Bridge Benefit Is Set

Circle your calendar for Tuesday, March 1, and attend the Valentine bridge benefit for the Heart Fund at Kings Mountain Country Club.

All proceeds from the morning bridge party at 10:30, followed by a luncheon and fashion show, and the dessert bridge party at 7:30 p. m. will benefit the 1977 Kings Mountain Heart fund.

Mary Anne (Mrs. Paul) Hendricks, Jr., chairman of the benefit, said that reservations should be made with Jerry King at KM Country Club by Sat., Feb. 26th, and that all players are asked to make up their own tables for bridge and bring their own cards.

Spring fashions will be modeled by local women representing downtown department stores.

Luncheon will be provided by the following Kings Mountain financial institutions and businesses: First Citizens Bank & Trust Co., First Union National Bank, Home Savings & Loan Association, Kings Mountain Savings & Loan Association, C. E. Warlick Insurance Agency and B. F. Maner Insurance Agency.

Admission is $5 donation to the Heart Fund.

TICKETS ON SALE HERE

Town & Country Garden Clubbers have tickets available locally at Griffin Drug Co. and KM Florist or from members for the annual Southern Living Show which opens Saturday at Charlotte Merchandise Mart.

Tickets are $2.50 from local members and $3.50 at the door during the show, which continues through March 6.

The unusually cold weather this year is making nursemens and landscapers work harder to get their willows, azaleas, camellias and dogwood trees ready for the Southern Living Show but the cold weather and fuel cutback won't stop garden exhibitors from giving their best, as they always do. They anticipate the same lovely gardens filled with fragrant flowers, colorful blooms and trees well leaved out that have been such spectacular sights in the past.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hambright announce the engagement of their daughter, Tina, to Doug Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green. Both families are of Kings Mountain.

The bride-to-be is a senior student at Kings Mountain Senior High School. The prospective bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of KMSHS and is employed by Park Yarn Mills.

The wedding will take place February 26th at 4 p. m. in Freewill Baptist Church on Second Street. The bride-to-be's grandfather, Rev. Jesse Mayberry, will officiate at the ceremony.

All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Couple Honored Saturday After Wedding Rehearsal

Miss Debbie Bolin and Mark George were honored after their wedding rehearsal Saturday night at an after-rehearsal party in the Fellowship Hall of David Baptist Church.

Entertaining together were Mr. and Mrs. John George, Jr., parents of the future bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Bart George, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom-to-be.

A color motif of red and white featured decorative details and refreshments. Overlaid with red tablecloth, the refreshment table was centered with a colorful bouquet of spring flowers. Silver appointments held an assortment of open-faced sandwiches, sausage balls, ham biscuits, cheese straws, chocolate balls, finger cookies, pecan tarts, and miniature fruit cakes. Pink punch was served from a silver punch bowl at one end of the table. A silver coffee service was used at the opposite end of the table.

Assisting in serving refreshments were Mrs. Horace Cunningham, Mrs. Tommy Hawkins, Mrs. Bill Davis, Mrs. Mike Baily and Mrs. Gary Sarvis.

The 75 guests were members of the two families and wedding party.

Miss Bolin wore a red formal-length gown with matching accessories.

Mr. George took the occasion to present his gifts to men of the wedding party.

The engagement of Miss Judith Darlene Wiggins and Jerry Michael Hipps of Shelby is announced by her mother, Mrs. Virginia H. Wiggins of Kings Mountain.

Miss Wiggins, daughter of the late John Wiggins, is a 1976 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and is employed in the office of Shelby K Mart.

The prospective bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hipps of Shelby, is a 1971 graduate of Twelve Oaks Academy and attended Cleveland County Technical Institute. He is employed by Spectrum Textured Fibers in Kings Mountain.

The wedding will be an event of May 27th.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Leftwich of Kings Mountain announce the arrival of their second child, a son, Bryan Edmond Leftwich, February 6th, Cleveland Memorial Hospital, Shelby.

The baby weighed seven pounds, 14 ounces.

Bryan is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Huffstetter and Mrs. Evelyn Drewes and the late Fred Drewes.

room. The head table held an arrangement of irises, tulips, jonquils, pompons, and baby's breath in an antique silver basket. On the arm tables were similar arrangements in silver cups.

The hostesses presented Miss Padgett with their wedding gift.

Among the 27 guests was the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. P. G. Padgett of Kings Mountain.

Miss Padgett and Capt. Blanchard were married Saturday at 11:30 in First Presbyterian Church.

Debbie Bolin Honored At Bridesmaids Luncheon

Miss Debbie Bolin, whose wedding to Mark George took place Sunday, was honored Saturday at a 1 p. m. bridesmaids luncheon hosted by Miss Nancy Hord and Miss Barbara Medlin at the Hord home on Cleveland Avenue.

Assisting the hostesses in serving a three-course luncheon were their mothers, Mrs. D. F. Hord, Mrs. Bud Medlin and Miss Anne Hord.

On their arrival, the 12 guests were invited into the den for hot punch.

Miss Nancy Hord offered a wedding blessing as members of the bridal party were seated at three small tables set up in the living room. Centerpieces for the luncheon tables, overlaid with white linen cloths, were pewter cups holding boxwood and candytuft. Magnolias decorated the den and living room.

Present as special guests were Mrs. Max Bolin, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. John George, Jr., mother of the prospective bridegroom. Mrs. Tolly Shuford, Jr., of Stoneville, mother of Tracy Shuford, flower girl in the wedding, was also a guest, along with wedding attendants.

Miss Barbara Medlin toasted the bride-to-be as she presented her an electric blender from the hostesses.

Miss Bolin took the occasion to give her attendants pewter monogrammed bracelets. The bride-to-be was presented a shoulder corsage of daisy mums which she pinned to the shoulder of her party dress.
