

Christmas Parties Are Held

Kings Mountain citizens are saying "Merry Christmas" at numerous Yule parties in the area this week.

Members of Frank B. Glass Post 9811 VFW and Auxiliary, their husbands and wives, dined and danced at the traditional party Saturday night at the Post Home on Grover Rd. Turkey and ham with all the trimmings were served from festive tables.

Legionnaires of Post 155, their wives, and members of the Auxiliary and their husbands dined and danced to the country music of "Bits and Pieces" Saturday evening at the Post Home on York Rd. The ballroom and foyer were festive with red and green decorations.

Gene Stone was winner of the 10-speed red bicycle presented by the Auxiliary in a prize drawing conducted by the Unit. Mrs. Jackie D. Barrett, chairman, said that proceeds are earmarked for veterans projects. State President Elizabeth Stewart drew the winning ticket. Miss Stewart has recently returned after attending Auxiliary-sponsored Christmas parties at all four veterans hospitals in the state at which hospitalized veterans were presented gifts from all 220 Auxiliary units in the state.

Saturday evening, Grover Rescue Squad members and invited guests held the traditional holiday supper at the Grover Squad building.

Country Clubbers dined and danced at the traditional holiday party Friday evening at the Country Club.

Publisher and Mrs. Garland Atkins entertained members of the staffs of General Publishing Co., also publishers of The Mirror-Herald, at their river cottage in Belmont Friday evening.

Dinner was served buffet-style and Christmas presents were exchanged.

Cooking Hints

When searing pot roasts on all sides prior to braising or cooking in liquid, turn it over with two large spoons. Don't use a long-handled fork, which will pierce the meat and allow juices to escape.
