KM Basketball Scoring Leaders

Seniors Susan Mitchem and William Thompson were the Kings Mountain High basketball scoring leaders for the recently-completed 1976-77 campaign.

Mitchem, who set a new school scoring record for girls, finished with 424 points in 22 games for a 19.3 average. The only other player in the Southwestern Conference to outscore Susan was Nancy Scoggins, who led North Gaston to its second straight league title.

It marked the third straight year Mitchem had led the Mountaintettes in scoring but her performance this year meant more because she helped Coach Kathy Brooks' cagers to their best record (13-9) in nine years.

Priscilla Rickenbacker, a sophomore, was the only other Mountaintette to average double figures.

She scored 220 points for a 10.0 average. Gayla Roberts barely missed scoring double figures, hitting 206 points for a 9.5 average, and Judy Henderson was a close fourth with 171 points and an 8.1 average.

Thompson, who sat out the last three games for disciplinary reasons, scored 262 points in 19 ballgames for a 13.2 average.

Sophomore Vernon Bell was the number two scorer, hitting 241 points in 19 games for a 12.7 average. He sat out the Cleveland County Tipoff Tournament and one regular season game with an injury.

Eddie Ingram, who played his best basketball the last two weeks of the season, was the number three scorer with 216 points and a 9.8 average.
