

WINN-DIXIE & HOLLY FARMS PRESENTS A

SPRINGTIME CHICKEN JUBILEE!

WHEN YOU START WITH THE BEST CHICKEN, YOU END WITH THE BEST CHICKEN.

A great bird begins with basics. Like picking its parents. Knowing whether it was properly fed. And how long it took from plucking to platter. All raised by our own growers in carefully controlled surroundings, fed our own balanced diets, inspected by our own veterinarians and processed in our own plants. The largest poultry processing complex in the world.

KM Man Completes Training

Kings Mountain resident Roger Crisp has completed an advanced automotive sales workshop at the JC Penney Regional Training Center in Atlanta, Ga.

The course is designed to improve product knowledge, demonstration techniques, update warranty knowledge and selling techniques.

Crisp studied with JC Penney associates from throughout the eastern and southern United States during the four-day course. The Center is one of three the Penney Company operates. The other two are in Chicago, Ill., and Buena Park, Calif.

Crisp lives at Rt. 1, Box 311B, Kings Mountain, and has been with the Penney Company since 1976. He is a sales associate at the Eastridge Mall JCPenney store in Gastonia.

ACCIDENT REPORT

Twenty one persons were injured in 12 wrecks on Cleveland County roads, in which six people died, during the period March 7-20, according to Line Sgt. M. K. Holcomb of the State Highway Patrol.

BOILING SPRINGS — Gardner-Webb College will hold its third V.I.P. Weekend for high school and transfer students April 1-2.

Visiting V.I.P.'s, or Very Important Prospects, will be the guests of the college for the weekend and will be introduced to the educational programs, faculty and students.

Students staying on campus will be housed in the college's dormitories. They will tour the campus and may discuss their career plans with faculty members and administrators.

"Our hope is that through this kaleidoscope of activities each V. I. P. will come to get an accurate picture of who we are and can thereby determine if Gardner-Webb is the school for him," said Ray Pople, director of counseling services and student activities.

The activities will begin at 8 p. m., April 1, with mime artist Keith Berger performing in Hamrick Auditorium. Berger, who has a unique way of captivating and enchanting his audience, has performed to cheering audiences in Manhattan, New York City and Los Angeles. Tickets to the public will be $2.00.

At 11:15, April 2, the V.I.P.'s will be served lunch in the Charles I. Dover Campus Center and be entertained with Bugs Bunny, Little Rascals and other cartoons. Immediately following lunch, the guests will attend a special convocation program where they will meet with college president, Dr. Craven Williams and other administrators.

During the afternoon visitors may attend Gardner-Webb's tennis match against Warren Wilson or swim in the college's indoor pool which will be open from 1-5 p. m.

The musical group "First National Rotagilla" will conclude the weekend with a concert at 8 p. m. in Bost Gymnasium. Rotagilla is an excitingly different group combining Bluegrass, rock and slapstick comedy. Tickets will be $3.00.

Visiting V. I. P.'s will be admitted by contacting the Gardner-Webb admissions office.
