

Celebration Scenes...

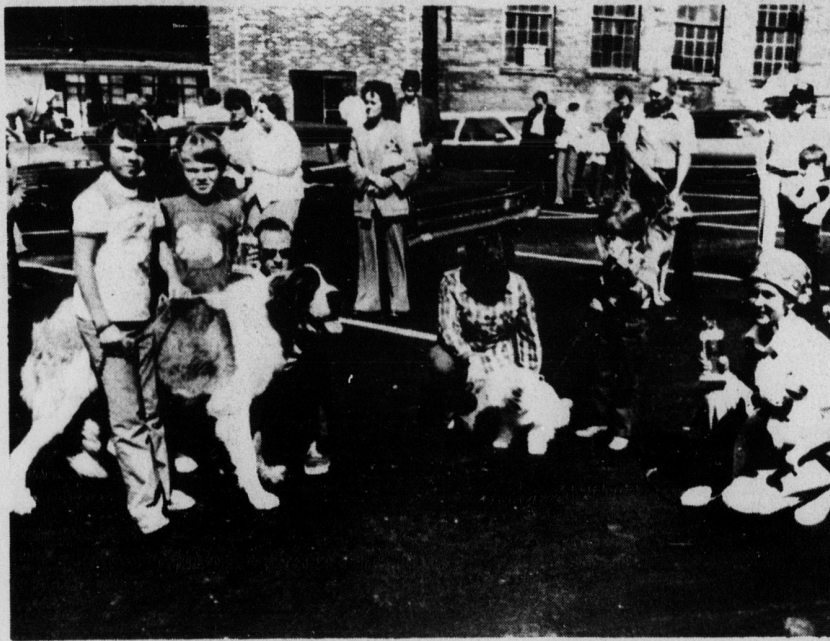

ROCKING ON through the night in the early hours of the rocking chair marathon at the community center.

SWINGING SENIORS. This is the Swinging Mountaineers, a band made up of senior citizens, who performed Friday night at the community center.

THE WESTWINDS from Reynolds Dance Club performed downtown on Bicentennial Square on Saturday afternoon.

PROUD PET OWNERS display their prize winning dogs after Saturday's pet show judging. Marion Thomasson (at right) holds Pierre, the first place winner. In center is Billy King with Lulu and third place went to Howard Lutz' pet Sleepy.

HERE'S MUD IN YOUR EYE! Gov. Jim Edwards of S. C. and Gov. Jim Holshouser of N. C. toast each other while Miss S. C., Lavinia Cox, and Miss N. C., Susie Proffitt, look on.

ALL DRESSED UP and no place to go! The rain prevented this group of ladies from Fulton's Department Store from modeling at Thursday's outdoor fashion show.

ROCKING CHAIR WINNERS . . .

In reverse order, third place: Claudette Connor, second place: Dottie Wyte, and first place: Leonard Tarbush. The latter is a city employee and rocked 79 hours, five minutes to win $300.

ART SHOW was held in the senior citizens park downtown Saturday featuring the work of Mrs. Diane Harper's KMSHS students.

FINALLY!

Wade's Final Close-Out Sale On New 1976 Fords.

Wade Tyner hasn't been feeling well lately. You see, he's still got way too many 1976 Fords parked on his lot. Pintos, Mavericks, Mustangs, Granadas, LTD's; even a Torino wagon and some trucks. And that makes Wade sick. So he's cut his '76 Ford prices one final whack.

Come on down and get Wade's rock bottom price on a new 1976 Ford. You'll save a lot of money, and that should make you feel good. And it would make Wade feel a little better, too.
