

Carrolls Wed At Bethany ARP

Bethany ARP Church of Clover, S. C. was the setting Sunday for a 4 p. m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Roxanne Beth McCarter and Eldred Randall Carroll.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Calvin Jett and Rev. F. W. Sherrill.

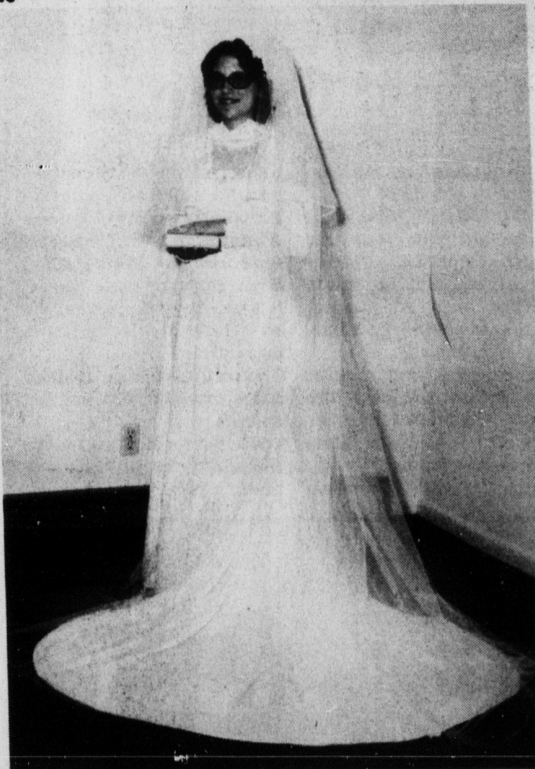

Mrs. Hugh Faulkner was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers were by Mrs. David Smith who sang "O Promise Me" and James Sherrill, who sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Smith and Mr. Sherrill sang "O Perfect Love."

The altar of the church was arranged with pompoms, glads and palm foliage with wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers and banked with palms.

Anderson McCarter escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was an Original design of Nyesta jersey and imported Venise lace. The empire bodice was fashioned with a sheer yoke of Point d'Esprit outlined with garlands of Venise lace and topped with a lace Edwardian collar. Matching lace circled the raised waistline and long, fitted sleeves had lace points at the wrists. The flowing skirt was enhanced with lace appliques and gathered back fullness spread to a Chapel train. She wore a Chapel length veil of English tulle overlaid with a short mantilla appliqued with Venise lace and caught to a lace Camelot cap. The bride carried a round bouquet of pompoms, carnations, baby's breath and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Callister attended her sister as

Asheville Is Wedding Scene

The Chapel of the First Baptist Church of Asheville was the setting Thurs., Oct. 7, for the wedding of Miss Eunice Cornelia Hord, formerly of Kings Mountain, and Labon Paschal Allen of Columbus, Ga.

Dr. Cecil E. Sherman officiated at the private ceremony in the presence of their immediate families.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Craig D. Falls, Mrs. J. B. Falls and Mrs. Alton Ivey, all of Kings Mountain, sisters of the bride.

Wilbur Gene Allen of Columbus, Ga. was his father's best man.

Gene Allen of Columbus, Ga., grandson of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

A luncheon-reception was hosted at Sheraton Inn after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen will reside in Columbus, Ga.

Daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. James Thomas Hord of Kings Mountain, the bride was formerly vice president of Biltmore Press, Inc. of Charlotte.

The bridegroom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Will Allen of Columbia, was formerly director of personnel at Tom's Food, Ltd. of Columbus, Ga. prior to his retirement. He is a retired executive and member of the board of directors of Tom Houston Peanut Co.

HONORED AT BUFFET

The bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be were honored last Wednesday evening at a cocktail buffet by Mrs. Robert P. Williams at her home at 17 Buckingham Court.

Circle Your Calendar

Circle your calendar and attend the annual Woman's Club Community Festival Wednesday at the Woman's Club.

Doors open to a big bazaar at 11 a. m. and Bazaar Chairman Mary Klepper predicts the biggest assortment of gift items and goodies ever displayed under one roof. There will be traditional school, church and garden club exhibits.

Lunch and dinner will be served and will feature the traditional turkey and ham with all the trimmings. Lunch will be served from noon until 2 p. m. and supper will be served from 6 until 7:30 p. m.

Ginny (Mrs. Jack) Arnette is general chairman of the 1976 festival and Phyllis (Mrs. John) Cheshire and Lynne (Mrs. Charles) Mauney are co-chairmen of the kitchen committee. Co-chairmen of the bazaar, which includes arts and crafts, are Mrs. Mary Klepper, Mrs. Mary Ann Testa, Mrs. Humes Houston and Mrs. W. T. Weir. President of the Woman's Club is Ruby (Mrs. Phillip) Baker.

Lib Stewart

After a wedding trip to Hawaii the couple will be at home at 4083 Lesley Drive in College Park.

PARENTS WEEKEND

More than 400 parents of Peace College students attended Parents Weekend on campus Oct. 2-3 and among those attending were Marion and Charles Carpenter, parents of Laura Carpenter, Peace College sophomore.

Among the weekend activities were mock classes, a tennis match, powder puff football game, variety show, a make-your-own-sundae party, a Sunday morning worship service in Dinwiddie Chapel and the President's Breakfast.

BAZAAR RESCHEDULED

Because of the bad weather last weekend during Mountaineer Days, the big bazaar planned by Ethel (Mrs. Paul) McGinnis and Sadie (Mrs. Hugh) Smith has been rescheduled until this Saturday.
