

Burtons Wed In Saturday Ceremony

MRS. GARMON W. BURTON JR.
(Victoria Timberlake)

Miss Victoria Timberlake and Garmon Walter Burton, Jr. were married Saturday, April 16, at 12:30 in the Carvers Creek United Methodist Church in Carvers, North Carolina. The Rev. William Ruth, brother-in-law of the bride, and the Rev. Charles Moore, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Burton was his son's best man.

The bride's formal length gown with attached chapel train was of ivory jersey and had a portrait neckline appliqued with venice lace. The long fitted sleeves were flared at the wrist and bordered with lace. Her cathedral veil of handmade Belgian lace belongs to her great aunt, Mrs. William F. Brewer, of Henderson. In addition to the bride's aunts and many cousins who have worn the veil, it was worn by the bride's Mother and sister in their respective weddings. Her bouquet was a cascade of Bells of Ireland interspersed with stephanotis.

Mrs. William Ruth of Graham was her sister's matron of honor. Her bittersweet floor length empire gown had stitched banding around the scooped neckline and the cap sleeves. Her bouquet was a spray of feathered coral carnations.

Her other attendants were Miss Melissa Neisler of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride; Miss Elizabeth Burton of Winston Salem, sister of the groom; and Miss Kate Judge of Greenwich, Connecticut, college roommate of the bride. Their dresses were similar to the matron of honor in a lighter shade of bittersweet. Their bouquets were sprays of feathered bittersweet carnations.

Groomsmen were Messrs. Alan Burton and Dale Burton of Winston Salem, brothers of the groom; Joseph Winston Timberlake, III of Richmond, Virginia, brother of the bride; and George Hege of Lake Waccamaw.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Martin Fox, organist, of Lake Waccamaw. For the processional, she played Trumpet Voluntary by Purcell and for the recessional, Hornpipe from Water Music by Handel.

The church was decorated with a pair of chalice shaped white urns filled with greens, white snapdragons and azaleas.

Mrs. Burton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winston Timberlake of Lake Waccamaw. She is the granddaughter of Mr. Joseph Neisler, formerly of Kings Mountain, and the late Mrs. John Caveny of Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Hallsboro High School and attended Roanoke, College in Salem, Virginia.

Mr. Burton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garmon Walter Burton, Sr. of Winston Salem. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he majored in Business Administration. He is in business with his father in the Garmon Burton Construction Company.

After their honeymoon the couple will make their home in Lexington.

RECEPTION

Following their marriage a reception was given by the bride's parents at nearby Oakland Plantation on the Cape Fear River, Revolutionary period home owned and restored by the bride's maternal grandfather, Joe Neisler.

Greeting the guests at the front door were Mrs. Joe Neisler, Sr. of Lake Waccamaw and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neisler, Jr. of Kings Mountain.

Champagne Punch and fruit punch were served in the drawing room. Guests were directed to the River Porch where the bride and groom and their mothers received.

Keeping the register were Miss Pauline Neisler of Pageland, S. C., Miss Stella Neisler of Kings Mountain, Miss Sara Roberts of Gastonia, all cousins of the bride, and Miss Rosemary McLean of Lake Waccamaw.

Guests were then directed to the dining room where luncheon plates were served.

The bridal table held the four tiered white wedding cake, topped with a tiny bouquet of baby's breath and rosebuds. The bridesmaids' bouquets encircled the cake.

Musicians entertained on the lawn where tables were provided for guests to eat.

The rooms of the home were decorated throughout with magnolia leaves, ferns, azaleas and snapdragons.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Neisler and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neisler, all of Pageland, S. C., aunts and uncles of the bride.

For her honeymoon, the bride chose a two piece dress in a floral print with spring green, yellow and bittersweet on white and a green cymbidium orchid.

PARTIES

After the wedding reception Mr. and Mrs. Timberlake hosted a cocktail party at their home at Lake Waccamaw for family members and out-of-town guests.

Following their party, at 7 p. m., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neisler, Jr. of Kings Mountain, uncle and aunt of the bride, were hosts at a Roast Beef Dinner at Oakland. Helping their parents entertain were their children, Stella Lee, Rick, Melissa and Theresa.

REHEARSAL DINNER

On Friday evening, April 15th, a rehearsal party, honoring Miss Vicki Timberlake and Garmon Burton, Jr., was given at "The Holiday" in Whiteville. Entertaining with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garmon Burton of Winston Salem, were Mrs. Joseph Bulce, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dalton, Dr. and Mrs. Al Dorenbusch, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Francis, all of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cookerly of Bethesda, Md., Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Grubbs of Darien, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whisman of Gastonia.

A trio of musicians entertained during the cocktail and dinner hours. After dinner, Mr. Burton began the toasts to the young couple, and Robert Dalton of Charlotte led the co-hosts in a series of musical parodies and toasts.

Guests included members of the wedding party, relatives of the two families, and out-of-town guests.

St. Matthews Is Scene Of Double-Ring Ceremony

Saint Matthews Evangelical Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday at 2:30 p. m. for the wedding of Miss Kathryn Irene Davis and Arnold Eugene Gordon-Wright.

The Rev. Robert Eugene Allen officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

At the double-ring ceremony the bridegroom used his mother's first wedding band which she received 44 years ago.

Mrs. Laurence Eugene Hinnant was organist for the program of nuptial music and Jeffrey Morris Maples was trumpeter. The processional music was "Trumpet Voluntary" by Clarke and the recessional was "Hornpipe" from "Water Music" by Handel.

Dennis Keith Carroll was Crucifer and Russell Edward Wright was Acolyte.

