

Couple Exchange Vows In Raleigh

MRS. JAMES V. PRESSLEY, JR.

West Raleigh Presbyterian Church was the setting Jan. 16 for a 2 p. m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Mary Aileen Beck of Raleigh and James V. Pressley, Jr. of Kings Mountain.

The couple exchanged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Steven Shoemaker.

Miss Belle Haeseler was organist for the program of traditional music.

The altar of the church was arranged with wrought-iron candelabrum entwined with ivy and decorated with roses, mums and baby's breath.

The bride's gown was a formal design of white imported organza featuring a demi-bell silhouette. The bodice was styled with mandarin neckline and gibson girl sleeves and fashioned of re-embroidered lace. Matching lace formed a wide border on the skirt. Her full length mantilla of imported silk illusion was accented by appliques. She carried a nosegay of carnations and miniature mums in white and pink.

Miss Deborah Baker of Raleigh attended the bride as maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a princess line floor-length mint green crepe dress enhanced by chiffon floral cape and carried a nosegay of carnations and miniature mums in white and pink.

Christopher Pressley of Raleigh was his brother's best man.

Groomsmen were

Gregory Beck of Durham, brother of the bride; Wayne Swofford of Raleigh, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Robert Cooper of Raleigh.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception which carried out the pink and white theme of the wedding. After receiving guests, the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip to London, England. For traveling, Mrs. Pressley chose a light royal blue suede knit dress with elbow-length sleeves.

Raleigh will be home for the newlyweds. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W. F. Tarkenton of Hertford and G. J. Beck of Winter Springs, Fla. and is a graduate of Kings Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. James V. Pressley of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom who is a graduate of North Carolina State University at Raleigh.

Band Parents Will Call On You For Trip Donations

You may have already been approached by a parent of a member of the Kings Mountain Senior High Band. If you haven't, you will be.

These band parents have tickets to sell for $1 donations. The donation entitles you to one shot at winning a portable color television set. The $1 for each ticket goes into a fund to finance a trip to Disney World in April for the band.

The 85-member band has been invited to appear as the band of the day in the Disney World parade on

GOSPEL SING

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Kings Mountain Woman's Club meeting scheduled for last night has been postponed until next Monday night at 7:45 at the Woman's Club building.

April 18, but the Disney amusement center does not pick up the tab.

Frank Sincos, co-chairperson of the steering committee to raise the funds, said, "The trip will cost $9,964 for all the band members and 10 chaperones. We hope the chances on the color TV set will raise at least $3,400."

"But, to do this, the band parents will have to sell all 4,000 tickets on the TV set," Mrs. Sincos said.

The committee voted to collect $40 from each set of parents for each band member in their family, which will be added into the common pot for the trip.

The drawing for the TV set, which was a special purchase from Timms Furniture, will be held on February 28 with the location being announced closer to that date. Ticket holders do not have to be present to win.

The first donations to the band trip came at the annual winter concert at Barnes Auditorium in December. A total of $800 was collected from the audience that evening. Besides the tickets on the TV set, other smaller projects are being planned and possibly a solicitation of businesses and industries in March.

The money raised for the trip will pay for accommodations for band members and chaperones, meals, rental on charter bus and a trailer for hauling band instruments and uniforms.

The sale of tickets by band parents will conclude February 26.
