THE YEAR 2,000 — David Camp, left, and Leonard Humphries worked over two weeks on this class mural among exhibits entered by Kings Mountain students in Earth Week displays at the Asheville Convention

Center for the NCAE convention last weekend. East School's entry on the same theme won the first place award.

KM Entry Top Winner

Kings Mountain's entry in the state-wide mural display contest depicting Earth Week at the NCAE and ACT Convention in Asheville last weekend copped the first prize award.

"What Will It Be 2000 AD?" by the Fifth Grade at East Elementary School was the state winner in the K-

6 category. Michael Smith is the class teacher.

The entries were individual or groups. They were judged in K-6, 7-9 and 10-12 categories.

The Kings Mountain District Schools was represented with three murals. Others were "Let's Clean Up The Goodliest Land" by the Fourth and Fifth Grades of Beth-ware School and "The Year 2000" by Leonard Humphries and David Camp, seventh graders in Mr. Toney's class at Central School.

North Carolina Association of Classroom Teachers Citizenship Committee sponsored the contests.

Carter Re-Elected Auto Director

Paul C. Carter, Carter Chevrolet, Inc., Shelby, has been re-elected to the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association for a three year term.

He will represent the franchised new car and truck dealers in Cleveland, Gaston, Lincoln, and Rutherford counties in all official business of the 850 member dealer organization.

Carter, an automobile dealer since 1961, previously served as Treasurer of NCADA and is a past president and a charter member of the Cleveland County New Car Dealers

Association. Presently, he serves on the Board of Directors of CASCO, a dealer owned buying service for North Carolina franchised dealers.

Carter is a member of the Board of Directors of the Shelby Rotary Club and Shelby Savings & Loan Association. He and his wife Kitty reside in Shelby.

Carter will begin his second term as Director of District 6 at the conclusion of the 42nd Annual NCADA Convention on Hilton Head Island, S. C. April 30-May 4.