The altar of the church was arranged with candles and snapdragons and daisies in two altar vases. Kenneth Irvin Davis escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white Quiana designed along empire lines with high V neckline edged in lace and long sleeves cuffed at the wrist and edged in lace. The chapel length train, which extended from the empire waistline, was also edged with matching lace. A white lace camelot hat held her floor-length bouffant illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. Roberta Davis Hassman of Massillon, Ohio, attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Marie Hassman and Miss Kimberly Kay Hassman, nieces of the bride, Miss Vivian Elizabeth Carroll of Valdese, niece of the bridegroom, Mrs. Anne Wright Barbee Wright of Kings Mountain sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

All the attendants wore formal length gowns of light aqua Quiana designed along princess lines with sleeveless bodices with scoop necklines and topped with capes, the matron's in lace and the attendants in matching chiffon. They wore wrist-length white gloves and their headpieces were light aqua halos of circular illusion. They carried natural baskets of white daisies and yellow sweetheart roses.

Karen Louise Hassman, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed identically to the adult attendants.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father, Marvin Noah Wright.

Groomsmen were Henry Lawrence Carroll, Sr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Kenneth Scott Davis of Charlotte, brother of the bride; Dewight Hamilton Edwards, III, of Hickory, Ronald Joseph Hassman, of Massillon, Ohio, brother-in-law of the bride, and Marvin Edward Wright of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom received guests at a beautifully-appointed reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall which was hosted by the bride's parents. Overlaid with white cloth overlaid with lace, the bride's table, highlight of decoration, held a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in white and yellow roses and topped with bride and bridegroom figurine. An arrangement of all-white flowers was flanked by two silver candlesticks holding white tapers and centered the table. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gladden.

There is a difference between shears and scissors. Scissors have two ring handles, each just large enough for one finger. Shears have one ring handle for the thumb and one long handle for two or more fingers.

MRS. ARNOLD GORDON-WRIGHT
(Kathryn Davis)

SARAH MEREDITH HAMRICK

ENGAGED — Dr. and Mrs. Ladd Watts Hamrick, Jr. announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Meredith, to Melvin Rodger Vanderburg, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rodger Vanderburg. Both families are of Concord. The bride-elect, granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Watts of Bolling Springs, formerly of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Charlotte Country Day School and will graduate in June from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Concord High School and East Carolina University. A July 30th wedding is planned at First Presbyterian Church in Concord.

Bride-Elect Feted At Bridal Shower

Miss Kathy Wright, whose wedding to Chuck Dover of York, S. C., takes place May 1, was honored Saturday evening at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Calvin Hughes at her home on Katherine Street.

The 18 guests showered the bride-to-be with gifts of lingerie.

A color note of pink and white featured decorative details and refreshments.

Overlaid with lace over pink, the refreshment table held a pink and white arrangement with silver appointments. Pink punch was served with cake squares, cheese and sausage balls, and pink and white mints.

Miss Wright was given a shoulder bouquet to wear with her party dress and a trousseau gift from the hostesses.

Miss Wright Honored At Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Kathy Wright, whose wedding to Charles Dover, Jr. of York, S. C., takes place May 1, was honored Saturday evening at a bridal shower hosted by Mrs. Jerry Dover, aunt of the bridegroom-to-be, in York, S. C.

Guests showered the honoree with miscellaneous household gifts.

A color motif of green and white featured decorative details and refreshments. Party pickups, including cheese balls, nuts, and cake squares were served with punch from silver appointments.

Special guests included the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. James R. Wright; her grandmother, Mrs. Sidney Short; her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Dover, Sr.; Mrs. Calvin Hughes of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Ann Gilfillian of Hickory Grove, S. C., Mrs. Mary Peterson, Mrs. Robert Peterson and Mrs. Edith Gilfillian, all of Blacksburg, S. C.

Club Benefit Set

Woman's Clubbers will be dealing cards of tomatoes, green pepper, squash and other garden items as they play bridge, rook and canasta Thursday night for benefit of the club's community service projects.

The spring gardening theme will be featured in decorative details.

Tickets, which are available at the door at 7:30 p. m., are $2 and the cost also includes dessert. Prizes will go to high scorers.

Lynn (Mrs. Charles) Mauney is chairman of the arrangements committee.

WELCOME SPRING SHOW

"Welcome Sweet Spring-time" will be staged May 3 by Open Gate Garden Clubbers in a special presentation at Dellinger's Jewel Shop. Full details for the presentation will be announced at a later date and were discussed at the club's monthly meeting April 13 when they toured the spring garden of Mrs. Robert E. Lewis at her home in Bessemer City.

After the garden tour, Mrs. Lewis served punch and cookies to guests. Mrs.

Lib Stewart

Paul Walker and Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr. were hostesses and Mrs. John Gamble presided over a short business session.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shytie, Jr. entertained Sunday evening at a dinner party honoring Mr. Shytie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shytie, on their 24th wedding anniversary. It was a double surprise celebration for the Shyties. Mrs. Tom Shytie Sr., the former Millie Roper, also was celebrating a birthday.

Family members enjoyed dinner and champagne toasts were made to the honored couple.

AFTER REHEARSAL

An after-rehearsal party was hosted for Kathryn

Davis and Arnold Gordon-Wright on Friday evening at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall by the parents of the bridegroom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin N. Wright.

The table was covered with a mint green cloth overlaid with lace. A crystal and silver basket held a spring flower arrangement with silver candlesticks holding yellow lighted tapers. Fancy sandwiches, a cheese tray and dips were served with cake and punch.

Guests were members of both families, the wedding party and out-of-town wedding guests.

The engaged pair took the occasion to present gifts to their attendants.