Bridges-Fulton Wedding Vows Are Said Saturday

Mrs. James E. Anthony, Jr. invited them into the Fellowship Hall where the bride and groom, their parents, and wedding party greeted guests. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Miss Lenora Fulton, Mrs. William Pritchard Ferguson of Atlanta, Ga., aunts of the bridegroom; Mrs. Robert E. Schenk of Waterloo, Iowa, aunt of the bride; Mrs. William H. Jones of Jacksonville, N. C., cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broadwater, Dr. and Mrs. George W. Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gladden, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Eugene McCarter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lutz, Mrs. E. R. Goter, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Connor, all of Kings Mountain, and Miss Susan Angeline of Atlanta, Ga. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Poythress of Bethesda, Md., aunt and uncle of the bride.

The Fellowship Hall was festive with groupings of green plants. Williamsburg lanterns lined the walkway from the church and candles were used throughout the reception area. Overlaid with white cutwork, the bride's table, highlight of decoration, was arranged with twin five-branched silver candelabrum set with mixed autumn flowers to match the bouquets of the bride attendants. A silver punch bowl centered the table and silver appointments held party pick-ups. The autumn decor, featuring bronze and coral, featured decorations. For their wedding trip the new Mrs. Fulton chose a beige suit with rust accessories and a corsage of mixed autumn flowers. Anderson, South Carolina will be home for the poration, payable to the order of the Owner, or a Bidder's Bond acceptable to the Owner and running in favor of the Owner, in an amount equal to five percent of the maximum bid price. If a proposal is not accepted or if a proposal is accepted and a contract is executed, the check or Bidder's Bond will be returned in each instance within a period of thirty (30) days to the Bidder furnishing same; except that each Bidder agrees, provided its proposal is one of the three low proposals, that, by filing its proposal together with such check or Bidder's Bond in consideration of the Owner's receiving and considering such proposal, said proposal shall be firm and binding upon each such Bidder and such check or Bidder's Bond shall be held by the Owner for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days from the date hereinabove set for the opening of the proposals.

4. The successful Bidder will be required to enter into a contract with the Owner on the form attached hereto.

5. The Bidder's proposal shall specify price, any applicable price terms and delivery time, with the price to include transportation charges to Kings Mountain, North Carolina.

6. The Bidder's proposal shall specify the manufacturer, rating, and certification of each item of manufactured materials which is to be furnished.

7. The Owner reserves the right to waive minor irregularities or minor errors in the proposal, if it appears to the Owner that such irregularities or errors were made through inadvertence. Any such irregularities or errors so waived must be corrected on the proposal prior to its acceptance by the Owner.
