

Hendersons Are Wed In Saturday Rites

East Gold Street Wesleyan Church provided the setting Saturday for a 3 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Cynthia Dianne Pearson and Ricky Eugene Henderson.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Alvin Newcomb, of Troy, uncle of the bride.

Bobby Cashion was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Mrs. Carl Barnett who sang "Love Me Tender" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The altar of the church was decorated with Boston fern enhanced by floor baskets of white gladioli and white and yellow daisies and wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers. A white prayer bench centered the setting.

B. L. Pearson escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design made by her mother of white polyester satin designed with empire waistline, jeweled neckline and front and back yoke overlaid with English lace. Wide lace cuffs enhanced the puffed sleeves and a Chapel length train extended from gathered fullness at the back of the floor-length skirt. She wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion bordered with English lace and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of daisies.

Mrs. Richard Stowe attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Cindi Biddix. Allison Barnett, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

The three attendants wore yellow formals of polyester satin designed along empire lines with jeweled necklines trimmed with daisies. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Terry Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Tim Riddle and Richard Stowe, brother-in-law of the bride, both of Kings Mountain.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the newlyweds will be at home on Linwood Road.

CAKECUTTING
After their wedding rehearsal, the bride-to-be and her future husband were entertained by the bride-to-be's parents at a cakecutting in the Fellowship Hall of East Gold Street Wesleyan Church.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Tommy Shytle, Mrs. James Falls and Mrs. George Nolen, all aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Mildred Shytle, Lorena Falls and the mother of the bride made the daisy-decorated wedding cake, which was served with yellow punch and party refreshments. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with lace over yellow and held the bridal cake as decorative highlight.
