Lloyd, Reynolds Speak To COPE

By SAM TESENIAR
COPE Correspondent

At July 20 meeting of COPE guest speaker was Chief of Police Earl Lloyd and Sgt. Richard Reynolds. Invocation was by Rev. Frank Shirley, pastor of Temple Baptist Church.

Chief Lloyd talked to members about when on patrol what to watch for and how to report. Chief Lloyd pointed out that all citizens are on patrol even while out riding in their cars. "But the hard fact," said the Chief, "is that citizens wouldn't know if a crime was going on or not because they don't notice what is going on in their cars." "If you see something and don't want to report it on the CB, get to a phone and call the Police Department and your name will be kept out of it." Sometimes, it's better to call in by phone rather than use a CB Radio.

Chief Lloyd told members about the low major crime rate citizens of Kings Mountain enjoy. Chief Lloyd said the city will have its own base unit in the very near future and return the one that is on loan to the police department.

Chief Lloyd said he is working on getting a certificate from the city to give CB's who help save a life or stop a crime by using their CB in reporting. It will be an award the recipient will be proud of, said the Chief.

Chief Lloyd told the club, "I'm behind you 100 percent."

Sgt. Reynolds talked to the club about "What to watch for" such as suspicious vehicles circling the same block over and over. Mr. Reynolds explained that a major crime only takes about two minutes to "come off", reason being that "these crooks have planned every move right down to the second." "This is one of the reasons we as citizens should be aware of what is going on around us at all times especially late at night.

Sgt. Reynolds pointed out that CB's should "just use common sense when reporting a crime" and noted that a "crook may have a CB radio in his car also."

Noting that criminals can and will use tactics to distract police away from a crime, Reynolds cited the local case of an empty house being set on fire while a crime was being committed in another part of town.

"Keeping this in mind," said Reynolds, "we would like, not only COPE members but all citizens of Kings Mountain, to ride around and keep your eyes open for anything suspicious. Citizens can help both the police and fire department.

Next meeting of COPE is slated Aug. 17.

JOHN EAKER Democratic Candidate For STATE SENATE

reprint from "Open Forum"

The Eagle, Cherryville, N.C.

April 14, 1976

I was glad to learn that John Eaker has decided to run for the State Senate in our district. I feel John is a capable young man and will do his best to perform his duties as a representative of the people. I think he has the ambition to help make our district a better place to live. Knowing John from a boy, he has always been a hard worker, and I believe with his ability and education he will be able to help solve a lot of the problems that face our people today. I know that John has a good background. He was reared by good parents who have always been willing to help people. I also knew his grandparents and great-grandparents. They were all people with the right attitude who always wanted to do something for the betterment of the community. I would like to see the people of this district support John Eaker, because I feel we would have a representative that we could be proud of and one that would have our interests and concerns at heart.

Sincerely,
Blaine W. Beam
