Bad Brakes Are Blamed For Wreck

Defective brakes was blamed for a two-car crash Thursday at the intersection of Walker St. and Mica St., according to KMPD Ptl. Harry Martin, called to scene of the accident.

Mrs. Joan R. Legan, of 101 Harmon Rd., told police the brakes on her 1975 Ford failed and her car hit the back of a 1968 Ford Truck operated by Raymond A. Reynolds, Rt. 2. Damages to the Legan car were estimated to be $300.

Terry Lynn Glass, 17, of Rt. 4, told Ptl. Michael Sanders her 1973 Chevy "quit running" and she went across the center line of the road and into a 1975 Datsun operated by Mrs. Janie T. Summey of 818 Scotland Dr. at intersection of Phifer Rd. and Gold St. Friday at 4:05 p.m. The Glass vehicle was damaged approximately $200 and the Summey car was damaged approximately $250. Michael Ormand, 10, Jon Summey, five, and Jenny Summey, two, were riding with Mrs. Summey. There were no injuries reported.

Jodie Plonk Is Enrolled At Newberry

Jodie Plonk of Kings Mountain was among 100 incoming freshmen and transfer students at Newberry College who attended a New Student Orientation Seminar at the College July 30.
The one-day program, one of four held this summer, was designed to give the new students an opportunity to meet with the college staff and student leaders, enroll for their courses, and to take placement examinations.
