football mums with greenery and baby's breath.

Participating in the wedding as honorary attendants were Mrs. Giles Beal of Lexington, Miss Sylvia Morris of Gastonia, Miss Kathy Turner of Gastonia, Miss Toni Mayfield of Hickory and Miss Sara Lynn DeBruler of Kings Mountain.

Otis C. Falls, Jr. was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Falls of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom; Jeffrey Lyman of Decatur, Ga., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Bill Stone of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride; Larry Deal of China Grove; David LeGrand of Shelby; Bill Hawkins of Rutherfordton; and Jon Eaker of Cullowhee.

Carla Ramsey of Kings Mountain was flower girl. Larry Stone, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the Church Fellowship Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Menzell Phifer greeted guests and assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Bob Ware, Miss Paulette Phifer, Mrs. Mamie Bell, Mrs. Mike Ware, Mrs. Buford Ware and Mrs. Jack Ware.

The bride's table highlight of decoration, was overlaid with lace cloth and arranged with a candelabrum of candles and summer flowers. Punch was served from a silver service at one end of the table. The bride's cake centered a round table and was cut and served with punch and party refreshments.

For traveling the bride chose a brown and tan two-piece ensemble with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.
