Bids Deadline Is Reset

The Kings Mountain Redevelopment Commission is re-advertising for bids on construction of a pedestrian sidewalk downtown.

Gene White, executive director of the commission, said Tues., Apr.

12 was the deadline for bids, but only two contractors responded. State law requires at least three bidders on first advertisement.

The new deadline is 2 p. m., Fri., Apr. 22. The pedestrian sidewalk runs north from W. Mountain St. to the rear of First Union National Bank. The work consists of furnishing and installing concrete walks, brick paving, brick walls, lighting, benches, landscaping and other items.
